NOT GOOD POLITICS.

The Conservatives at Ottawa have had two cracks at defining their position in regard to the duty of Canada to herself and to the mother country in connection with naval defence. First of all they joined with the ruling Liberals in a unanimous declaration for a Canadian navy. This was at the opening of last session. Before the end of the session they withdrew from this position and substantially declared for an immediate vote for battleships and a reference of the question of a navy to the people. They are now declaring that nothing be done in the way of a navy until an appeal to the country has been made.

This switching of position and this declaration to do nothing but consult the people is an instance of misguided policy. Political parties must keep their faith as individuals must, also if you find yourself wrong there is nothing like confessing it.

But on the other point it is altogether contrary to the ideas of responsible government for a party to say that they can do nothing until the people have been consulted. The party in opposition can always say that they decline to propose any policy, and that they cannot express any opinion other than to negative the government one. But in a matter of supreme importance such as the defence of the country or the defence of the empire for a party to say that they desire to put the responsibility upon the people, is to our mind impolitic and an impossible proposal; because to our mind the defence of the country must always rest upon the country's best men and the ones who are trained to politics and who are supposed to know the situation better than the ordinary citizen. Parliament is for that purpose. The ordinary citizen is not competent in a general way to frame up a war policy or to declare war should it be in order.

We do not believe that any country could remain in existence whose policy in regard to its defence was left to a vote of the people. If there are any cases in point we would like to see them stated. For a party that has the reputation of being conservative and pro-British, and that assumed the responsibility of establishing a militia service for this country to say that it has not a policy in regard to its defence other than what the people of the country may decide on any referendum, is a confession of weakness or it may be the straining after the somewhat doubtful object of putting the other fellow in a hole. But it is not good politics for Conservatives or those who believe in responsible government.

BRITAIN AND HOME RULE.

Home rule for Ireland and its supposed menace to the United Kingdom will scarcely be so potent a cry for the Unionist party as it was a generation ago. Mr. Gladstone was undoubtedly in advance of his time when he accepted the principle and the form he gave it was not calculated to disarm the hostility of those not prepared to support so radical an experiment. Since that time much water has run under London bridge, and a marked change has passed over the Liberal party and the country. The situation has been clarified and a gradual approximation has taken place between the British and Irish points of view. This was very observable during the discussion over the report that the recent conference had under consideration a system of devolutionary local government for each of the component nations of the kingdom preparatory to the attempt to devise a federal system for the empire. This latter proposition presents many and possibly insuperable difficulties, but the fact remains that it evoked widely expressed sympathy in quarters hitherto opposed to the creation of local legislatures. It will be difficult to get any intelligent elector to believe that what was received with favor a few weeks ago is now a deadly danger to the state.

Lord Macdonnell, under secretary to the lord lieutenant of Ireland for six years, and originally appointed by the late Conservative government, in a recent speech at Dublin outlined the chief heads of the political creed formulated by the Irish Reform Association, of which body Lord Dunraven is chairman. It postulates in the first place, he said, the maintenance at Westminster of a parliament reduced in numbers, but with plenary powers of control over the three kingdoms and all subordinate legislative assemblies. Second, the exercise by that parliament of the individual control and management of all matters regarding imperial foreign relations, defence, trade and commerce, taxation of the United Kingdom and all that business and those services which apply to the United Kingdom as a whole. Third, the creation in Ireland of a representative assembly, with legislative and executive function controlling the executive and dealing with all matters devolved by the enabling statute. Fourth, the establishment of an Irish treasury subject to the Irish assembly's control. This appears to be in substantial accordance with Mr. Redmond's explanation of what Ireland wants as given in an American review. He, however, indicates that the imperial parliament should only have the supreme over-riding authority over the Irish legislature, which it possesses over the parliaments of the self-governing over-sea states. That, of course, would mean nothing and will hardly be acceptable in the case of the United Kingdom, where the control of parliament over subordinate legislatures must remain instant and effective. But it will no doubt be found that Ireland will accept a legislature compatible with the maintenance of the union and with the supremacy of parliament.

TRYING TO THROW DOWN THE VIADUCT.

Animus on the part of The Evening Star and The Evening Globe was displayed last night in their "loaded" report against the Bloor-street viaduct. These papers and the mayor are playing a game to defer the submission of the bylaw this year. When the facts are against the arguments, nothing remains but to manufacture new facts or distort existing ones. So scarce heads announced last night that there was no land provided to build the viaduct upon.

Included in the cost of the construction of the viaduct last year was the sum of $150,000, which the assessment commissioner then stated would be more than ample for the purpose. The policy of delay in the building of the viaduct which The Star supports, is one which, of course, increases the cost of land year by year, and by following The Star policy and adopting its line of reasoning the viaduct would never be built, because it is always going to cost more each year. To cure this, obviously, the policy is to build it at once.

The Globe will probably correct its error and state the facts that the $150,000 will be still more than ample, in spite of increasing cost, to cover land damages. We can scarcely expect The Star to be so ingenuous, as it is committed, for some special reason, to a campaign to kill the development of the east end by preventing the construction of the Bloor-street viaduct. The Star is very much better informed according to its views than the city hall authorities, and in all matters of calculation, finance and so forth would have the people follow it rather than their own as it would say "specious" interests.

The Star's policy is one of delay. Wait for twenty years, it pleads, until we are all dead, and there is a monument to the memory of Deacon Joseph, and then let the east enders build a viaduct if they want one. The fact of the matter is The Star is not up-to-date. Even its news about the viaduct is unreliable.

PROGRESSIVE VICTORIES IN THE UNITED STATES.

Notwithstanding the desperate efforts made by the corporations that have been so long exploiting the people of the United States, the movement for direct legislation thru the initiative and referendum continues to gain headway. Colorado, which has been much in the public eye in consequence of the struggle between the people and the "Beast," gave a vote of two to one in favor of reform. According to The Johnstown, Pa., Democrat "money was poured out like water by the corporations. Millions of letters, circulars, hand bills and posters were emitted and billboards all over the state were aflame with passionate denunciations of the people's rule." But all this lavish expenditure and flood of tainted literature proved of no avail. Henceforward in Colorado all legislation and all franchise grants procured against the public interest will require electoral approval.

San Francisco, a city that has been the prey of grafters and exploiters of all kinds, has also spoken with decisive voice in favor of good and clean civic government. At the election held on Nov. 16 the charter amendment regarding the initiative, recall and referendum was carried by a large majority, as were the amendments providing for majority rule and restoring the Australian ballot and removing all party designations even opposite the candidates' names. Other amendments carried, authorize the city to build tunnels and subways and prevent monopoly of them by any street railroad and enable the city to take over public utility franchises at a fair valuation. Out of 39 amendments submitted almost without exception those making for good government were carried. This victory places San Francisco among the most progressive cities of the United States, and will greatly encourage reformers everywhere.

HELPLESS CRIPPLE FROM RHEUMATISM

Five Boxes of "Fruit-a-tives" Cured Her

4 Home Place, Toronto, Dec. 15th, 1909.

"I was a terrible sufferer from Rheumatism for nearly a year, and my right arm was swollen and the pain was fearful. All down the right side the pain was dreadful, and I could hardly move for the agony. I was treated by two physicians, but their medicine did me no good, and I tried numerous other remedies, but received no benefit. I was simply a helpless cripple and suffered from Rheumatism all during last winter.

"I saw 'Fruit-a-tives' advertised in The Telegram, and decided to try this remedy. After I had taken one box, I was much better and the pain less, and I continued the treatment with good hopes. When I had taken three boxes, I was so well that I could use my arm again, and the pain was practically gone. After I had taken five boxes I was entirely well again—no pain—no suffering—and now I am as well as I ever was.

"The cure of my case by 'Fruit-a-tives' was indeed splendid, because all the doctors failed to even relieve me of my sufferings.

"For the sake of others who may suffer from this terrible disease, Rheumatism, I give you permission to publish this statement."

MRS. LIZZIE BAXTER.

"Fruit-a-tives" is the only remedy that actually cures Rheumatism and Sciatica, because "Fruit-a-tives" is the only medicine that actually prevents Uric Acid being formed in any quantity in the body. If there is no excess of uric acid in the blood, there can be no Rheumatism.

"Fruit-a-tives" keeps the stomach clean—the liver active—the bowels regular—the kidneys strong and the skin healthy. These are the organs that rid the body of all waste. When "Fruit-a-tives" so regulates the system that all waste is eliminated, then there can be no waste or "urea" to be changed into uric acid. Thus, there can be no uric acid in the blood, to inflame nerves and cause the pain which we know by the names of Rheumatism, Sciatica, Lumbago, Neuralgia. "Fruit-a-tives" will cure every trace of Rheumatism, Pain in the Back, Swollen Hands and Feet, and other troubles due to the blood being poisoned by uric acid.

If you are subject to Rheumatism, cure yourself now with "Fruit-a-tives" and be free of pain this winter.

50c a box, 6c for $2.50, trial size 25c. At all dealers, or sent postpaid on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives, Limited, Ottawa, Ont.

Few Changes Are Made in the Various Memberships.

OTTAWA, Nov. 25.—Sir Wilfrid Laurier this morning presided over the committee to revise the list of members of the various standing committees. There were few changes. Albert Allard, M.P. for Ottawa, who was not given any committee last session, was made a member of the committees on railways, private bills, standing orders and agriculture.

L. A. Rivet was substituted for Hon. L. P. Brodeur on the private bills committee; P. E. Blondin of Champlain took the place of Gerald White on the standing orders committee.

Hon. Charles Murphy was added to the printing committee, thereby providing that the man who is the head of the printing department shall be a member of the committee which supervises the printing of parliament.

Mr. Murphy was also added to the public accounts committee, as was also Mr. Fraser of Prince Edward Island, and Mr. Turfitt was made a member of the banking and commerce committee.

Mr. Russell of East Toronto is put on the agriculture committee in place of W. R. Smith of Algoma, and Gerald White is added to the mines committee in the stead of P. E. Blondin.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 25.—Preliminary estimates to-day, based on the announcement of the 1910 population of the sixteen states and territories, give continental United States, including Alaska, a population of about 91,851,389.

Twice Bored in Tragic Way. BELLEVILLE, Nov. 25.—W. G. Brown, a G.T.R. fireman, formerly of Mt. Forest, who was caught between two cars which were being shunted in the yard here, died in the hospital at an early hour this morning.

Mrs. Brown's former husband, Mr. George Dicks, was killed five years ago the day Brown met his death and nearly at the same place.

THE CHRISTMAS GLOBE

Fourteenth Year in Present Form.

The only Canadian holiday number that has persistently and constantly, year after year, steadily raised the standard of its workmanship. It ranks now with the best of its kind in any part of the world.

The Hamilton Herald has on receipt of the 1909 number: "The Christmas Globe has come to be almost a national institution. It is the best thing of the kind that is annually produced in Canada, and it is a credit to Canadian art, literature, typographical taste and business enterprise."

This year's number, with its fifty-two pages of pictures and stories, including eight full pages in color, and its three supplementary plates, is conceded by those who have seen it in course of publication to be so much ahead of its predecessors as to mark the beginning of a new era in its history.

Make sure of getting a copy. The price is fifty cents each, from your dealer, or sixty cents if mailed direct from The Globe Office, Toronto.

Ask your newsdealer about it.

CANADA'S NATIONAL ANNUAL

"THE GUY GOT FRESH"

So Three Boys Bandits "Plugged Him"—Two Arrested.

CHICAGO, Nov. 25.—Jauntily declaring "the guy got fresh, so we plugged him," two 19-year-old boys lounged into a police cell here to-day and between puffs of their cigarettes detailed to the police who captured them a story of murder and robbery unequalled in Chicago since the days of the notorious "car barn bandits."

The two prisoners, Earl McDonald, of Bird, of Cleveland, Ohio, and Ray Cannon, who claims to hail from Carroll, Iowa, are said by the police to have given full details of how they shot and killed John Oatesewsky and wounded E. J. Sert during two old-ups. Three boys took part in the robberies, but one has not yet been rounded up by the police. The three are credited with being responsible for an epidemic of hold-ups which for weeks have kept the northwest side of the city in terror.
