KILLED BY THE HEAT.

Brampton, July 20.—(Special.)—From the effect of extreme heat James F. Cottam, an Englishman, about 35 years of age, succumbed to sunstroke Wednesday morning. He had been previously employed as a mail carrier in England, coming to this country to better his condition. He leaves a wife and three children, two of whom are in England.

SUN CAUSED A FIRE.

Old Sol's rays ignited a scattering of rags and rubbish from the conflagration ruins in the vacant lot on Wellington-street, west of the Consolidated Plate Glass Company. The Bay-street hose company was telephoned for.

OVERCOME BY HEAT.

Belleville, July 20.—Rev. George R. Beamish, rector of St. Thomas Church, this city, was overcome by heat at a Sunday school picnic yesterday and found unconscious under a bush. It was feared that serious results would follow, but now his recovery is hoped for.

HIS LIFE FOR OTHERS.

Winnipeg, July 20.—Last evening seven men were bathing in the Morris River, when two drifted over the dam. A young fellow, J. Casswell, an expert swimmer, dived in to help them. The former two got safely to shore, but Casswell got caught in the whirlpool and was too exhausted to get out again. He sank after five minutes.

Massed Bands' Fine Concert.

That "music hath charms" was conclusively proven by the very large attendance at the demonstration last night of the Musical Protective Association of Toronto. The attraction of the six regimental brass bands of the city, in massed numbers, brought out a large audience at Exhibition Park. The cool lake breezes, added to the enjoyment of everybody. There were over 200 musicians and an excellent program was presented. Those taking part were the Queen's Own, Grenadiers, Highlanders, Body Guards, Light Horse and Public School Cadets Bands. There were fourteen numbers in all and the effect of the final "Evening Hymn" was most inspiring. Harry Wood made a hit with his popular songs. The demonstration committee were: W Ztea, Joseph Ball, T G Bigwood, D A Carey, W Carey, W Clink, J A Darch, F Emery, John Cowan, A Hartmann, E Jarroti, F Jennings, T B Jones, W Obernier, R Richardson, J Slatter, G J Timpson, J Waldron, Charles Wellisman, J A Wiggins.

Less than 3,000,000 of Russia's 131,000,000 inhabitants are employed in manufactures and the greater part of their work is on government orders.

All Comers' Aggregate.

In the "All-Comers' Aggregate" Corp. McGregor of Ottawa took 33rd place, winning £2. Staff-Sergt. Crowe was 56th, and also won £2.

The "All-Comers' Aggregate" includes the Alexandra, the Daily Graphic, Daily Telegraph and the Graphic. It covers the 200, 500 and 600 yard ranges.

Secretary of War.

With a score of 48, made by eight bulls and two inners, Private Perry of the Canadian team won fourth prize of £6 in the secretary of state for war competition, a ten-shot match at 900 yards. Bayles won the eighteenth prize, Tyers the twenty-first and Smith the twenty-third, each of £2, with scores of 46.

Range Prizes.

In this competition at 500 yards, Capt. Crowe is 20th, winning £1. Pte. J. Perry 25th, 4s. In the 600 yards competition, Staff-Sergt. Bayles is 4th and Staff-Sergt. Crowe fifth, each winning £1.

Martin's Cup.

In the "Martin's" Challenge Cup, a rapid fire competition at 200 yards, Sergt. W. Gould is the only Canadian who figures in the prize list. He took 116th place, winning £1.

Canadian Bag.

The winnings of the team to date have been about £62. Those who have entered individual matches have secured a total of about £50.

MAY EXAMINE LUMSDEN.

Montreal, July 20.—(Special.)—General Manager Hays of the Grand Trunk and H. M. Mowat had quite a tilt before Judge Winchester's court here to-day. Mr. Mowat had given it to be understood that had Mr. Lumsden been offered the salary Mr. Stephens was paid, the Canadian would probably have accepted the position. Mr. Mowat observed that the salary mentioned to Mr. Lumsden was $4000, whereas Stephens got $7000.

"That is to tally out of the way," said Mr. Hays, "and I protest, your honor.

Taking up the list of names he had sent to the department of labor as aliens, the commissioner asked how many men were no longer in the employ of the company.

It was shown that C. C. Van Arsdel, E. R. McNeill, H. M. Goodman, G. H. Masson had left the country, and that E. D. McMellen had left the company, but was still in the country. W. E. Collabay, Thomas C. Taylor and Jas. H. Bacon, tho admittedly American citizens, were still in the employ of the company.

It was shown that to-morrow you'll have the privilege of choosing any outing hat in a lot that we've grouped for clearing at $1 each; the former prices commenced at $2.50, some were $3.50, others $4.50, a few higher.

Bargains for Friday, July 22

This store's underpriced offerings appeal to and attract a class of customers not entirely of the bargain seeking variety. It is generally admitted that only a small section of the great mass of dry goods buyers purchase early in the season when things are new and novel but oftentimes priced above what persons in ordinary circumstances think they can afford to pay.

These who leave their buying until the season is well advanced have the satisfaction of knowing that they get the same things usually for about half—the saving is a solatum for the self-denial practiced.
