THE LAST MILE-STONES.

BY PEARL RIVERS.

Sixty years through shine and shadowhixty years, my gentle wife, You and I have walked together Down the rugged road of life, From the hills of Spring we started. And through all the Summer land, And the fruitful Autumn country, We have journeyed hand in hand.

We have borne the heat and burden, Teiling painfully and slow, We have gathered in our harvest, With rejoicing, long ago. Leave the uplands for our children-They are strong to sow and reap, Through the quiet winter lowlands Our level way we keep.

Tis a dreary country, darling, You and I are passing through ; But the road lies straight before us, And the miles are short and few. No more dangers to encounter, No more hills to climb, true friend. Nothing now but simple walking, 'lill we reach our journey's end.

We have had our time of gladness, Twas a proud and happy day-Ah! the proudest of our journey, When we felt that we could say, Of the children God had given Looking fondly on the ten "Lovely women are daughters-Our sons are noble men!"

We have had our feme of sorrow -Our time of anxious cares, When we could not see the mile-stones Through the blindness of our tears, In the summy Summer country, Far behind us little May, And willie, too, grew weary, And we left them on the way,

Are you looking backward, mother, That you stumble in the snow? I am still your guide and staff, dear, Lean your weight upon me, so! (ur road is growing narrow; And, what is it, wife, you say? Yes, I know our eyes are dim, dear, But we have not lost the way.

Cheer thee! cheer thee! faithful-hearted Just a little way before Lies the great Eternal City Of the King that we adore. I can see the shining spires, And the King, the King, my dear. We have served him long and humbly : He will bless us, do not fear ;

Ah! the snow falls fast and heavy, How you shiver with the cold, Let me wrap the maptle closer, And my arm around you fold. We are weak, and faint and weary, And the sun low in the West, We have reached the gates, my darling, Let us tarry here and rest.
