Appointment of game superintendent.

How chosen.

Other persons may be appointed by Commissioner as game-keepers.

Powers may be restricted.

1411. No proceeding under this section shall be quashed annulled or set aside by certiorari; but an appeal may, within ten days, be brought before the Circuit Court of the district in which the offence took place or the seizure and confiscation were effected, in the same manner as appeals under the Municipal Code, if the proprietor or his attorney or mandatary ad hoc be present at the time of such seizure and confiscation, when the proceedings are for such seizure and confiscation; but when the proprietor, his attorney or mandatary is not present the right of appeal remains during the whole of the delay required by the notice mentioned in article 1409.

A similar delay of ten days to appeal exists respecting the fine.

The Government of the Province cannot be held to be responsible for any costs incurred in virtue of such proceedings. 47 V., c. 25, s. 15.

1412. No prosecution shall be brought after six calendar months from the day of the committing of the offence charged. 47 V., c. 25, s. 16.

§ 4.—Appointments, Game Licences, etc.

1413. There shall be, for the purpose of specially insuring the execution of this section and of all other laws respecting hunting, which may be passed for this Province, a game superintendent general, at a salary not exceeding $1800, and a game inspector général at a salary not exceeding $1500, appointed by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council.

The said two officers shall, at the same time, perform the duties of superintendent and inspector of fisheries for the whole Province."

1414. The Commissioner has also the power of appointing persons to see the observance of this section and of any law which may hereafter be passed relating to game in this Province, and to assign to them any territory or division which he may, under the circumstances, deem advisable.

These persons are to be called game-keepers, and the Commissioner may, in certain cases, restrict, as far as they are concerned and also as far as other game keepers under his control are concerned, the powers conferred upon them by this section.
