

BICENTENARY REPORT.

"Therefore, be it resolved, that the occasion is one which the Church in Canada may be invited to join in celebrating as an epoch in its history, and that a joint committee be appointed to co-operate with the Diocese of Nova Scotia in this matter."

This resolution was subsequently concurred in by the Lower House, on motion of His Honour Judge Savary, seconded by the Ven. Archdeacon Raymond, and on motion of Vice-Chancellor Davidson, seconded by the Ven. Archdeacon Armitage, the Prolocutor of the Synod was asked to appoint a committee on the proposed celebration.

Interior of All Saints' Cathedral, Halifax, Nova Scotia