FRENCH MILITARY FEARS WAR... BUT WILL LOCALIZE THE EFFECT

No One Can Contemplate Hostilities Without Feelings of Misgiving and Depression... CONSIDERED THREAT TO RUSSIA

London, Jan. 12.—Premier Balfour speaking at Manchester last night, referring to the Far Eastern situation, said: "NO ONE CAN CONTEMPLATE HOSTILITIES WITHOUT FEELINGS OF MISGIVING AND DEPRESSION."

The Daily News says Mr. Balfour is right in urging the tariff reformers to go more slowly on the ground of the difficulty in persuading the colonies to modify their protectionist regime in favor of Britain.

The Daily Telegraph says the Prime Minister puts the unification of the empire before all other objects. The publication of the Duke of Devonshire's letter has done more than anything else to consolidate the Imperialist party.

The Daily Chronicle says Mr. Balfour's theme was the humiliating one of explaining his abdication. He laid down one proposition, of which more will be heard, when he said that any proposed arrangement with the Colonies must be based on a modification of their tariff walls against British manufacturers.

The Standard says Mr. Balfour declined to commit himself to the preferential scheme because he sees the people of these islands as yet unconverted to a tax on food and the colonies unconverted to a lowering of the tariff barriers.

The cable report of Balfour's speech apparently has been delayed, but the comment of the London papers given above affords an index to his remarks.

RUSSIA MUST RECOIL... London, Jan. 12.—The Times' Pekin correspondent, cabling under yesterday's date, says that the Chinese at Tokio, at the request of the Japanese Foreign Office, telegraphed the following communication to Prince Ching:

The second Russian reply to the Japanese proposals has been received by the Chinese Minister at Tokio, but it is unfavorable and cannot be accepted by Japan, who will unless Russia recedes, be compelled to resort to arms.

RUSSIA'S POSITION... Berlin, Jan. 11.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Lokal Anzeiger says that a communication has been drawn up showing the latest developments of the Japanese question.

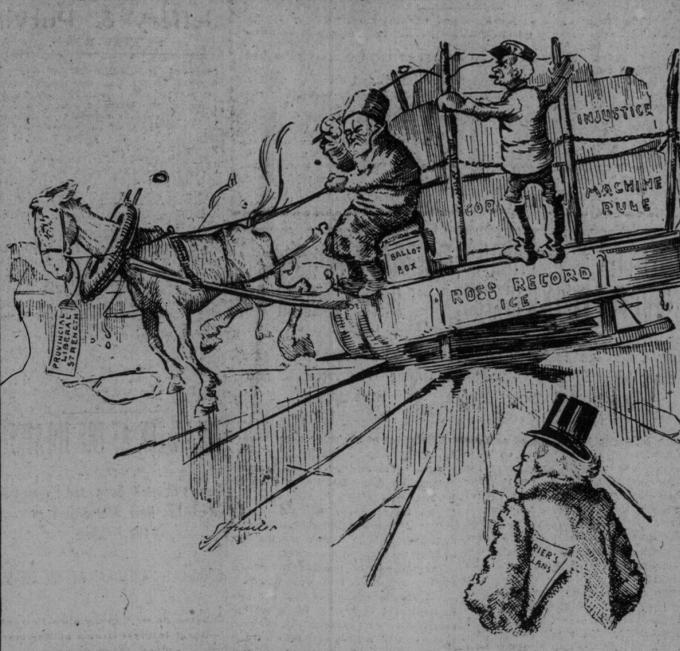

NO FORCE IN IT... London, Jan. 11.—It was said at the Foreign Office today that a circular somewhat similar to the synopsis of the Russian position in regard to Manchuria had been received from Berlin today, has been received here.

WAR APPEARS INEVITABLE... St. John, N.B., Jan. 11.—The possibility of war between Russia and Japan is beginning to have its effect upon the business of the Atlantic.
