HARNESS RACES AGAIN POSTPONED AT LEXINGTON

LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 14.—Rain caused a postponement of the trotting meeting of the Kentucky Horse Breeders' Association again today. It was expected that yesterday's program and the races on the card for today would be finished, but they must go over till Thursday. The champion stallion stake, valued at about $8000, for three-year-old trotters, was considered the principal event. Some of the star colts were entered in this event, including Toddler and Peter Volo. Other stakes on the double card are the Ashland and Kentucky. The former, to which trotters in the 2-19 class were eligible, had a high class field entered. The Kentucky was for three-year-olds and was worth $2000.

If the weather permits, it was announced today, the meeting will be resumed early tomorrow, and racing will continue all day, and probably all day Friday.

OUTSIDER WINS CESAREWITCH.

NEWMARKET, England, Oct. 14.—Troubadour, an outsider in the betting, today won the Cesarewitch Stakes, a handicap for three-year-olds and up, run at the second October meeting at Newmarket. Green Falcon was second and Arda third. Twenty-one horses started. The race was run over the Cesarewitch course, a distance of two miles and a quarter.
