

diverted or misapplied, either by the Treasurer or Directors, or any other officer or member of such society entrusted therewith, under such penalty or forfeiture as such society shall, by any rule, enforce and inflict for such offence.

V. And be it enacted, That the rules for the management of every such society, shall be entered and recorded in a book to be kept for that purpose—which book shall be open at all seasonable times, for the inspection of the members of such society; but nevertheless, nothing contained herein shall extend to prevent any alteration in, or amendment of, any such rules, in the whole or in part, or making any new rules for the management of such society, in such manner as by the rules of the said society shall, from time to time, be provided.

VI. And be it enacted, That all rules from time to time made and in force, for the management of such society, and entered and recorded as aforesaid, shall be binding on the several members and officers of the said society, and the several contributors thereto, and their representatives—all of whom shall be deemed and taken to have full notice thereof, by such entry and record as aforesaid; and the entry of such rules in the book or books of the said society as aforesaid, or a true copy of the same, examined with the original and proved to be a true copy, shall be received as evidence of such rules respectively, in all cases; and no certiorari or other legal process shall be brought or allowed to remove any such rules into any of Her Majesty's Courts of Record.

VII. And be it enacted, That no rule entered as aforesaid, shall be altered, rescinded or repealed, unless at a general meeting of the members of such society, convened by public notice written or printed, signed by the Secretary or President of the said society, in pursuance of a requisition for that purpose, by not less than fifteen of the members of such society, which requisition shall state the objects for which the meeting is called, and shall be addressed
