

Taiwan Research Reactor (TRR), complete with heavy water and fuel. This sale was conditional on Taiwan's concluding with the IAEA a safeguards agreement by which Taiwan would undertake not to use the TRR reactor in such a way as to further any military purpose. This agreement continues to be implemented, and the TRR reactor remains subject to IAEA safeguards.

(e) Argentina

In December 1973, Atomic Energy of Canada Limited and the Comision Nacional de Energia Atomica (CNEA) signed a contract for the supply of one 600 MW CANDU reactor to Argentina together with the fuel, heavy water and technology necessary for its commissioning, operation and maintenance. The December 1973 contract contained a clause requiring the completion of a safeguards agreement between Argentina and the IAEA before the contract could be implemented. This agreement was concluded in December 1974.
