End Came at General Hospital Yesterday Following Long Illness -Was Best in His Line.

Colin Burgess died in Toronto General Hospital yesterday from heart failure, the culmination of an iliness which had extended over several months. As Cool Burgess he was for years leader on the minstrel stage, and was widely known in Canada, the United States and Eng-

When Mr. Burgess was admitted to the hospital in June he was very ill, and the end was expected at any moment till he became considerably stronger and there was some hope of his recovery. He was 65 years old. All the old boys remember Cool Bur-tess. He was born in Yorkville, Dec. 0, 1840, and became a clever entertain-the United States and eventually came the highest salaried man on the became the highest salaried man on the minstrel stage. He was associated with John H. Haverly, in whose company he toured the continent, and then went over to Europe. He was as popular in Great Britain as he was on this side, and was the humorist of the age. He introduced the monolog form of enter-tainment in the early seventies, when he was at his best. He received a weekly salary of $350 when he was at the height of his career, and he occupied the pedestal possessed to-day by Lew Dockstader as an eccentric black-faced comedian of grotesque dress and droll ckstader as an eccentric black-raced nedian of grotesque dress and droil mor, altho Burgess was a clever teer in addition to his other talents a minstrel. He left the stage nearrobust man, and latterly he has been wifferer from dropsy.

Mr. Burgess married Miss Edna Stephenson Taylor of Toronto, and there are four children—Alexander W., proprietor of the Russell House, Toronto; Colin E., Mrs. J. D. Chapman, and Mrs. J. D. Ford of Toronto. He has a brother Ford of Toronto. He having on the old homestead.

WILL START TO LOWER THE WORLD'S REGORD

EXHIBITION TRACK-TORONTO

HIS AFTERNOON Dan Patch, 1.55 1-4, the marvelous pacing wonder, will attempt to break the world's record at Exhibition Track. It is the sight of a lifetime to see this wonderful horse in one of his record-breaking miles, and as it is Dan Patch's last appearance on a half-mile track, a great effort will be made to lower the present record.

Dan Patch will pace three miles, and the third time he starts will be the record-breaking attempt.

Last week at Lexington, Kentucky, M. W. Savage, the owner of Dan Patch, was offered $180,000 for him, but the offer was refused. It is said that half a million would not buy him. In addition to the three miles by Dan Patch, four fast cup races will be put on; so that all together the event will be the greatest of the kind ever held in Canada.
