Paris, Oct. 2.—French hopes for the peaceful settlement of the Near Eastern crisis are centered upon the Mudania conference. While the general public believes the worst is over, there is no desire to be too optimistic pending the determination of the two main issues by the generals in consultation with the evacuation of Eastern Thrace by the Turkish forces.

The allied policy at the Mudania conference, it was learned today, will be decided upon at a meeting of the allied generals, admirals, high commissioners and military attaches in extraordinary council here this afternoon. The conference will discuss the occupation of Eastern Thrace by detachments of inter-allied troops during the Greek army's withdrawal.

The expectation here is that the Greek evacuation will be begun immediately after the conference, permitting the establishment of Turkish administrative control.

London, Oct. 2.—The Turkish Nationalist assembly at Angora has unanimously approved the despatch of delegates to Mudania and later to the peace conference, according to a Central News message.

Turks and Greeks Clash.
Constantinople, Oct. 2.—Frontier clashes continued between Turkish irregulars and Greeks. In one of these, near Strajia, ten Greeks and twenty Turks were killed.

The Greek commander has informed the allies that the Greeks will not be responsible for the neutrality of the island of Rhodes.

The Greek army in Thrace for the moment absorbed in the excitement of revolution and its re-organization is proceeding. It is not certain, however, to what extent the recent political upheaval will suffice to restore the morale of the troops.

Constantinople, Oct. 2.—A band of eight hundred Turkish irregulars crossed the border of Thrace at Sinakli, to the northwest of Silivri, forty miles west of Constantinople, and attacked the Greek outposts. These were being forced to withdraw when reinforcements arrived, and the Turks were thrown back across the boundary.

Allied Generals to Leave for Mudania Tonight to Meet Kemal's Men—Not True that British
Will Demand that Turks Leave Dardanelles
Within 24 Hours.

(Canadian Press Cable.)

Constantinople, Oct. 2.—An immediate mutual agreement to suspend all movements of troops was expected here today to be the first outcome of the Mudania armistice conference which is to meet tomorrow.

British general headquarters here today issued a denial of a report originating in England that General Harington would demand the evacuation of the shores of the Dardanelles by the Turkish troops within 24 hours. That question, it was said, would be discussed at Mudania.

The allied generals will leave for Mudania tonight. They are General Harington for Great Britain, General Sharpie for France, and General Membelli for Italy.

Constantinople, Oct. 2.—The Turkish Nationalist authorities have agreed to an armistice conference in Mudania on Tuesday and have requested the Allied high commissioners to appoint delegates.

The Nationalists will be represented by Ismet Pasha and possibly Hamid Bey.

The Kemalists have evacuated Eren Keui, and the British now control the whole coast of the Narrows from the "hanak to Kara Bournou. The latter point possesses an excellent key, enabling warships to anchor in deep water.

Kemalists Less Menacing and British Force in Near East Strengthened—British Labor Leader Criticizes Government.

(Canadian Press Cable.)

London, Oct. 2.—A feeling of relief was evident in all British official circles today as a result of the favorable week end developments in the Near East crisis, and the authorities are hopeful that the conference arranged between the Kemalists and the allies will have good results.

A similar feeling of relief is noted in official dispatches from Constantinople owing to the less menacing attitude of the Turks about the neutral zones, in addition substantial British reinforcements have arrived in the Straits of Dardanelles and the British military position is much stronger in consequence.

The governmental authorities reiterated today that complete evacuation of the neutral zone by the Kemalists would be required before the peace talks can begin. It is generally understood that Mustafa Kemal Pasha himself will not attend the meeting which will be represented by Ismet Pasha.

Malta, Oct. 2.—The first British destroyer flotilla and some L class submarines of the Turkish fleet, under the command of Admiral Mustapha Kemal Pasha, are to leave for Constantinople today.

Wimbledon, Eng., Oct. 2.—The policy of the British government in the Near East was severely scored yesterday by Arthur Henderson, British labor leader, speaking at the opening of a new labor hall here. He declared that the latest steps taken by the government demanding that the Turkish Nationalists withdraw from the neutral zone had not calculated to lessen the tension.

At any moment, the British troops in the Near East are being held in expectation of the adoption of a referendum in which the people will vote whether they were guilty or not guilty of embroiling Bulgaria in war.

Sofia, Oct. 2.—Twelve former premiers and government ministers are being held in Bulgaria in connection with a referendum in which the people will vote whether they were guilty or not guilty of embroiling Bulgaria in war.

Montreal, Oct. 2.—"What we want among our business men and among us all at this particular time is more optimism and less pessimism. We are not going to die in this country. We are not going to fall in this country, and particularly the young people should be imbued with the determination not to be discouraged by the present indications. We do not look for it. The situation which we are in at the present time may be serious. I hope it may not develop into anything more than we have already. We should put our shoulders to the wheel in a manner worthy of our fathers and our grandfathers, and steadfastly meet our obligations and the tasks set before us, discouraging though they may be, so that in the years to come Canada will be much the better for our having lived in it, and it will be said that we were worthy of the country in which we lived."

MADE 1,054 HOME
RUNS IN SEASON

New York, Oct. 2.—The grand total of 1,054 home runs sets a new mark in the major leagues for the "lively ball," exceeding by 117 the record of 937 for both leagues last year.

An odd feature of the team record for the season is that the Philadelphia Athletics, occupying seventh place in both leagues, led each circuit in home run clubs. The Athletics amassed 111 runs while the Phillies reaped a harvest of 115.

Philadelphia, Oct. 2.—The body of Wm. Fraser, a young Scotchman who had been in this city for only eight months, lies in the morgue here, a bullet through his heart. Frank Bianchi, 59, an Italian, is in a cell at police headquarters, Jack Lorimer, a countryman of Fraser's is in "Hotel Dieu," a bullet wound in his neck, fired, the police say, by Bianchi.

With Lorimer and two other young men, Fraser was on his way home yesterday when they came across several Italians engaged in an altercation. Whether the four men stopped to see the outcome of the quarrel, or whether they were set upon by the Italians has not yet been determined but a few moments later three shots were heard and Fraser crumpled to the pavement dead.

Lorimer stumbled on a few steps when he too went down with blood spurting from a bullet wound in the back of his neck.

Major Archibald McLean, a well known local barrister, was found dead on the roadside yesterday with a bullet wound through his heart. A heavy Webley revolver of the army pattern was found beside the body.

A Halifax despatch of last night stated that Allison Wishart, formerly of St. John, now living in Halifax, has received a telegram from his daughter, Mrs. McLean, announcing the death of her husband, Major Archibald McLean, at Lloydminster. His wife was Miss Joyce Wishart, who had been a nurse in the Canadian Army Medical Corps. A young daughter also survives.

Lightly Grabbed, Sensation in Church Caused
Victoria, B. C., Oct. 2.—Belief that the Ku Klux Klan had invaded Victoria was dispelled yesterday when Simon Kamenechikoff, Doukhobor, of Brilliant, B.C., was arrested. Services were proceeding at a local church, when a masked, white robed figure entered and marched slowly down the aisle toward the altar, carrying a staff on which was mounted a white flag. Users seized the man, who resisted. In the struggle the white robe came off, revealing Kamenechikoff, who was so obviously in need of clothing that he was rushed to the cloakroom.

Calgary Grocer Defends the Fort and Gunmen Take to Heels.
Calgary, Oct. 2.—A volley of tinned tomatoes and soap cubes fired by Fred Langston, a grocer, routed two masked and armed hold up men who attempted to rob him in his store on Saturday evening. As Langston heaved a tin, one of the robbers opened fire with a revolver. The bullets whistled dangerously near Langston's head, but he gamely reached for another tin, and he struck the wall it burst and the rip fruit descended in a shower over the robbers. A bottle of soap cubes almost knocked one of the gunmen off his feet and then the grocer reached for the gunmen, who lowered their guns and fled.

Their flight was hastened by the screams of Mrs. Ollie Lennox, a customer, who dropped to the floor, screaming that she had been shot when a soap cube struck her in the leg.

SOFT COAL WAGES

Operators and Officials Confer in Cleveland.

Arrange Future Rate in Accordance With Agreement Which Ended the Soft Coal Strike—Collective Bargaining Also To Be Considered.

(Canadian Press Despatch.)

Cleveland, Oct. 2.—Bituminous operators and officials of the U. M. W. of America gathered here for a joint conference this afternoon to arrange for future wage scales in accordance with an agreement signed here on August 15, which ultimately brought an end to the soft coal strike.

Approximately 100 operators from the bituminous fields are represented. The miners' representatives include their policy committee, numbering 11. In addition to opening negotiations for a wage scale to supplement that which will expire on March 31, 1923, the conference is expected to take the question of collective bargaining.

The Cleveland agreement provides for the appointment of two men at today's conference, one to investigate the industry and the other to formulate a method to be followed in negotiating new wage contracts at another meeting in next January.

The miners, it is understood, will insist upon the selection of a joint committee which would be empowered to draft and fall decision of a method of negotiations.

A meeting of the international executive board of the union has been called in Indianapolis for next Monday to survey the union's membership and financial situation following the "general strike" to handle appeals from district unions and to consider the outlook as it appears at the close of the present conference. It will be the first meeting of the board since last March.

The union is still carrying approximately 50,000 strikers in the United States bituminous fields, it was learned today.

Harris Greb had been picked tentatively as Mattie's opponent by the New York state athletic commission ruled that the U. S. light heavyweight champion cannot box in this state until he meets Johnny Wilson of Boston for the middleweight title.

The Grecian royal family has had a remarkable series of ups and downs in the last few years. King Constantine was compelled to abdicate by the Allies in 1917 because of his pro-German sympathies. His second son, Prince Alexander, succeeded, but died in 1920 from the bite of a pet hound. Then, as the result of a plebiscite, King Constantine and other members of his family returned to Athens where the king was again crowned. The failure of his ambitious plans against the Turks has now resulted in his abdication for the second time. On this occasion his picture shows, left to right, Prince Paul, Constantine's oldest son, has been placed upon the throne. The queen shows, left to right, Prince Paul, Constantine's youngest son, Prince Alexander (deceased), Throno Sophie, Constantine's wife; Princess Helene and Princess Irene, daughters.

Mohammed VI, the Sultan of Turkey is reported to have abdicated, but is remaining in Constantinople under guard by order of Kemal Pasha, the Nationalist leader.

BEST FOUR OUT OF SEVEN GAMES

That Is Arrangement For The World Series.

Story of The Concluding Contests of The Regular Season—Tim McNamara, Boston College Rookie, Scores Second Shutout in Week.

(Canadian Press.)
New York, Oct. 2.—The pennant winning New York Giants and Yankees marshalled their boards of strategy today for the opening of their second straight contest for the world's championship at the Polo Grounds on Wednesday. The series this year will be for the best four out of seven, instead of five out of nine, as a year ago.

Saturday's victory for the Yankees over the Red Sox, clinching the pennant, proved to be the margin by which the Huggins held the top when the season closed yesterday. They dropped the final contest when Washington hammered Sam Jones to the tune of 6 to 1, and the St. Louis Browns, runners up, concluded the season with their third straight triumph over Chicago, 2 to 1.

Cleveland also upset the standing in the American League on the final days, crowding Chicago out of fourth place by defeating Detroit 6 to 4, while the White Sox lost to the Browns. The Tigers held third place but a single game.

The Giant regulars, playing behind Johnson, a recruit pitcher, were blanked in the first game of a double-header by the Boston Braves, while McGraw's substitute aggregation blanked the victors in the second contest, with Nels McQuillan and Scott on the mound. The scores of both games were 3 to 0. McNamara's debut was his second shutout in a week, Brooklyn falling a victim to his curves a few days ago.

Behan of the Phillies blanked the Dodgers 6 to 0, in the remaining contest of the season's finale.

BRITISH LEAGUE FOR GOOD WILL

Proponent People in England Subscribe to Doctrine of Commerce Rules World

London, Sept. 13.—(A. P. by Mail)—"Good will among men is the one thing that can save civilization," declares the Industrial League and Council in a plea it has just issued for harmonious relations between employers and employees. It is signed by many people of prominence representing various shades of political opinion, including Premier Lloyd George, Lord Robert Cecil, Lord Burnham, Lady Astor and several representatives of Labor.

"The real ruler of the world today controls," says the league. "Only the worker can build up what the soldier has destroyed."

"The never was a time in the whole story of the world when the industrial had so much to offer or the worker so great a need of his prices."

"Europe has received a staggering blow. Billions of its best citizens have been killed. The foundations of its commerce have been shaken as though by an earthquake."

"We, Great Britain have the factories, the works, the skilled men, the able nation. One of the most vital things lacking is real motive-power. If we are to obtain it every class, employ and employed alike, must admit the theory of personal responsibility and endeavor to fulfill its obligation."

"Men every political path look forward the time when there shall be a real cement in Europe, but not until we are united at home can we hope to achieve unity abroad. Not until all classes of the community recognize, not only rights, but their obligations, shall achieve unity at home."
