No words of ours can convey an idea of the charm of these delightful sketches. The author has chosen no great theme. Her characters are those we meet in everyday life. But such is the delicate humour and tender pathos woven in, that they will be read with alternate smiles and tears. The book will win its way into every heart.

HERE, IN A BOOK of 267 pages, our veteran missionary—a veritable “hero of the plains”—has given us the experiences of the first twenty years of his life, all of which has been spent on the mission fields of Ontario and the far Northwest. What stories of travel, and hunting, and fishing, and canoeing, adventures with Indians, and the wild, free life of the Western plains—we cannot half describe the thrilling pages; the boys must have the book for themselves. The illustrations are very fine and add greatly to the interest.
