FORMER MONTREALER

At a meeting of the board of directors of E. & T. Fairbanks & Co., held recently at St. Johnsbury, Vt., Henry J. Fuller, president of the Canadian Fairbanks-Morse Co., Ltd., and a former resident of Montreal, was elected president of the Vermont organization.

The election of Mr. Fuller to this office is but another move which serves more closely to unite Canadian and American organizations, as Mr. Fuller is not only president of the Canadian Fairbanks-Morse Co., Ltd., but is also a director of the Canadian Bank of Com-merce, the National Trust Co. of Canada and other industrial concerns in the Do-

Although born in St. Johnsbury, Vt., Mr. Fuller came to Montreal in 1897, two years after completing his education at Worcester Polytechnic Institute, and established a branch of the Fairbanks of the Fairbanks

Co., which later developed into the Canadian Fairbanks-Morse Co., Ltd., of which he is now the chief executive.

As head of this concern, Mr. Fuller has seen his organization grow from the Montreal branch to a concern employing an immense staff all over Canada, and

It Is An Utter Impossibility For Street Car Companies To Operate On The Basis Of A Five Cent - Or - Less -Fare - Facts And Figures Prove This.

Yesterday I stated that our street railway company is giving you good service on the basis of an average 4.31 cent fare. Just what this means, figured on the basis of receipts and expenditures of your company, may be well illustrated by a few

In September last our actual receipts, over and above expenses, were one cent per hour for each car operating, or

In other words, each car on the service made, net, eighteen cents

Would you remain in business simply for the pleasure of it, despite the fact that your money was not even earning you interest? And common-sense answers in the negative-most emphatically. But this is not the worst.

It is but leading up to it. In October last, after paying our operating costs,

We atcually lost $1,900. In January this condition will be further aggrevated by a tremendous increase in the cost of our coal. That is why we find it absolutely necessary to ask for more revenue. What else can we do and continue to give you that service you demand?

That is why we MUST have increased revenue for our street car service if that service is to be maintained. Surely no fair-minded person can say we are asking too much? In the United States, street railway companies have been forced, under the present regime of high operating expenses, to ask in-They find that more revenue is essential or they cannot operate. We purchase a great quantity of material, necessary to give you your street car service, in the United States, but, in addition to the present abnormally high cost for this material, we also have to pay duty to the extent of thirty or forty per cent. If the street railways in the big American centres with their cannot pay their expenses on a five cent fare, How can we continue to give good service for three-quarters of a cent less, per fare, and yet pay more for our material than do those bigger lines?

larger populations and cheaper materials, and with no duty to pay,

And there is but one answer.

IT CAN'T BE DONE! L. R. ROSS,

Fredericton Gleaner: Elwood Burtt, leader of the Liberal party in York in the last provincial election, presided at a union government meeting at Burtt's Cornes on Saturday night, and spoke strongly in favor of union government. Mr. Burtt will be generally endorsed in his declaration that the time has now arrived when every loyal Canadian should do duty to his country by upholding and supporting union government.

Stairs-Lenentine.

I can therefore do much to strengthen the morale of the corps. But I do not want to buoy them up with false hopes that to be quite frank I am desperately afraid of the situation in Canada. I see that Laurier is resigning, a new leader contemplated. Also that Borden is taking able Liberals into his cabinet. Is the election to be fought on party lines? Are they trying to eliminate conscription as an issue? I tell you solemnly, my dear friend, that the Canadian people must in some way be made to see that this time is critical beyond exaggeration. Cannot something be done even yet to Stairs-Lenentine.

I have had a busy summer-all day

I have had a busy summer—all day and every day working amongst the men. Yesterday I preached four times and spoke to 5,000 men. A big storm was on last night and our lights were outs. I had one candle to read over the verses of the hymn and the men sang in utter black darkness. It was weird and impressive. I must have made a ghostly kind of preacher standing in the fitful light of a tallow dip. How wonderful it was to hear those lads sing the verse after I read it—they roared even when they couldn't remember the words!

We are on the move just now, go packing is the order of the day. All good wishes and a thousand regards.

Very sincerely yours, Very sincerely yours, ALLAN P. SHATFORD.
