

Foreign Service Community Association

The Foreign Service Community Association (FSCA) is a volunteer organization dedicated to the welfare of Canadian Foreign Service employees and their spouses and dependants. Among its activities, it monitors departmental policy on family issues, holds regular meetings with the Department, offers a computerized data base in Ottawa and all missions for spousal employment, makes recommendations for improvements on matters of concern, organizes activities for members, and publishes a quarterly magazine, the Bulletin.

Membership is open to anyone in the Foreign Service, employees on secondment or retired, and their families. The annual dues are $20.
