

SCHEME TO REFORM NEW YORK GANGS

Six Ring Battles Fought in Biltmore Ballroom for Stillman Movement.

New York, Nov. 5.—The first bout, ladies and gentlemen, piped Joe Ruddy, of the New York Athletic Club, "is between Al Schoenfeld and Charlie Martin, the latter of Harlem. Both boys weighed in at 158 pounds. Referee, Dan Hickey of the New York Athletic Club."

Bang! A flashlight, then zip, uppercut, whallop, jab, poke, punch, tap, rap, blif, feint and then repeat—and all in the main ballroom of the Hotel Biltmore last night. Alpheus Geer, Union Club member, who writes under the name of "Marshall Stillman," interested John McE Bowman, the hotel man, in a plan to reform gangsters and halt the supply by having the lads do their fighting with their fists instead of guns.

That was some time back, and last night Mr. Bowman, having thought the matter over put a twenty-four foot ring in his Biltmore ballroom and invited about four hundred of his friends to have Mr. Geer give a practical demonstration of his scheme. Six fights in all were put on—the fastest between Bob Fitzsimmons, jr., and "Eddie" Nugent, the latter middleweight champion of the American Expeditionary Forces.

After the bouts Mr. Geer explained his movement and representatives of what were described as the "Boulevard gang" and the "Wales avenue gang" spoke. Both of these gangs are in the Bronx.

THE HIGH Y CLUB

A very interesting address upon the boy life of China, India and Japan was given by J. H. Fowler, Canadian foreign work secretary of the Y. M. C. A., at the first monthly luncheon of the High Y Club, held in the Y. M. C. A. dining hall yesterday at noon. There was a large attendance of members, with the president, Roland Rockwell, in the chair, and it was proposed that substantial help for the boys of India would be provided this year by the club members.
The club was reorganized for the 1920-1921 season on Monday last with the following officers: President, Roland

Waterbury Radiolite, $7.75

Just a Minute,
Please!

"Now that I have your kind attention, I'll slip you some second-hand information."

MINUTE and hour-hand information, too. About the Ingersoll Waterbury watch.
Of course, you've heard of the Waterbury, but maybe you don't know him intimately.
He's worth knowing—a bright, smart, stylish little watch—twelve size—jewelled to give him accuracy and smoother movement. And he costs but $7.00.

For 75 cents extra you can own Waterbury Radiolite, who tells time in the dark.

Waterbury is a watch with an expensive chronometer, along with the sturdiness and durability of the famous Ingersoll Maple Leaf.

Yet this combination of qualities costs, as I said before, only $7.00, or $7.75 for the Radiolite.

THE STORY OF JOS.
OUILLETTE, DEAD
AT AGE OF 105

The Times published the other day a news item about the death of Joseph Ouilette, at Pokok, York County, at the age of 105. The Frederickton Mail says:

Those who knew him intimately say that he was born on the Restigouche River in 1815, the year of the battle of Waterloo. Mr. Ouilette had resided in the vicinity of Pokok for more than fifty years and followed the occupation of a guide and trapper. During the winter months he frequented the lumber camps on the Pokok and Shogomoc rivers and was known to every lumberjack within a radius of twenty-five miles. As a trapper in his younger days he was very successful. He had many encounters with bears and other wild animals. He was also an expert fisherman, familiar with every pool on the Shogomoc waters.

"Mr. Ouilette, according to tradition, was born in an Acadian village on the banks of the Restigouche river. During the American war, in company with a man named Diamond, the grandfather of Mrs. Hiram Munnell of Hawkeston, he made a canoe trip from his home by way of the Restigouche and St. John rivers to Pokok, where he engaged in trapping.
Mr. Diamond afterwards located at St.
Leonard. He died seven years ago at the age of ninety-six. Talking to friends before his death, he said that he had known Ouilette since boyhood and that the latter was his senior by two years.
This would make Ouilette 105 years of age at the time of his death. Mr. Ouilette was active up to a few years ago, when he became a parish charge. He had two sons living in the west but could not be persuaded to go and reside with them.
W. E. Seery, of this city, who knew Ouilette intimately, says there is little doubt that he was past the century mark. Mr. Seery had the old guide for a companion on several fishing trips on the Pokok and says he found him a very competent and trustworthy woodsman."

PAID $25 FOR A WIFE: NOW HE WANTS IT BACK

New York, Nov. 5.—"I gave $25 for a wife and I want it back," Stanley Foreman, 37 years old, of 67 East Twenty-fifth street, Bayonne, announced to the lieutenant on desk duty in police headquarters in his home city.

"How come?" asked the lieutenant, as he started to draw his long legs from beneath the desk. "Did you get the wife?"

"Not for long," replied Foreman. "I gave John Pituski the $25, one night a year ago, and married her a week later.
Then I found that she was a widow with two children but neither she nor the children cared to remain at home with me any longer than a week at a time.
Now they've blown away again, and I want my money back from Pituski. He got me a wife but she doesn't stick to me."

"What was the woman's name before you gave her yours?" inquired the lieutenant.

"Helma Wyofsky," answered Foreman.
"Case closed," declared the lieutenant. "She only wanted to change her name."

WE SURE!
THAT THEY ARE KUM-A-PARTS

Soft Cuffs NEED this Convenient Button

THE soft cuff was designed for comfort and convenience. The Kum-a-part cuff button was created for soft cuffs—and you'll never know what you missed until you wear a pair.

The discomfort of using the old-fashioned stiff-cuff link button in soft cuffs prompted the idea for the Kum-a-part.

Now millions of men are wearing this modern, sensible cuff-button.
Not only because it snaps closed and clicks open so easily—not only because it holds securely and makes the cuff fit snugly, but also because it is a piece of fine jewelry—a cuff button for every need and occasion.

There are a multitude of Kuma-part designs wrought in different qualities—solid gold, gold-filled, sterling silver and fine enamel, a button to harmonize with every shirt.

See the wonderful range your jeweler or haberdasher is showing —from $1.00 to $30.00.

But be sure you get Kum-a-parts —the first perfected separable button. See that name is stamped on flange of every button—then you are assured of dependable interior construction and superfine quality throughout.
