LOCAL NEWS

Special patriotic series, Unique tonight.

Two Germans from the steamer Fridtjof Nansen were arrested yesterday afternoon and taken before the military authorities. They were examined and allowed to go.

IMPERIAL HOTEL

European plan, King Square. t.f.

A rumor that Wesel Brothers had refused to subscribe to the patriotic fund has been denied and is said to have arisen through the refusal of another merchant in the same locality.

only. Don't fail to inspect our stock.
Bargain counter is a revelation. Men's boots from $1.48 up.—Levine Shoe Store 8½ Brussels.

IT MUST BE WRONG

A society which is founded on the system of compelling all well-to-do people to live on making the greatest possible profits out of the labors of others must be wrong.—William Morris, lecture on "Socialism," on Sunday, at 815
p. m., in Oddfellows' Hall, 87 Union street. Abolish the wrong system.

NOTICE

The person who was seen leaving the Dog Show at the exhibition on the night of Wednesday, September 9, with a Boston terrier will save himself further trouble by returning the dog to The Telegraph office at once. Otherwise prosecution will follow.

All visitors in the city should see today's big show at the Gem Theatre.

GRAND SIGHT-SEEING TRIP

Excursion rates still continue on steamer May Queen to all points above Gagetown, including Chipman. Tickets, 75 cents and return. Meals served on board.

shoes try our sturdy $1.48, $1.85 or $2.25 shoes for the boys and girls. Wizzel's Cash Stores, 249-247 Union street.

A BIG FEATURE

You will certainly miss one of the features of the big fair if you do not take a visit to the exhibition of Enterprise Stores and Furnaces shown by Emerson & Fisher. This booth is near the entrance to the main building.

NO INCREASE ON

ACCOUNT OF WAR.

The National Drug Chemical Company gives notice that although the war has enormously increased the cost of most of the drugs and chemicals used in their preparation, there will be no increase in the prices of the popular Natru-Co Toilet Articles and Household Remedies.

Na-Dru-Co goods are "Made in Canada," by Canadians, in Canadian facories which are not closing down. The money you spend for them goes to support Canadian industry.

Patriotism, economy, both point to the best, the Na-Dru-Co Preparations, made by the National Drug & Chemical Company.
