Ward politics colored predominantthe closing Liberal meeting of the Northeast Toronto campaign held on Saturday evening in St. Barnabas' Church hall. Major W. H. Kippen, the candidate, was notable as the only speaker who falled to congraturape appearance. His supporting platform men made unstinted use of this and other wiles of the politician, one speaker even quoting statistics showing Northeast Toronto to occupy the smallest space in police records of any Toronto constituency, and another wiles of the politician, one speaker even quoting statistics showing Northeast Toronto to occupy the smallest space in police records of any Toronto constituency, and another applosizing for his failure to remove his overcoat, by declaring that he "did not have to take off his coat to lick a Tory"

The candidate, furthermore, secured but brief recommendation from the majority of the speakers, who appeared concerned principally with the justifying before the audience, of the Liberal party and Hartley Dews art, or the denunciation of the campaign, waged by a local evening journal. Possibly for these reasons, the meeting, which was well attended, noticeably lacked enthusiasm.

'Major Kippen prefaced his address by an appreciation of the fairness of the campaign waged against him by this opponents and the press, and continued: "If you should select me at the poll on Monday as the best man, I hove that you will be able to come to me at the end of three years and (Continued on Page 10, Column 3).

Paris, Nov. 7.—The government has obtained an agreement from mine.employers to meet representatives of the National Federation of Miners in an effort to avert the threatened strike for enforcing the men's demands for higher wages and nationalization of the mines, it was learned today.

The men are demanding that the maximum pre-war scale be multiplied by five, as the cost of living, they represent, has been increased more than six-fold. The federation represents all the underground workers in the coal and other mines and in the quarries.

Windsor, Ont., Nov. 7 .- "Babe' Trumble pressed his gun against the pet of my stomach. '---, ---- you, Spracklin,' he said, 'I'm going to shoot you.' I knew then that it was his life or mine," was the dramatic protest against the killing of Trumble at Windsor by the Methodist minister, Inspector Spracklin. The Ontario Temperance Act was sponsored and and supported by the Methodist Church and they will have to condone or condemn this shooting by one of their members who undertook to preach the message of peace on earth and goodwill to men as outlined by the lowly Nazareñe."

The pit of my stomach. '——, you, Spracklin,' he said, 'I'm going to shoot you.' I knew then that it was his life or mine," was the dramatic testimony simply given by Rev. J. O. L. Spracklin, special license inspector, at the inquest, held in the Sandwich courthouse, Saturday night, into the shooting of Beverley ("B be") Trumble, proprietor of the Chappell House, in his hotel early Saturday morning.

Trumble's widow gave directly contradictory evidence. "My husband had no gun, He had only a cigaret in his hand when he went out to meet Mr. Spracklin," she swore.
