

Report of Session

The Session in presenting their annual statement desire to thank God for all the tokens of his favor granted to the Congregation during the past year.

The services of the Sanctuary on the Lord's Day were carried on without any interruption and were well attended, especially in the morning.

While impressing upon all the duty and privilege of honoring God in the public services of the Gospel, we would kindly remind the heads of families of the vital importance of religious instruction in the home and of the precious promise attached to earnest and careful training of the young in the truth.

It is reasonable and proper that there should be family worship in every Christian household and that the young should be carefully and systematically instructed in the Holy Scriptures.

As in former years we commend the Sabbath School to the warm sympathy and generous support of all. We would enjoin upon parents to have their children attend the school regularly, for regularity will not only encourage the teachers in their labor of love, but will greatly facilitate the work of the class.

We regret that the number of male teachers in the School is so small, and would affectionately urge more of the young men in the Congregation to identify themselves with it and share in its work. In so doing they would greatly benefit themselves, while rendering good service to the Sabbath School.

The Society of Christian Endeavor held regularly its weekly meeting, which was well attended. The plan of study prepared by the General Assembly's Committee was carried out. The Society is cordially commended to the sympathy and prayers of the congregation.

The claims of the Mission Schemes of the Church are very urgent. The Session regret to find that a considerable number
