FOUR KILLED IN ACTION

Ninety-Four Are Reported Wounded—Another Policeman Falls.

Large casualties have been reported daily since the beginning of the Somme battle, in which Toronto units are playing a big part. Yesterday the list contained the names of 111 soldiers from units formed in this city. Lieut. D. Newton is reported wounded, four died of wounds, one has died, two are missing, one ill, one wounded from shell shock, and 94 are wounded. Another Toronto policeman has given his life for his country. He is Samuel Johnston of 51 Watson ave. According to Mrs. Johnston, who received a telegram from Ottawa, he was killed on Sept. 17. He leaves a widow and four children.

Corp. George King, who was married before leaving for overseas with the second contingent, was reported killed in action on Sept. 16. He was a roof-living with relatives in England. On Sept. 16, Pte. John W. Graham, 1117 Dovercourt road, died of wounds in a base clearing station. He left for overseas on May 16 last with a Highland regiment, and was in the trenches since June. He leaves a 19-year-old widow and one child.

Filled Father's Place. Pte. John Parker, who, at the age of 18, enlisted with a first contingent battalion, died of gunshot wounds in the chest on Sept. 22. Nine years ago he came to Canada and worked on a farm at Barrie. His parents came out at 1 Robinson terrace. The young soldier's father was a reservist in the imperial army and was on his death bed when the summons came for him to report to the army. The son, however, filled his father's place. Pte. A. Parker, with the 192nd at Niagara Camp, is a brother.

Sgt. D. Chapman, who died of wounds, enlisted with the 18th Windsor Battalion. He went overseas on the Grampian, and his friends are all in the old country.

Sgt. William F. Crompton, killed in action April 25, 1916, enlisted with the 20th Battalion and formerly boarded at 212 Manning avenue. During the month of April, 1915, Pte. J. Beck, an Irishman, enlisted with the 20th Battalion of Regina. He is reported to have died of wounds and his people are in Dromore, Ireland. Pte. William M. Menary of Oak, Ont., enlisted with the 43rd Highlanders on July 12, 1915. He was wounded some time ago and is now reported to have died of wounds. His father, Pte. W. J. Menary, was invalided home from England last May with rheumatism.

Enlisting as a private, when the Queen's Own sent their first contingent overseas, Lieut. D. Newton has been wounded. He went thru the heavy engagements. His home is at 21 Edith avenue.

According to private communications received in Toronto yesterday, Lieut. H. H. Sykes was severely wounded in one of the engagements in France last week, and has been removed to a London hospital. Lieut. Sykes enlisted as a private at the outbreak of war in the Queen's Own, and in 1915 joined for overseas. He qualified for his commission at Niagara and was appointed to the 35th Battalion. Eager to get to the front he was transferred to another unit, and since last June he was in the trenches in Belgium.

Sister Lives Here. Two weeks ago Pte. E. H. Patten, formerly attached to the office staff of the Maple Leaf Milling Co., was killed in action. He is a native of Grand Banks, Nfld., and went overseas with the 4th Divisional Cyclists. A sister lives in Toronto.

Reported wounded on September 20th, Pte. John Donaldson Brown, 88 Oaker avenue, is now reported to have died of wounds on Sept. 24, at Lestreport. He enlisted in January, 1916, and was in the trenches since April. He was wounded by gunshot the first time in the head and back, and a gunshot wound in the knee proved fatal.

While being removed in an ambulance to a dressing station, Pte. J. W. Graham, died of gunshot wounds in the stomach. He left for overseas last May and spent his 25th birthday in the trenches.

On September 13, Pte. M. H. Moore, son of Police Magistrate Moore, of Parry Sound, was killed in action. Pte. Moore was well-known in Toronto and was with the signallers last winter at the Exhibition.

Going overseas with the 51st Battalion, Pte. Walter Cade, 168 McCaul street, was transferred to the mounted rifles, and was so badly wounded that he died after being removed to a hospital.

Pte. F. Leach, a Yorkshireman who was in Canada 11 years, has died of wounds. His widow and family live at 80 Nairn avenue, and Pte. Leach was drafted to the firing line soon after he arrived in England, as he had previous military service.

Wounded some months ago in the chest, Pte. Frank Devens, Shaftesbury avenue, returned to the trenches in August, and on September 20th, was wounded in the hand by gunshot, and has been removed to a hospital. He first entered the trenches in January.

Seriously Ill. Lance-Corporal John Cameron, is seriously ill suffering from a wound in his right thigh. He enlisted in November, 1915, and went overseas the following May. His wife, who lives at 44 Melville avenue, states that in the last letter from her husband he did not inform her that he was in the trenches.

With severe wounds in the thigh, head and hand, Pte. John Fox has been admitted to Northampton Hospital, England. During the battle of Zillebeke he was buried twice by explosions and was one of the four to escape from his platoon alive. He is the only son of Mrs. Mary Fox, 39 Woodward avenue.

Gunner J. A. MacDonald, 41 Macdonell avenue, is reported at Royal Surrey County Hospital, Guildford, with wound in the back. A brother, gunner Kenneth MacDonald, was killed in action on May 31 last.

Eighteen years old, Pte. W. M. Haslam, was killed in action on Sept. 13, 1916. In the fall of 1914 he enlisted with the C. M. F., and lived with his sister at 35 Clinton street. He was eight months in the trenches.

Pte. Stanley Russell, 35 Prospect street, left his insurance business at Fort Stanley to enlist and is reported wounded. He is in a hospital in England with a gunshot wound in his shoulder.

Recognized as an expert bomb thrower, Pte. S. E. McConnell, 703 Lansdowne avenue, has died of wounds. He enlisted in April, 1915, and went overseas with the 5th Battalion from Exhibition Camp. He was in the trenches six months.

Mrs. Ribey, 30 Belmont street, has received word that her son, Pte. A. E. Ribey, has been shot in the jaw. He has been admitted to a hospital at Rouen, France. He enlisted with the 51st Battalion and was transferred.

Formation of Association Starts Advertising Campaign

Controller Cameron's publicity committee proposes to proceed with advertising Toronto by first organizing a city wide association. They propose to raise $60,000 each year for three years and the money is expected to be donated by public spirited citizens. The council will also probably fall in line and make a grant.

Before accurate advertising can be proceeded with, extensive surveys of transportation facilities and various industries already located must be secured.
