GRAIN MARKETS STEADY LIVERPOOL IS EASIER

Rallies and Reactions in Chicago Futures—"Prime" Pessimistic of Winter Wheat.

World Office,
Friday Evening, March 4.

Liverpool wheat futures closed to-day ½d to ⅝d lower than yesterday, and corn futures ¼d to ⅜d lower.

At Chicago, July wheat closed ¼c higher than yesterday, July corn 1c higher, and July oats 1½c higher.

Carlots at Chicago to-day: Wheat, 17; contract, 0; estimated, 25. Corn, 179, 1, 180. Oats, 203, 6, 190.

Northwest receipts to-day, 258 cars; week ago, 281; year ago, 270.

Total clearances to-day of wheat and flour were 114,600 bushels.

Primary receipts: Wheat, 465,000 bushels, against 401,000 bushels; shipments, 314,000 bushels, against 131,000 bushels. Corn, 461,000 bushels, against 578,000 bushels; shipments, 236,000 bushels, against 456,000 bushels.

Prime's Crop Bureau says: The general condition of winter wheat is not as good as a year ago, and is not in as favorable condition as it was 30 days ago. Only a small area of the crop now has any protection from severe weather. We shall need very favorable conditions during March to pull the crop thru in good shape. Milling trade continues good. Millers have great difficulty in getting wheat to grind. Reserves of oats in farmers' hands, as well as in country elevators, are reported less than usual for the time of year. Inter-state demand for oats for seeding purposes has already commenced, and as the season advances promises to assume very large proportions, showing clearly how closely oats have been sold on the farm this season, much more so proportionately than corn. Corn gives no indication of improving in grade. Good seed corn will be very scarce, and promises to cut a most important figure in the crop of 1904.

Friday's Argentine wheat shipments, 3,016,000 bushels. Maize, 704,000 bushels.

Monday's Indian wheat shipments, 872,000 bushels.

Argentine labor troubles reported among railway servants threaten to extend, paralyzing supplies. Maize crop backward, but healthy.

Chicago Gossip.

McIntyre & Marshall wired J. G. Beaty, King Edward Hotel, at the close of the market to-day:

Wheat—The selling of yesterday must have cleaned up a large number of holdings, as it was apparent very shortly after the opening that the volume of wheat for sale at the lower range of prices was small. On the advance to 94c for July shorts covered freely, and considerable selling was ascribed to Armour, who had been a conspicuous buyer on the weak spots yesterday. The Ohio crop report shows a condition of 99, against 94 in March last year. If this condition should prove correct and the other states show anything like this condition, it would mean anything but a bearish situation next year. The point which confuses the trade is that present prices of July wheat are so much above a supply and demand basis. The question of how much wheat is back in farmers' hands will be the one which will have great bearing on final liquidation price. We believe it is below the average.

Corn—There was a soft spot for a few minutes early in the day, followed by a sharp advance. Armour's brokers were conspicuous in bidding up prices, and their protection to the market had much to do with changing sentiment. Receivers say that the country shippers are rushing corn in before the warm spring weather arrives, as they have fears in regard to the keeping condition of the grain. The cut-look is for a more or less manipulated market in corn for the next sixty days.

Oats—The history of trade in oats to-day was practically the same as in other pits, namely, a sold-out condition early in the day, followed by unequally sharp advance when the short interest endeavored to cover. Weather conditions and receipts will be the governing factors during the coming month. We look for good trading market, with opportunities on both sides. Until receipts let up we would only advise purchases on sharp declines for reasonable profits.

Provisions—Long pork was sold freely. Packers bought lard and ribs, covering contracts made at higher prices last week. The decline has brought all products down to much more reasonable figures, but we believe the speculative holdings are still large, and on advances during the next few weeks they will take the opportunity to liquidate. Lard should be sold on all advances from new cn, as stocks are accumulating too rapidly to permit of any material rise in prices.

G.T.R. STATEMENT.

(Canadian Associated Press Cable.)

London, March 4.—The Grand Trunk Railway report was issued to-day. The directors' statement of accounts for the half year ending Dec. 31 shows that the gross receipts were £3,138,468, an increase of £326,590. The passengers carried numbered 5,139,073, an increase of 451,422, while the weights of freight and live stock totaled 6,738,702 tons, an increase of 590,172. The working expenses, including a special charge of £30,000 on bridge renewal account amounted to £2,314,084, the net receipts being £924,400. There were no revenue charges for the half year.

Less the credits of £526,000 the balance of revenue is £398,400, to which falls to be added the Detroit, Grand Haven & Milwaukee surplus for the half year of £400, thus making the surplus on revenue account £398,800. For maintenance and equipment there is an increase of £52,485; in cost of transportation an increase of £179,-616, due to the increased price of materials of all descriptions, and the higher wages affecting all the railroads on the North American continent. The total increased expenditure is £239,263. To the surplus of £398,800 is added the balance of £5500 from June last, which makes the total amount of £404,300 available for dividends. This permits of payment in full of the dividends for the half year of 4 per cent. on the guaranteed stock, and of the dividends in the first and second preference stocks and the declaration of a first dividend for the year for third preference stockholders, leaving a balance of about £2800 to be carried forward.

Securities Companies in Court.

William Kehr was in the police court yesterday for carrying on a loan business under the name of the Mutual Securities Company. A fine of $100 will be imposed on March 11 unless an appeal is taken. H. C. Kehr of the Toronto Securities Company faced a similar charge. Oddly enough, the men are not relations.
