

July 25th,
1928.

Dean Barton,
Macdonald College,
Ste. Anne de Bellevue.

Dear Dean Barton:

Many thanks for your kind letter.

You understand, of course, the spirit in which my letter was written, and it was only for the purpose of protecting you against such criticism that I thought you ought to hear about it.

Your very nice letter is just another indication of what an asset you are to the College.

With all kind regards,

Sincerely yours,

A handwritten signature, possibly initials, consisting of a large, stylized letter 'A' with a horizontal line extending to the right.