Special to The Toronto World.

MAJ. GEN. STEELE MAKING PROGRESS

Fell From Horse on Saturday day and Dislocated His Shoulder.

STAYED IN YESTERDAY

Soldiers at Camp Took Advantage of Sunday to Rest.

Major-General S. B. Steele, inspector-general of the forces in Western Canada, who fell from his horse on Saturday afternoon and injured his shoulder, is reported by the medical authorities to be making good progress. The general's shoulder was dislocated by the fall, but the doctors state that his condition is quite satisfactory. Major-General Steele has been recently mentioned as the probable commander of the second Canadian contingent.

Not so Lively.
It was noted that fewer soldiers than usual took advantage of "leave" to spend Sunday afternoon away from the camp. This was partly due to the men feeling tired after Saturday's big parade, when they stood or walked for four and a half hours in heavy marching order. The Mounted Rifles Regiment devoted quite a proportion of their time yesterday to a general "airing" of their quarters in the poultry building. Particular attention was given to the mattresses and bedclothes which were shaken outside in the grounds.

Sunday Services.
Rev. Professor Robert Law, of Knox College, was the preacher at the camp church service yesterday, held at 10 a.m., in the transportation building. He preached from the text, "As thy days, so shall thy strength be." The members of the 4th Artillery Brigade attended the morning service at Broadway Tabernacle. Rev. W. E. Young spoke on "A Young Man's Glory." Members of St. John's Ambulance Brigade in camp also attended a church service outside of the grounds. They went to the morning service at Northern Congregational Church, North Rosedale.

The Y.M.C.A. service in the dairy hall last night was under the auspices of the Central Association. College street. H. Whitelaw presided. Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Ransbury, the singing evangelists, and their daughter, Miss Babe Ransbury, sang at the Y.M.C.A. meetings yesterday afternoon.

Rifle Practice at Ranges.
This week at Long Branch ranges the 19th Battalion will go thru firing practices of a more advanced order. Lieut. E. H. Price, who was in charge of the musketry practice at the ranges last week, states that many excellent scores were made, and all the shooting was very satisfactory. One company of the 14th walked out to Long Branch in heavy marching order each day, fired from 1 to 5 p.m., finishing up with five rounds at a target 500 yards away. This week the range will be greatly increased.

Participation in the firing practice by the machine gun sections is now a feature of the Long Branch training. They fired at ranges of from 400 to 1000 yards and did very well. The scores made by the 19th Battalion and the machine gun sections show the efficiency of the preliminary training received during the winter at the Exhibition Park Camp. The signallers are now working out in the Long Branch, keeping up communication with the camp.

At the outdoor ranges the officers of the Eastern Machine Gun Battery will go thru pistol practice from 4 to 5 o'clock this afternoon.

Doctors to Go.
Dr. J. J. Mackenzie, Dr. T. G. Brodie will go overseas with the pathological laboratory, which is to be connected with the University of Toronto General Hospital. They will return in the fall, after the work is started. Contributions to the hospital now total $500. Dr. E. P. Watson will be attached to the hospital at Surgeon.

Auctioned Cards.
The upstart plans for the care of wounded soldiers by the injured men auctioning off their identification cards while on the Bologno Ambulance train, is told in a letter received in Toronto from Lieut. James White of the R.A.M.C. On arrival at Boulogne the recruiting officer was much confused until he discovered the men's joke.

Particulars of how her husband, Gunner Ball, met his death at sea have been received by Mrs. W. J. Ball of Fairbank, his widow. While the Canadians were on the sea voyage from England to France an enormous wave dashed over the deck. Gunner Ball was knocked against the flooring and killed instantly.

War Decoration.
In a letter to his brother in Toronto, Sgt. E. Shine of the Second South Staffordshire, and formerly of Toronto, modestly tells of winning the distinguished conduct medal. He won the decoration at the battle of Ypres-Cottreth where, altho himself wounded, he carried a comrade to safety under heavy fire.

ADDRESS MEN'S ASSOCIATION.
The Men's Association of St. Anne's Church will have an important meeting tonight in the parish hall, Dufferin street, when an interesting address on "The Trail of the Destroyer" will be given by Prof. J. Squair of Toronto University.

SPEAK AT FINANCE FORUM.
A. E. Ames will speak on "The War and the Investment Market," and S. J. McLean will discuss "Railway Regulation" at the Central Y.M.C.A. finance forum, Tuesday.

St. Andrew's-by-the-Sea.
The Algonquin Hotel, which is owned and operated by the C. P. R., has just been rebuilt. It is handsomely furnished, and is being carefully adapted to the requirements of a seaside resort and it enables a stay of a few weeks to be spent most enjoyably. The inn is also opened by the company, and it exerts in quietness and comfort. The large transitory population usually found at the average summer resort is not in evidence at St. Andrew's. The parties go for a lengthened visit, and they quickly form desirable acquaintances with people.

Spot Cash— When You Need It

The untimely death of your partner will mean the winding up of his estate for the benefit of his heirs. Most of that estate will probably be in the business, and the heirs have the right to demand their share at once, in cash. Suppose they do: where will you be, and what will happen the business?

The Canada Life Partnership Protection Policy

meets this very case. YOU can't make a satisfactory provision against this possible calamity because it is uncertain. It may not happen for years and it may come tomorrow. The partnership contract is the only possible way whereby the demand will be met in full and at once.

The Canada Life has given much study to this, one of the greatest problems of the business world, and will gladly forward particulars which will interest you and perhaps save you from loss.

SOUDAN INSURRECTION ONLY FANTASTIC TALE

Even Berlin Forced to Admit Sensational Report is Unfounded.

BERLIN, March 21.—(By wireless to Sayville, L. I.)—The report recently published by The Vossische Zeitung concerning an insurrection in Soudan and an English defeat has proved to be untrue, says an overseas news agency item made public here tonight.

A despatch on March 18 said that a German merchant who had recently returned from Egypt was authority for the assertion that the whole of Soudan including Khartoum and also parts of Nubia, was in possession of the Dervishes. This traveler, whose statements were published in The Vossische Zeitung, also described an engagement near Fashoda last December in which Gen. Howley of the British army and a number of other officers, together with almost 2000 men, lost their lives.

membership was unanimously voted to H. H. McKee.

In making changes in the constitution, the question of awarding life memberships to members who were on championship crews for three consecutive years was considered at great length and it was finally decided to throw the matter out at the next meeting.

NO APOLOGY FOR MEN WHO GO TO THE FRONT

No Eulogies for War, Says Dr.
Endicott, But One Bows
in Homage.

"We need to see what an atmosphere is ours, and in what spirit we must labor to drive out the things that are antagonistic to humanity," declared Dr. James Endicott of Toronto, in his message to Varsity students yesterday morning in Convocation Hall. Conquest consisted, the speaker stated, only in getting a better understanding and appreciation of what one came in contact with. This was true in the world of science, of invention, in warfare, in religion just as in other phases of life, the only way to make progress was by faith, sympathy, understanding, and reconciliation.

Altho the whole tone of national life had been changed by the war, Dr. Endicott said that the Christian religion was here before the war and would endure after it. Christianity had not been discarded, but was, on the contrary, richer than ever. He did not think that there would be disarmament after this war, and confessed himself to be much more concerned with moral neutrality than with that of the sword. "We have no salaries for war," he exclaimed, "it is a monstrous and brutal necessity, but we do bow in homage to the men who fight and die for us. There needs to be no apology for the fighting man today."
