

SECOND EDITION

THE EVENING TIMES.

3.45 P. M.

VOL. I, NO. 206.

ST. JOHN, N. B., MONDAY, MAY 29, 1905.

ONE CENT.

THE LOST SHIPS AND NEBOGATOFF

TOKIO, May 29, 2.15 P. M.--It is officially announced that Admiral Rojestvensky's fleet has been practically annihilated. Twelve warships have been sunk or captured and two transports and two torpedo boat destroyers have been sunk.

Tokio, May 29, 2.50 p. m.--In the battle fought Saturday in the Straits of Korea, the Russian battleships Barodino and Alexander III, the armoured cruisers Admiral Kahimoff, Dmitri, Donskoi and Vladimir Monomach, the coast defence ironclad Admiral Oushakoff, the protected cruisers Sviltana and Jemtung, the repairship Kemstchatka and the cruiser Irrsinn were sunk. The battleships Orel and Nicoli I. and the coast defence ironclads Admiral Seniavin and General Apraxine were captured.

of compound armor over her gun positions, carried eight 8-inch guns, ten 6-inch guns and about twenty smaller rapid fire guns. She had a complement of about 567 officers and men.

Neboogatoff Capt. d. TOKIO, May 29, 3 p. m.--Rear Admiral Neboogatoff, former commander of the fourth division of the Pacific fleet and recently commander of the information squadron, composed of scouts and merchantmen, with 3,000 other Russians, among the prisoners captured by the Japanese. Vice-Admiral Rojestvensky appears to have escaped.

Will Hasten Peace NEW YORK, May 29.--Advice received from London and other leading continental financial centres by local bankers were all of the opinion that Japan's decisive victory would hasten peace.

Russian Formation WASHINGTON, May 29.--The following belated despatch has been received by the navy department, dated May 27, showing the formation of the Russian fleet just before the battle:

A Crushing Blow ST. PETERSBURG, May 29.--The crews of the Tokyo official bulletin are announcing that Rojestvensky's fleet was practically annihilated by a crushing blow to the admiralty office, destroying the hope to which many of them had clung that the silence of the Japanese government might be favorably construed.

Togo's Report WASHINGTON, May 29.--Official announcement of the result of the naval engagement between the Japanese and Russian fleets was received at the state department today from Minister Griscom as follows:

The Borodino was a first-class battleship, completed in 1904, of 13,513 tons displacement, with a speed of 18 knots. She had an armored belt of from 4 to 9 inches of Krupp steel and from 6 to 10 inches of armor over her gun positions and bulkheads. Her armament consisted of four 12-inch guns, twelve 6-inch guns and over forty smaller rapid fire guns. Her crew numbered 740 officers and men.

The Lost Ships WASHINGTON, May 29.--According to advice received by the navy department from Tokyo, a Japanese bulletin in addition to the ships already named, captured the Russian battleship Susei Veliky and the Russian flagship was seriously damaged.

Tokio Reticent PARIS, May 29.--The Journal's special war correspondent Ludovic Naudou, who was taken prisoner at Mukden and sent to Japan, called from Tokyo under date of May 25 that the authorities there were observing the strictest secrecy regarding the naval battle. He said that on the morning of May 27, a Japanese steamer exchange reports, on the Japanese side, three cruisers were sunk and a dozen torpedo destroyers were sunk or disabled.

A GREAT VICTORY. WASHINGTON, May 29.--A cablegram received here from American Minister Griscom at Tokio, dated this morning, says that Admiral Togo is claiming a great victory. It says that Admiral Togo reports that the results of the fighting of the fleet Saturday afternoon and evening were one battleship of Borodino class and four other large vessels sunk, and two or three more vessels captured. All the large vessels of the Japanese fleet escaped injury.

Sighted Warships MANILA, May 29.--Five warships were sighted off Corregidor Island in the entrance to the Bay of Manila this morning, headed south. It is believed that they were Japanese vessels. On Saturday exchange reports, on the Japanese side, three cruisers were sunk and a dozen torpedo destroyers were sunk or disabled.

Japanese Losses TOKIO, May 29.--According to stock

Takuhira is happy WASHINGTON, May 29.--Minister Takuhira, of Japan, received his first intimation of the practical annihilation of the Russian fleet in the Straits of Korea.

Sank American Steamer WASHINGTON, May 29.--The Post today says that, acting on instructions of President Roosevelt, Acting Secretary of State Loomis has telegraphed Minister Griscom at Tokio, to inquire into the sinking of the American merchant steamer by the Russian fleet off Formosa.

No Russians Sighted SHANGHAI, May 29.--The steamer Samson visited the Saddle Islands yesterday, but found no trace of the Russian vessels reported in that vicinity a few days ago. Near Barren Islands, the Samson was stopped by the Russian volunteer cruiser Dnieper, crowded with men well armed. After exchanging courtesies, the Samson returned to Shanghai, passing a Russian transport loading from junks several miles below Woo Sung.

Picking Them Off. LONDON, May 29--12.35 p.m.--Up to noon today the foreign office was still without news of the naval battle from any British source in the Far East. The Japanese legation was similarly without news from its government.

of compound armor over her gun positions, carried eight 8-inch guns, ten 6-inch guns and about twenty smaller rapid fire guns. She had a complement of about 567 officers and men.

Neboogatoff Capt. d. TOKIO, May 29, 3 p. m.--Rear Admiral Neboogatoff, former commander of the fourth division of the Pacific fleet and recently commander of the information squadron, composed of scouts and merchantmen, with 3,000 other Russians, among the prisoners captured by the Japanese. Vice-Admiral Rojestvensky appears to have escaped.

Will Hasten Peace NEW YORK, May 29.--Advice received from London and other leading continental financial centres by local bankers were all of the opinion that Japan's decisive victory would hasten peace.

Russian Formation WASHINGTON, May 29.--The following belated despatch has been received by the navy department, dated May 27, showing the formation of the Russian fleet just before the battle:

A Crushing Blow ST. PETERSBURG, May 29.--The crews of the Tokyo official bulletin are announcing that Rojestvensky's fleet was practically annihilated by a crushing blow to the admiralty office, destroying the hope to which many of them had clung that the silence of the Japanese government might be favorably construed.

Togo's Report WASHINGTON, May 29.--Official announcement of the result of the naval engagement between the Japanese and Russian fleets was received at the state department today from Minister Griscom as follows:

The Borodino was a first-class battleship, completed in 1904, of 13,513 tons displacement, with a speed of 18 knots. She had an armored belt of from 4 to 9 inches of Krupp steel and from 6 to 10 inches of armor over her gun positions and bulkheads. Her armament consisted of four 12-inch guns, twelve 6-inch guns and over forty smaller rapid fire guns. Her crew numbered 740 officers and men.

The Lost Ships WASHINGTON, May 29.--According to advice received by the navy department from Tokyo, a Japanese bulletin in addition to the ships already named, captured the Russian battleship Susei Veliky and the Russian flagship was seriously damaged.

Tokio Reticent PARIS, May 29.--The Journal's special war correspondent Ludovic Naudou, who was taken prisoner at Mukden and sent to Japan, called from Tokyo under date of May 25 that the authorities there were observing the strictest secrecy regarding the naval battle. He said that on the morning of May 27, a Japanese steamer exchange reports, on the Japanese side, three cruisers were sunk and a dozen torpedo destroyers were sunk or disabled.

A GREAT VICTORY. WASHINGTON, May 29.--A cablegram received here from American Minister Griscom at Tokio, dated this morning, says that Admiral Togo is claiming a great victory. It says that Admiral Togo reports that the results of the fighting of the fleet Saturday afternoon and evening were one battleship of Borodino class and four other large vessels sunk, and two or three more vessels captured. All the large vessels of the Japanese fleet escaped injury.

Sighted Warships MANILA, May 29.--Five warships were sighted off Corregidor Island in the entrance to the Bay of Manila this morning, headed south. It is believed that they were Japanese vessels. On Saturday exchange reports, on the Japanese side, three cruisers were sunk and a dozen torpedo destroyers were sunk or disabled.

Japanese Losses TOKIO, May 29.--According to stock

Takuhira is happy WASHINGTON, May 29.--Minister Takuhira, of Japan, received his first intimation of the practical annihilation of the Russian fleet in the Straits of Korea.

Sank American Steamer WASHINGTON, May 29.--The Post today says that, acting on instructions of President Roosevelt, Acting Secretary of State Loomis has telegraphed Minister Griscom at Tokio, to inquire into the sinking of the American merchant steamer by the Russian fleet off Formosa.

No Russians Sighted SHANGHAI, May 29.--The steamer Samson visited the Saddle Islands yesterday, but found no trace of the Russian vessels reported in that vicinity a few days ago. Near Barren Islands, the Samson was stopped by the Russian volunteer cruiser Dnieper, crowded with men well armed. After exchanging courtesies, the Samson returned to Shanghai, passing a Russian transport loading from junks several miles below Woo Sung.

Picking Them Off. LONDON, May 29--12.35 p.m.--Up to noon today the foreign office was still without news of the naval battle from any British source in the Far East. The Japanese legation was similarly without news from its government.

of compound armor over her gun positions, carried eight 8-inch guns, ten 6-inch guns and about twenty smaller rapid fire guns. She had a complement of about 567 officers and men.

Neboogatoff Capt. d. TOKIO, May 29, 3 p. m.--Rear Admiral Neboogatoff, former commander of the fourth division of the Pacific fleet and recently commander of the information squadron, composed of scouts and merchantmen, with 3,000 other Russians, among the prisoners captured by the Japanese. Vice-Admiral Rojestvensky appears to have escaped.

Will Hasten Peace NEW YORK, May 29.--Advice received from London and other leading continental financial centres by local bankers were all of the opinion that Japan's decisive victory would hasten peace.

Russian Formation WASHINGTON, May 29.--The following belated despatch has been received by the navy department, dated May 27, showing the formation of the Russian fleet just before the battle:

A Crushing Blow ST. PETERSBURG, May 29.--The crews of the Tokyo official bulletin are announcing that Rojestvensky's fleet was practically annihilated by a crushing blow to the admiralty office, destroying the hope to which many of them had clung that the silence of the Japanese government might be favorably construed.

Togo's Report WASHINGTON, May 29.--Official announcement of the result of the naval engagement between the Japanese and Russian fleets was received at the state department today from Minister Griscom as follows:

The Borodino was a first-class battleship, completed in 1904, of 13,513 tons displacement, with a speed of 18 knots. She had an armored belt of from 4 to 9 inches of Krupp steel and from 6 to 10 inches of armor over her gun positions and bulkheads. Her armament consisted of four 12-inch guns, twelve 6-inch guns and over forty smaller rapid fire guns. Her crew numbered 740 officers and men.

The Lost Ships WASHINGTON, May 29.--According to advice received by the navy department from Tokyo, a Japanese bulletin in addition to the ships already named, captured the Russian battleship Susei Veliky and the Russian flagship was seriously damaged.

Tokio Reticent PARIS, May 29.--The Journal's special war correspondent Ludovic Naudou, who was taken prisoner at Mukden and sent to Japan, called from Tokyo under date of May 25 that the authorities there were observing the strictest secrecy regarding the naval battle. He said that on the morning of May 27, a Japanese steamer exchange reports, on the Japanese side, three cruisers were sunk and a dozen torpedo destroyers were sunk or disabled.

A GREAT VICTORY. WASHINGTON, May 29.--A cablegram received here from American Minister Griscom at Tokio, dated this morning, says that Admiral Togo is claiming a great victory. It says that Admiral Togo reports that the results of the fighting of the fleet Saturday afternoon and evening were one battleship of Borodino class and four other large vessels sunk, and two or three more vessels captured. All the large vessels of the Japanese fleet escaped injury.

Sighted Warships MANILA, May 29.--Five warships were sighted off Corregidor Island in the entrance to the Bay of Manila this morning, headed south. It is believed that they were Japanese vessels. On Saturday exchange reports, on the Japanese side, three cruisers were sunk and a dozen torpedo destroyers were sunk or disabled.

Japanese Losses TOKIO, May 29.--According to stock

Takuhira is happy WASHINGTON, May 29.--Minister Takuhira, of Japan, received his first intimation of the practical annihilation of the Russian fleet in the Straits of Korea.

Sank American Steamer WASHINGTON, May 29.--The Post today says that, acting on instructions of President Roosevelt, Acting Secretary of State Loomis has telegraphed Minister Griscom at Tokio, to inquire into the sinking of the American merchant steamer by the Russian fleet off Formosa.

No Russians Sighted SHANGHAI, May 29.--The steamer Samson visited the Saddle Islands yesterday, but found no trace of the Russian vessels reported in that vicinity a few days ago. Near Barren Islands, the Samson was stopped by the Russian volunteer cruiser Dnieper, crowded with men well armed. After exchanging courtesies, the Samson returned to Shanghai, passing a Russian transport loading from junks several miles below Woo Sung.

Picking Them Off. LONDON, May 29--12.35 p.m.--Up to noon today the foreign office was still without news of the naval battle from any British source in the Far East. The Japanese legation was similarly without news from its government.

of compound armor over her gun positions, carried eight 8-inch guns, ten 6-inch guns and about twenty smaller rapid fire guns. She had a complement of about 567 officers and men.

Neboogatoff Capt. d. TOKIO, May 29, 3 p. m.--Rear Admiral Neboogatoff, former commander of the fourth division of the Pacific fleet and recently commander of the information squadron, composed of scouts and merchantmen, with 3,000 other Russians, among the prisoners captured by the Japanese. Vice-Admiral Rojestvensky appears to have escaped.

Will Hasten Peace NEW YORK, May 29.--Advice received from London and other leading continental financial centres by local bankers were all of the opinion that Japan's decisive victory would hasten peace.

Russian Formation WASHINGTON, May 29.--The following belated despatch has been received by the navy department, dated May 27, showing the formation of the Russian fleet just before the battle:

A Crushing Blow ST. PETERSBURG, May 29.--The crews of the Tokyo official bulletin are announcing that Rojestvensky's fleet was practically annihilated by a crushing blow to the admiralty office, destroying the hope to which many of them had clung that the silence of the Japanese government might be favorably construed.

Togo's Report WASHINGTON, May 29.--Official announcement of the result of the naval engagement between the Japanese and Russian fleets was received at the state department today from Minister Griscom as follows:

The Borodino was a first-class battleship, completed in 1904, of 13,513 tons displacement, with a speed of 18 knots. She had an armored belt of from 4 to 9 inches of Krupp steel and from 6 to 10 inches of armor over her gun positions and bulkheads. Her armament consisted of four 12-inch guns, twelve 6-inch guns and over forty smaller rapid fire guns. Her crew numbered 740 officers and men.

The Lost Ships WASHINGTON, May 29.--According to advice received by the navy department from Tokyo, a Japanese bulletin in addition to the ships already named, captured the Russian battleship Susei Veliky and the Russian flagship was seriously damaged.

Tokio Reticent PARIS, May 29.--The Journal's special war correspondent Ludovic Naudou, who was taken prisoner at Mukden and sent to Japan, called from Tokyo under date of May 25 that the authorities there were observing the strictest secrecy regarding the naval battle. He said that on the morning of May 27, a Japanese steamer

The Times New Reporter

The indications point to an early winter. As soon as the painters and decorators have finished their work, the mayor and the Times new reporter will hold negotiations. The mayor will have more carpets, but the new reporter will have more paint.

HUMORS OF HISTORY---50.

A Royal Burglar. A.D. 1100. Henry (surnamed Beauclerc, of fine scholar), the youngest son of the Conqueror, no sooner heard of his brother Wil-

exchange reports, on the Japanese side, three cruisers were sunk and a dozen torpedo destroyers were sunk or disabled.

A GREAT VICTORY. WASHINGTON, May 29.--A cablegram received here from American Minister Griscom at Tokio, dated this morning, says that Admiral Togo is claiming a great victory. It says that Admiral Togo reports that the results of the fighting of the fleet Saturday afternoon and evening were one battleship of Borodino class and four other large vessels sunk, and two or three more vessels captured. All the large vessels of the Japanese fleet escaped injury.

Sighted Warships MANILA, May 29.--Five warships were sighted off Corregidor Island in the entrance to the Bay of Manila this morning, headed south. It is believed that they were Japanese vessels. On Saturday exchange reports, on the Japanese side, three cruisers were sunk and a dozen torpedo destroyers were sunk or disabled.

Japanese Losses TOKIO, May 29.--According to stock

Takuhira is happy WASHINGTON, May 29.--Minister Takuhira, of Japan, received his first intimation of the practical annihilation of the Russian fleet in the Straits of Korea.

Sank American Steamer WASHINGTON, May 29.--The Post today says that, acting on instructions of President Roosevelt, Acting Secretary of State Loomis has telegraphed Minister Griscom at Tokio, to inquire into the sinking of the American merchant steamer by the Russian fleet off Formosa.

No Russians Sighted SHANGHAI, May 29.--The steamer Samson visited the Saddle Islands yesterday, but found no trace of the Russian vessels reported in that vicinity a few days ago. Near Barren Islands, the Samson was stopped by the Russian volunteer cruiser Dnieper, crowded with men well armed. After exchanging courtesies, the Samson returned to Shanghai, passing a Russian transport loading from junks several miles below Woo Sung.

Picking Them Off. LONDON, May 29--12.35 p.m.--Up to noon today the foreign office was still without news of the naval battle from any British source in the Far East. The Japanese legation was similarly without news from its government.

of compound armor over her gun positions, carried eight 8-inch guns, ten 6-inch guns and about twenty smaller rapid fire guns. She had a complement of about 567 officers and men.

Neboogatoff Capt. d. TOKIO, May 29, 3 p. m.--Rear Admiral Neboogatoff, former commander of the fourth division of the Pacific fleet and recently commander of the information squadron, composed of scouts and merchantmen, with 3,000 other Russians, among the prisoners captured by the Japanese. Vice-Admiral Rojestvensky appears to have escaped.

Will Hasten Peace NEW YORK, May 29.--Advice received from London and other leading continental financial centres by local bankers were all of the opinion that Japan's decisive victory would hasten peace.

Russian Formation WASHINGTON, May 29.--The following belated despatch has been received by the navy department, dated May 27, showing the formation of the Russian fleet just before the battle:

A Crushing Blow ST. PETERSBURG, May 29.--The crews of the Tokyo official bulletin are announcing that Rojestvensky's fleet was practically annihilated by a crushing blow to the admiralty office, destroying the hope to which many of them had clung that the silence of the Japanese government might be favorably construed.

Togo's Report WASHINGTON, May 29.--Official announcement of the result of the naval engagement between the Japanese and Russian fleets was received at the state department today from Minister Griscom as follows:

The Borodino was a first-class battleship, completed in 1904, of 13,513 tons displacement, with a speed of 18 knots. She had an armored belt of from 4 to 9 inches of Krupp steel and from 6 to 10 inches of armor over her gun positions and bulkheads. Her armament consisted of four 12-inch guns, twelve 6-inch guns and over forty smaller rapid fire guns. Her crew numbered 740 officers and men.

The Lost Ships WASHINGTON, May 29.--According to advice received by the navy department from Tokyo, a Japanese bulletin in addition to the ships already named, captured the Russian battleship Susei Veliky and the Russian flagship was seriously damaged.

Tokio Reticent PARIS, May 29.--The Journal's special war correspondent Ludovic Naudou, who was taken prisoner at Mukden and sent to Japan, called from Tokyo under date of May 25 that the authorities there were observing the strictest secrecy regarding the naval battle. He said that on the morning of May 27, a Japanese steamer

NEWS FROM NORTH END

A Painful Accident Charles Alward of Hampstead, met with a serious accident on his farm, on Friday last. Mr. Alward was engaged in burning some brushwood, and while carrying an armful, tripped and fell striking his head against a stone, and inflicting a deep cut on the forehead. He was carried to his home and his head was bandaged. He came to the city today, and will receive medical treatment.

Minor Notes Eben Perkins has returned home from Boston. Mrs. Sydney C. Farren, of Gazetown is in the city today. Chester Ferguson of Fredericton is in town today. He will return to Toronto's boat.

OBITUARY

Dr. E. E. Dickey HALIFAX, N. S., May 29--(Special)--The death occurred here today, after an illness of several months, of Dr. Edwin E. Dickey, aged 77. He leaves a widow. The deceased was a brother of Dr. H. R. Dickey of this city.

Bishop MacDonald MONTREAL, May 29--(Special)--The death of Right Rev. Alexander MacDonald, Roman Catholic Bishop of Alexandria, Ont., occurred at the Hotel Dieu here this morning aged seventy-two years. Deceased, who was born in Glenarry, Ont., has been ill from a complication of diseases for some years. The remains will be taken to Alexandria and the funeral will be on Friday.

Mrs. Wm. Archibald TRURO, N. S., May 29--(Special)--The death occurred on Sunday of Mrs. Wm. Archibald, an advanced age. She was the mother of Walter P. Archibald of the Stratton Army prison work farms now attached to the dominion court staff. The deceased was an invalid for many years. Her husband and two daughters survive. They are Mrs. Joe Good of Truro, and Mrs. Archibald Willis of Boston.

Miss Issie Ross TRURO, N. S., May 29--(Special)--After a year's illness, the death took place quite unexpectedly on Saturday evening, of chronic peritonitis, of Miss Issie Ross, daughter of J. D. Ross, postal clerk between Truro and St. John. The deceased had been more or less indisposed for more than a year and had been confined to her home with her last illness about three months. On Friday she spent the day out of doors and on Saturday sank rapidly. Miss Ross was an active member and worker in the Pleasant street Methodist church. The funeral will be from her late home Tuesday afternoon. Interment at Stellarton.

AN ACTRESS GOT IT

LONDON, May 29.--Counsel for the plaintiff in the case of Alfred Fossick, a lawyer of Maidenhead, Berkshire, charged with appropriating $60,000, put in a statement in court today alleging that Fossick told him he lent the money to Mrs. James Brown Potter, the actress, without security. The defendant was remanded.

THE GAYNOR-GREENE CASE

MONTREAL, Que., May 29. Judge Lafontaine, extradition commissioner, has postponed his judgment for another week in the Gaynor-Greene case.

PICKING THEM OFF.

LONDON, May 29--12.35 p.m.--Up to noon today the foreign office was still without news of the naval battle from any British source in the Far East. The Japanese legation was similarly without news from its government.

Reports are current on the stock exchange purporting to be from authoritative private sources to the effect that Vice-Admiral Rojestvensky's flagship (Kniaz Susei Veliky) was among the vessels sunk, and that the Japanese are following up the Russians and picking off their ships one by one.

ATLANTIC THE WINNER

American Yacht Nearing the Finish Line--Broke Trans-Atlantic Record. LONDON, May 29--Barring accidents the American three-masted schooner yacht owned by Wilson Marshall, New York Yacht Club, is the winner of the Kaiser cup. She passed abeam of Scilly Island at 9.37 o'clock this morning.

There was a slight south-west wind and a smooth sea. If the breeze holds good, the Atlantic should reach the finish line about three o'clock this afternoon.

The American boat created a yachting record by crossing the Atlantic from the United States in twelve days. No other yachts have been sighted.

FALMOUTH, Eng., May 29.--The unexpectedly early arrival of the American three-masted schooner yacht Atlantic off the Scilly Islands caught the international yacht racing authorities napping. When the despatch was received announcing the Atlantic as passing the Scilly Islands, the German cruiser was not expecting the yacht before Wednesday. The cruise immediately got up full steam and sped off to her position, a mile southward of the Lizard. The distance between the Scilly Islands and the Lizard, the finish of the race, is about 48 miles. The Atlantic, promising she is making about eight knots, should cross the finish line at about 4 p.m. of 11 a.m. New York time.

LOCAL MATTERS

Chief Justice Tuck left this morning for Sackville.

Mrs. J. Newton Harvey left this morning on a visit to Boston.

The St. John Cricket Club will meet at 88 Prince William street tonight.

The St. David's bearers corps will meet for drill this evening. A large attendance is requested.

Miss Agatha Malanson of Bathurst arrived in the city on Saturday and is the guest of Mrs. Coman, 28 Orange street.

W. T. Bishop and Miss E. G. Bishop of Assiniboia, were in the city yesterday. Mr. and Mrs. Bishop are natives of 11 days. They left for there this morning.

Four of the employees of Gibbon & Co. who were reported some days ago for encumbering a sidewalk in the North End with coal, were before the magistrate today and after the taking of testimony the case was set aside for further hearing. The man to whom the coal was delivered was also in court, on a charge of using profane language, and will be heard of a later date.