LATE LOCALS

Manifesto for 24 cars cattle, three cars sheep and 13 cars general goods were received at the Customs House today to go forward in the winter port steamers.

The Jamaica steamship Veritas, Captain Kahra, arrived in port this afternoon with a cargo of fruit etc. from Kingston, Jamaica.

All members of No. 7 Co., Canadian Army Service Corps, are requested to report at the Armory on Wednesday, Thursday or Friday evenings of this week, to arrange matters in view of the coming camp. About twenty new men are to be taken on this season, and part of that number have already enlisted.

Paper flowers are now being used very largely for table and household decoration, and so perfectly are they formed that it is very difficult to distinguish them from the genuine article. Probably the finest display of the kind is that of T. H. Hall, whose Easter window has been the subject of much favorable comment. At the rear right hand corner is a large cross composed of Easter lilies, made from very fine tissue paper, while the remainder of the window is artistically dressed with practically perfect imitations of nature's floral creations. The interior of the store has been appropriately adorned and is well worthy of a visit.

Mr. Purdy, when communicated with today, told the Times that although Rev. Mr. Pierce had not sent in a written resignation, the matter would, nevertheless, form the principal topic for discussion. Rev. Mr. Pierce will preside.

OBITUARY

R. E. Stephenson

A Marinette, Wisconsin letter of April 2 says: "Robert E. Stephenson, a relative of I. Stephenson, of Marquette, and one of the veteran lumbermen of the Menominee river region, died Friday evening at Ontonagon after a brief illness. Mr. Stephenson came to Marquette about forty years ago and has been engaged actively in logging and lumber since that time. He was a member of the Masonic and Elks orders. The funeral was held today under Masonic auspices. He leaves two children, a son, George at Portland and a 2-year old boy at Ontonagon."

POLICE COURT

In the police court this morning William Johnston, given in charge of Officer Collins by Conductor Dalew, was charged with being drunk and disorderly on the Montreal train last night. He was fined $8, having admitted his guilt.

Elizabeth Rosen was found by Officer Lee wandering on Union street, West End, last night between eleven and twelve o'clock. She pleaded not guilty, saying that she had been refused admittance to her home on White street, and went over to Carleton to get lodgings. Officer Lee said that people reported the matter to him, thinking that she had escaped from the asylum. She was fined $8 or two months in jail.

Winnie Butler, a chambermaid in the Aberdeen hotel, was arrested yesterday afternoon by Detective Kilien, and Deputy Chief Jenkins for stealing a ring from her mistress, Mrs. Northrup. The ring was traced to William Mahoney, a Newfoundland under working at Sand Point, and who kept company with the Butler girl. Mahoney was in ignorance as to where the ring was gotten, and expressed surprise when told about it.

This morning the young girl pleaded guilty and was remanded. The ring is valued at $18, and was returned to Mrs. Northrup this morning.

The case of Duncan Pollock and George O'Reilly, reported for breaking a pane of glass in a Chinaman's shop in the West End, and arrested for picking a resident's door, came up in the police court this morning. Pollock did not appear, but O'Reilly did. The latter said he was not guilty, but as he stated that the glass would be replaced, the case was dropped.

Herbert McGuire has been reported by the police for acting in a disorderly manner on the Barrack Green and refusing to desist when ordered to do so by Col. White, D. O. C.

LUDLOW COULDN'T DELIVER THE GOODS

Though She May be a Good Ferry Boat She is a Failure as a Stump Puller.

Although there may be no doubt that the Ludlow is an excellent ferry boat yet as a stump-puller or a dredge she could not earn enough to buy salt to season Admiral Glasgow's portwine. There was an excellent example of this thrust upon the citizens yesterday. Two small pieces of timber had become lodged on the bottom of the West End ferry slip and once or twice the West End floats showed a disposition to ground on them. A growing-on stump slinger forms no part of the duties of any properly behaved floats, and as the West End is now growing-on slinger, the temptation to the temptation, Admiral Glasgow determined to go to the root of the evil and remove the source of temptation. Diver Lalay was secured and between the Ludlow's calls he paddled his raft in and out of the slip and located the offending sticks. These he secured by heavy rope but it was found impossible to bring them to the surface. Even Admiral Glasgow's words of encouragement did not help matters any. What was to be done? There was not sufficient force of hand to move the timbers, and any minute they might take a notion to bump the floats again. Finally the Ludlow was seen wedging her uncertain way to the West End shore. The fountain of hope was revived in Mr. Glasgow's breast. "Well," said the Ludlow, "and he do the lines from the timbers were made fast to the harbor leviathan, and passengers wanted to look out for trouble. Life belts were got ready and an accident insurance agent who was a passenger got seven applications in seven minutes. Then Mr. Glasgow waved his hand, the captain rang his bell, the passengers held their breath and the Ludlow made for the open sea with a determination to remove those sticks if she had to bring half of West Side with them. There was an instant of suspense, the rope tightened, then lumpy-ed alderman and became as limp as a defeated soldier. Something had happened. Mr. Glasgow peered anxiously into the foaming water. One glance told him all. "Go on," he called to the captain, "the blasted rope is busted."

THEY LAUNCHED THE APRIL FOOL

James Knox's New Water Boat Took the Briny Dip Like a Duck.

Amidst the blowing of all the tug boat and steamship whistles in the harbor this morning at 11:30 o'clock, the new water boat (April Fool) owned by James Knox, was launched off Merritt's wharf into the water at Walker's slip. "Rock Gibson," the Scotch piper, was present and played some noted Scottish airs in honor of the occasion.

A large number of prominent citizens and others were present, including Commodore Thompson, of the R. N. Y. C.; Captain Bess and Dr. MacKinnon, of the steamship Tunitania; H. L. Jewett, Keith Barber, Howard E. Codner of the Globe, Captain Edwin Thomson, J. Ray, Thomson, A. O. Cruikshank, and many of the alderman candidates.

The little vessel glided into the water a great hurrah went up from the crowd on the wharf. The captain of the ferry steamer Ludlow nearly let his peckoning, so great was the noise. The vessel, it is stated, was christened with a bottle of Spruce Lake water. The new boat as she has moved to the wharf in the slip presents a beautiful picture of marine architecture, and will at once enter into competition for the delivery of fresh water to the shipping in harbor.

There were no clergymen present, and it was not until after the launch that the April Fool did not point for Navy Island Bar.

WILL AID LOCAL SHIPPING TRADE

Legislation Favored Permitting Timber Deck Loads in Winter to Vessels on North Atlantic.

OTTAWA, Ont., April 9 (Special).—At the instance of Mr. Sinclair, member for Guysboro, N. S., the Dominion government communicated with the Imperial authorities regarding an amendment to the merchant shipping act, which would permit deck loads of timber to be carried on ships of trade sailing to the North Atlantic during the winter season.

Today a reply was received from the British Board of Trade stating that a bill had been introduced to enable ships that have no shelter deck to carry up to a maximum of 7 feet on the main deck, also providing that vessels with a shelter may load wooden goods between the main and the shelter deck up to the full height of the latter. The Imperial bill goes much further than the measure which Mr. Sinclair has introduced into the Dominion house, and he will amend his bill, so as to bring it into conformity with the other.

The enactment of the other measure will do much to revive the local shipping trade in the winter as the timber vessels had almost been driven out of business by the law as it now stands.

At the annual meeting of the Ottawa Conservative Association tonight R. G. Code was re-elected president.

Hon. Mr. Brodeur tonight wrote to the shipping interests in Montreal informing them that the timber-breaker Montreal would be under orders to assist the first incoming steamship up the lower St. Lawrence. Notices of the approach of the incoming steamships up the lower St. Lawrence and the Montreal will be on hand to help them through any ice which may be encountered.

CASE OF OLIVER COULGE

ELABORATE EXHIBIT OF EASTER MILLINERY COMMENCES WEDNESDAY. THE TEST HAS BEEN MADE. St. John ladies are now satisfied as to the hat shapes they will accept for the ensuing Spring and Summer seasons. Consequently, commencing tomorrow morning we will hold a grand Easter festival of fetching hats, all tastefully trimmed and ready to put on. Those who have not yet made their selection for next Sunday, have lost practically nothing; the best is to be seen at this showing.

SWISS HOODS ARE IN THE FRONT RANK. Their name implies a veritable hood, but it is misleading. The style is simply a broad-brimmed, crushable shape, treated from numerous trimming standpoints—all of the correct. In Velvets, Quills and Flowers.

THE VOGUE OF FRENCH SAILORS is also pronounced. In small and medium sizes, some with Straight and some with Dome Crowns. Trims of uniform and uneven widths. Tilted over the face, and trimmed with Blossoms, Foliage and Ribbons.

SEMI-DRESS HATS run chiefly in small shapes. Slanted forward and banded deeply at back with Flowers. Large variety of styles, all of them distinctively and exclusively treated. Very pretty colorings, some to correspond with popular costuming.
