"The First Hundred Thousand"

By the Junior Sub. (Ian Hay)

"Really this is not a story; it is an epic. No quotations can do justice to this dramatic record of dogged bravery and heroic self-sacrifice."

"Though the stern realities are often relieved by the humorous view of the writer, the narrative always bears the impress of fact. The character sketches of the officers and men, particularly Bobbie Little, are simply delightful; and maybe twenty years hence, one can imagine the pleasure of the enthusiast's searches for details of the great war when he secures this lifelike account by 'The Junior Sub.'"

"A narrative as convincing in its truth as it is captivating in its humor."

"Inimitable sketches of the lighter side of war." —Daily Graphic
