Save Canada from Russia's Disgrace!

INDIVIDUALLY, the people of Russia are loyal to their country. but woefully misguided. The army, weakened by lack of support, simply 'quit' fighting; and in its contempt for Russia's present attitude, the world is rapidly forgetting the marvellous achievements of Russia earlier in the war.

Be True to Our Boys They Ask Your Help

In a diary taken from a captured German officer was found: "There are no deserters among the Canadians." There are none among Canadians at the front.

Desert the boys who have fought and died for us? Never! They ask for reinforcements and they shall have them-in the only possible way-by the return of Union Government. Laurier offers a referendum--in the course of time--then a further appeal for volunteers. Rot! All the volunteers who could go have enlisted.
