WAS HARD YEAR ON RACE HORSES

S. E. Rice Tells Why No
Exhibition Meet at Moosepath.

Silas E. Rice, owner of Moosepath Park, announced this morning that his efforts to stage a meet here on Thursday had been unavailing. He said that many of the fastest horses are booked up for other meets and so many others have met with accidents that it was out of the question to attempt to stage any good races here at this time.

He said that his new pacer, David Hal, three weeks ago at New Glasgow suffered a broken bone near the ankle of one of his fore feet and had been under the care of a veterinary since. The horse is expected to arrive in city tomorrow. Mr. Rice said in all his experience on the track he never heard tell of so many horses going lame as this season. He cited cases where horses men had started with withering injuries from 17 to 19 horses and are now campaigning with only one or two. He said there was no explanation of the situation and it could only be termed a year of hard luck.

Miss Abbie Brino and Wilfred C. two of Mr. Rice's string, will be sent to St. Stephen at the first of next week to participate in the meet to be held in conjunction with the exhibition there. He will place Miss Abbie Brino in the 2.15 class and Wilfred C. in the 2.18 class.

VETERAN PRAISES LOCAL OARSMEN

Harry Vail Has Good Words
—St. John Four is Suggested.

The three local young oarsmen who competed in the championship regatta on the North West Arm last Saturday returned to St. John yesterday. They were accompanied by Mr. Harry Vail, who was in charge of the St. John team, and by Hugh L. McAvoy, who was looking after his son, Greenville McAvoy. All expressed themselves as delighted with the treatment accorded them by the Halifax crew.

Mr. Vail said that St. John had not sent a four oared crew to the regatta and he was disappointed in the next year would secure a suitable boat and have the city represented in this event. They thought it was unusual to see so many promising young single scullers and no effort made to have a four oared crew.

Harry Vail, famous rowing coach from Wisconsin, was on the train with the St. John boys. He had been in Halifax training the Lorne crew, which not only won the regatta but also established a new record of 8 minutes 59.3 seconds. The former record for the course on the North West Arm was made in 1919. With reference to St. John's representatives Mr. Vail informed Mr. Turner that he considers they have all the necessary qualifications to make good oarsmen, but need some coaching to improve their style and stroke. He was very much impressed with Willie Logan and said he has a good style and a strong stroke. He also said that Harry Giggie, who won the senior event, has "the earmarks of a coxer."

At a meeting of the Maritime Oarsmen's Association, which was held Saturday night, Mr. Turner was elected vice-president.

LIGHTKEEPERS IN SESSION HERE

A meeting of the Maritime Branch of the Lightkeepers Brotherhood Association was held this morning in the Victoria Hotel with J. B. Day, keeper at Partridge Island, presiding. A. H. Connolly of Deer Island, secretary-treasurer of the association, gave a detailed report of the finances, which were reported flourishing. He also gave a report of his trip to Ottawa as a delegate from the association and at the conclusion he was unanimously chosen to again go to Ottawa to represent the maritime branch at the annual meeting of the Canadian Association. J. B. Day, who was vice-president, was elected president, and Charles McKee of Cape Spencer was elected vice-president.

FORTY HOURS AT ROTHESAY

The Forty Hours Devotion was opened on Sunday in the Catholic church at Rotherham, and will continue until this evening. After high mass by the pastor, Rev. Raymond McCarthy, the Blessed Sacrament was carried in solemn procession through the church and the Litany of the Saints was sung by Father McCarthy, assisted by Rev. Leonard McGuire, C. S. R., who is spending his vacation with his father, Thomas McGuire, at Quispamsis. The church was filled to capacity for both morning and evening services on Sunday and Monday.

METHODIST MATTERS

The financial district of the Methodist church of St. John met this morning in the church at Westfield, Rev. R. G. Fulton in the chair. The ministers of the district and a good number of laymen were present. Estimates for the various missions were passed and appropriations made for their support. It was reported that a new mission had been opened in East St. John and that it was proposed to hold services there in the next few weeks. The meetings will be continued this afternoon and evening.

AUTO WAS AFIRE

An automobile, owned by Edward Spragg, took fire near the foot of Main street this morning and an alarm was sent in for the North End fire apparatus. The blaze was extinguished by the owner before much damage had resulted.

AMERICAN CAPTAIN'S THANKS.
Postmaster Alex. Thompson has received from Captain Haddigan of U. S. Detrol an official letter of thanks for the highly satisfactory manner in which the ship's mail was handled by the local office.

IS POSTPONED.

A dance which was to have been given tonight at the Riverbank and Country Club in honor of the visiting Quebec tennis players, has been postponed until tomorrow evening as the players will not arrive in the city until early tomorrow morning.

CASE IS SETTLED.

The County Court resumed this morning with His Honor Judge Barry presiding. The only case called was that of Miller vs. Davidson, an action to a report received from the plaintiff, notified the judge that the matter had been settled. Court then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

SOME GOOD CITIZENS.

Several business houses have nobly responded to the Mayor's suggestion about decorating their places for exhibition week, at least to fly their flags. The result is very attractive. On the other hand, scores of flagpoles remain stark reminders that somebody is careless of the little things that go to make a place brighter and happier.

A LITTLE BETTER.

A deserted baby taken to the Children's Home in Garden street on Sunday was still alive this morning. The infant spent a good night according to a report received from that institution today at noon. While the child's condition is still regarded as critical, it was thought she was slightly better today. No clue has been discovered as yet to the identity of the child's parents.

WARE PICKPOCKETS.

The local detective department this morning issued a warning to citizens to be on their guard against pickpockets. It was reported to them last evening that a man who had been attending the exhibition missed his wallet containing $18. Whether or not he lost it or was a victim of a "slick-hand artist" is not clear, but the authorities feel that caution at a time when so many strangers are in the city is advisable.

NEW QUARTERS.

The Civic Hydro Commission are located in their new quarters, Canterbury street, today, but it will be some days before the new building is completely ready for occupancy. The executive offices of the New Brunswick Electric Power Commission will be moved to the premises formerly occupied by the Civic Hydro Commission, some time this week. The rooms at present occupied by the executive office will be used by the engineering department.

WILL LOCATE IN CANADA.

Wilfrid Virgo, tenor with the London English Concert Eight heard here recently, has accepted a position with the Toronto, which he will fill on and after Oct. 5. Mr. Virgo was with the Sheffield Choir upon his visit to Canada some years ago, which he found a most enjoyable one. He is now in St. John much overdue, putting on his concert in the Opera House at a late hour. The London singers will bring their family to Canada. It is understood other members of the eight may take up their residence in this country.

LANCASTER TRAFFIC JAM.

During the erection of the retaining wall round about the Simms plant, Lancaster, in connection with the general highway improvement scheme, the traffic at the intersection of the highway and the railway is at times much congested. In the day time a detour is laid out through the grounds of the Provincial Hospital, but at night the railway is used again. The other evening there was a tieup of 10 minutes on both sides of the corner while trams were shifting on the switches and picking up crowds. The traffic at this point is now single file due to the detour of the roadway in front of the Simms factory.

CANON ARMSTRONG IN ONTARIO.

In a letter to a friend in this city Rev. R. A. Armstrong, late rector of Trinity church, reports that he arrived with his family safely and comfortably at Orillia, Ont., where they are resting before he takes up his pastoral duties in Toronto. Before leaving St. John, Mr. Armstrong writes, his wife was presented with an old-fashioned nosegay by the Imperial Theatre staff, and the children were sent bon-bons, a note of neighborly farewell accompanying. The note to the rector told of twelve years of peaceful boundary between the theatre and rectory mutual backyard fence. The absence of clothes line disputes and other factious references to the adjoining properties. Mr. Armstrong states that a remembrance was a delightful little surprise and voiced his sentiments exactly.

PRESENTATION.

At the conclusion of a mock trial held in the Renforth club house, Ernest A. Job was made recipient of a handsome nosegay set as a token of the appreciation of the Renforth Athletic and Outing Association for his services in making the club dances a success during the last three seasons. I. C. Armstrong, a former president of the club, made the presentation and spoke highly of Mr. Job's efforts in behalf of the association. The mock trial, something new in the club's activities, was a great success and provided amusement for the large audience present. Among those taking part were H. Wilson Dalton, who acted as judge; R. H. Bennett and Richard Ingleson, attorneys; H. S. Morton, the prisoner, and Charles Curran, Robert Henry, Hubert S. Gibbon, W. C. Clarke and others, witnesses.

AVENUE SALE IS DEFERRED AGAIN

Will Become Supreme Court
Matter—Suit Against City Threatened.

A sale of properties on Douglas avenue, which was advertised by the city for non-payment of amounts levied against them for entering the main sewer, which sale had to be postponed last year on account of some irregularity in the preparation of the advertisement, was postponed again this year and the matter of liability of the owners will now come before the Supreme Court of New Brunswick for adjudication. An agreement to this course was reached on Saturday afternoon after an all afternoon session had been held before Judge White on the application of Julia A. Johnson for an interim injunction forbidding the sale. Several properties in the city were not sold for lack of bidders and some were withdrawn because the amounts had been paid. One property was sold for correction of title. G. A. Stanley Hopkins registered a protest against the sale of a lot in Union Alley and threatened suit against the city for false advertisement of the lot.

None of the properties offered brought more than the amounts held against them by the city and one, that of the Consolidated Land Co., Lancaster, was sold subject to notice by J. King Kelly, K. C., county secretary, that this same property would be advertised and sold about November 1 for $5,000 city and county taxes. It was sold today for water rates.

Those Sold.

The properties sold and the price paid and purchaser were as follows: Charles Simon, Erin street, $412.95—Peter L. Harty.
Nellie L. White, King street, West, for correction of title, $20.40—Charles Emery, for the owner.
Dundell & Co., Warner mill property, Strait Shore, $2,210—City of St. John.

New Brunswick Land and Investment Co., Vendome Hotel property, Prince William and Queen streets—$775—John A. Johnson.
J. D. Taylor, Lansdowne avenue, $75—City of St. John.

Edward Promotion Com., property Edward street, $75—C. A. Conlon.
Canadian Consolidated Lands, property in Lancaster, $1,466.50—S. A. M. St. John.

Properties of the following were not sold, as no bids were offered: J. R. Archibald, P. T. Cornwall and G. A. Stanley Hopkins.

The following had paid the amounts assessed against them, and the properties were not put up for sale: S. B. Anderson, W. A. McKee, W. U. Homfray and H. J. Garson.

"Hiram," said The Times-Star reporter to Mr. Hiram Hornbeam, "aren't you glad we haven't to go back to school tomorrow?"

"Me?" said Hiram, "I'm goin' to school all the time. This here old air is a school to every human critter that has a mind above a hole in its."

"What do you know about golf?" queried the reporter.

"Enough to keep it where it belongs," said Hiram, "—like any other pastime. I ain't sayin' nothin' about it."

"—any I wish some of the fellers 'ud come out to The Settlement an' swing an' axe or a scythe the instid of a funny lookin' cane.
