DRIVER SUSPENDED.
As a result of a collision yesterday between one of the city hose wagons and a farmer's cart in Union street, James Dwyer, the driver of the fire wagon, was suspended this morning by commissioner Thornton pending an investigation. The commissioner said that the department has orders not to use Carmarthen street for fire vehicles.

THANKS FROM VALERIAN.
The mayor has received a letter of thanks from Commander Hugh S. England, of H. M. S. Valerian, which was in part last week. The commander also asked to have the appreciation of the officers and crew extended to President Armstrong and the officials of the Navy League for the hospitality shown. The letter was dated from Halifax, May 22.

DOUGLAS AVENUE.
The absence of Recorder Baxter from the city has delayed the signing of the contract for the paving of Douglas avenue, and the street was not commenced until this morning. The contractor was compelled to delay operations until the ten-ton roller has already arrived in the city for the contractors, and a Key-stone excavator is expected in a few days.

G. W. V. FAIR.
The opening night of the G. W. V. Fair in St. Andrew's rink proved very successful and the veterans are well pleased as, in spite of the numerous other attractions for the holiday, a large crowd patronized the fair. Free admission was supplied to the booths every day and some excellent prizes are being awarded. The door price, forty-eight pounds of flour, was won last night by ticket 2628. The ladies' bean toss was taken by Mrs. Roy Pittman, a brass fern dish, the men's prize, a razor strap, was won by Mr. Mackin.

GOOD THINGS COMING TO THEATRES OF ST. JOHN.

NEW BILL WINS POPULAR FAVOR

Vaudeville Offerings at Opera House Were Enjoyed by Large Audiences—Some Clever Performers.

The new vaudeville programme at the Opera House yesterday afternoon and evening was thoroughly enjoyed by large and appreciative audiences. There was a good variety of talent in the new bill and the participants were accorded hearty applause.

Amarrath Sisters and Company scored a decided hit in a "Vaudeville Fantasy," which included novelty dancing and electricity performed feats of equilibrium. Their act was teeming with interest and held undivided interest.

Marcella Falkett and Company, who appeared in an artistic instrumental offering, made a popular hit. Their tuneful renditions of classic and popular melodies were rendered in an acceptable manner.

Grace and Howard, in a comedy singing skit, "The New Member," were also well received. They interspersed their offering with considerable comedy and amusing repartee and received hearty applause.

Clayton, in comedy hits in Plastic Clay, proved to be a clever manipulator and his work was appreciated. He was able to form the likeness of many notable figures.

Francis Dougherty entertained all with her humor and catchy conversation. She is a talented performer and won considerable applause.

In addition to the vaudeville there was another episode of the serial drama "Fighting Fate," which is featuring William Duncan. This programme will be repeated tonight and again on Thursday afternoon and evening.

TWO GREAT FUN MAKERS TONIGHT

Will Rogers in Rural Comedy and Buster Keaton in Golfing Farce at Imperial.

This will surely be a laughing mid-week at the Imperial for Will Rogers is to appear in the well known novel "Honest Hutch"—said to be Will's best role—and Buster Keaton, the acrobatic farceur, is slated for a two-act farce entitled "Convict 13", having to do with a fellow whose golf was so bad that they jelled him. Then the fun starts.

PERSONAL

HEINZ
OVEN BAKED BEANS
with Tomato Sauce

Fatty eats them because they taste so good. Fatty's mother gives them to him because they are so wholesome and healthful—as well as good to eat. The whole family eats them for the same reasons.

There's a lot of nutriment in beans—if they are prepared the right way. The Heinz method of real baking in dry heat ovens preserves all this natural goodness, and makes beans that delicious, healthful food that beans should be.

There never was a flavor with the zip and tang of Heinz own Tomato Sauce. Made of choice sun-ripened tomatoes, skillfully spiced and seasoned, it is blended deliciously with the rich, oven-baked bean flavor. All in the spotless Heinz kitchens, made famous as the Home of the 57 Varieties.
