

Pros and Amateurs Take Turns at Arena Gardens

Note and Comment

It is said that the local amateur and pro hockey will engage in a keen struggle this season in the Arena for popular favor. If the merry war continues, the rivals might pick all-star teams and, with the sanction of the hockey association or the C.W.A., play off in February for the honors.

Luther McCarthy, the most promising white hope, who stopped Jim Flynn on Tuesday night, is from Nebraska. McCarthy has a victory to his credit over the Kauffman team, who, while not a great asset, experience, and it did him no good against McCarthy. McCarthy knocked Al out in two rounds, putting the punch across in such a masterly fashion that the fight of the bout, which was very sensational, McCarthy has also defeated C. J. McGraw and Jim Barry, and showed steady improvement up to his decisive defeat of Flynn.

One is reminded of the truth of the old saying about the changes that a few years bring about by the reconstruction that is going on in the ranks of the Detroit Tigers. Four years ago the Tigers led their league, while the Pittsburgh Pirates scuttled Detroit's ship in the voyage for the world's championship. But that great combination has worn out and now it is being shot to pieces. Players once invincible, the other side being the major leagues. The matches between McGraw and Cobb, Dugan and Starnes, will be retained, and the new players will step down into minor baseball.

Watch out for the Germans in the next Olympics. The announcement is made that Alvin C. Krauss, one of the most remarkable athletes the world ever saw, has been named to coach and train the German athletes for the Olympic games at Berlin in 1916.

Toronto was one of the three clubs to vote against the salary limit of $5000 a month for each club, exclusive of the manager's salary, at the meeting of the National Hockey League at Buffalo, N.Y. This, it was felt, was not break principle in this respect, and the players in the league of greenbacks.

New York will pay me $1000 to pitch ball next season, and I will be in the city and give baseball the go-by to vanderbilt," said Rube Marquand, Boston Soxer, running mate in the fall. McGraw laughed when I asked for much smaller sum, and enquired what I had done to justify the salary. He told me that McGraw was a few things. One, he was a pitcher. And then you don't want to get set that I won the two games I pitched.

"But you certainly hit yourself," replied McGraw. "I didn't think my coat, and I tossed Marquand, and I didn't think to ask for $1000 with McGraw. Now he will come along with $5000, or I'll remain in vanderbilt."

McCarthy Real White Hope
New Man Outclasses Flynn

Luther McCarthy of Missouri is now accepted as a real "white hope" on account of his victory at Los Angeles over Jim Flynn in a twenty-round bout. Flynn put up a game fight, but man, who is so new to the ring, that his name as yet has no place in the record books. The betting had been heavy, and the odds erratic, with both men alternately favorites.

Flynn weighed 138 pounds and McCarthy 136. The fight was bitterly contested up to the tenth, when McCarthy landed a hard right to the jaw, putting the veteran down for the count of nine. Flynn arose groggy and hung on. Following up the victory, the Missourian drove Flynn to the floor a second and a third time, but the freeman made a remarkable rally and lasted out the round.

McCarthy tried hard to end it in the tenth, but Flynn showed strong recuperative powers and held his heavier opponent fairly even.

Battered and rushing blindly, Flynn went through the round, racked repeatedly by the blows that McCarthy landed at will. It was the same in the twelfth, the freeman's arm around the wonder of the crowd.

Flynn stood up under the punishment until the eighteenth, when he was knocked out.
