

FAMOUS BRITISH FIGHTER DEAD

JEM MACE PASSES AWAY IN LONDON

Earned Fortunes but Last Year Was Forced to Accept Old Age Pension

(Times' Leased Wire) London, Nov. 30.—Jem Mace, the greatest exponent of the many art that England has produced, one-time world's heavyweight champion and the last link between the old and the new age of boxing, died at Harrow-on-Tyne today.

Although he had earned fortunes in the ring, the "grand old man of pugilism" died in abject poverty, his sole means of support for some months having been the old age pension allowed him by the government, which he applied for the last year, after the last penny of the several thousand pounds realized at a benefit had vanished.

Mace, who was born on April 8, 1841, took up boxing at an early age, and soon made his mark. Big and strong, he fought his way to the top of the sport, and he was the first to pull him through his battles, his style of fighting working a revolution in the methods in vogue when he began to make a name. He fought with indifferent success until 1861, when he met and defeated Sam Hurst, the "Stalybridge Infant," who then held the championship belt. One year later Mace defended his title against Tom King, whom he also defeated. In 1863, King returned to the ring, but the conqueror refused to give the conquered a return match, and Mace again claimed the belt. Unable to secure a return match, Mace gave up the championship, allowing Wormald and Marsden to fight for the title. Wormald won and was given the belt, but once more it passed to Mace by default. Wormald also being compelled to pay Mace £120 for refusing to defend it.

In 1866 Mace and Joe Goss fought for the title, but the battle went to a draw. Mace again passed up the title, and Wormald once more claimed it. As on the previous occasion, he refused to recognize challenges, and Mace again stepped into the breach, fighting F. Baldwin for the trophy. The contest also resulted in a draw, and the belt was still in abeyance.

In 1869 Mike McCoolle and Tom Allen fought for the championship of the world on an island in the Mississippi river near St. Louis. One year later Mace came to America and took the title away from Allen. The champion fought his last important fight in 1871, when he defeated his opponent. The fight was for the largest side bet on record up to that time, each man having posted £500, but the go resulted in a draw. The "Coburn" fight, which resulted in Mace's retirement from the ring, but up to a few years ago he was closely identified with the sport. Even after his 70th birthday, the old fellow appeared in exhibition bouts, and as time had been kind to him, he showed much of his old-time science and stamina. Mace lived a modest life, but he was a great favorite of the people. He died peacefully in his bed, after a long illness, at his home in Harrow-on-Tyne, which he attributed to his longevity.

PUGILIST'S DEATH
Collapses After Top Round Bout, Dies Without Regaining Consciousness.

London, Nov. 30.—James Greig, a prize fighter, is dead. Joe McHenry, another pugilist, is held by the police and several others are being examined to-day as the result of a fight between McHenry and Gerhardt here last night. After the fight, which was a 10-round bout, Greig collapsed and died from cerebral hemorrhage without regaining consciousness.

It is not believed that Greig was killed by any blow struck by McHenry, but that he entered the ring out of proper condition and was unable to stand the strain of such a long fight.

The fatality has created a sensation, and it is predicted that the fight game in Ohio probably will be stopped at the next session of the legislature.

TEA TRADE
Embargo From Japan to Develop Business With Canada.

Ottawa, Nov. 30.—Iwao Nishi, commissioner for the Japan Central Tea Producers' Association, Tokyo, Japan, has been sent to this country specially to develop the tea trade in Japan with Canada and the United States.

He says: "The tea trade with Canada and the States has been seriously reduced. Two years ago we were exporting ten million pounds, and now we do not export more than five million pounds. I have been sent out to find out why I shall report when I get back that we do not advise enough and that we must pay more attention to quality and reduce prices."

ALLEN LABOR
Montreal, Nov. 30.—Members of the city hotel and restaurant employees union met last night, drew up and adopted a resolution calling upon the minister of labor to investigate the importation of alien labor into this country, especially the influx of alien cooks and waiters. They further asked for the enforcement of the alien labor law as a protection for Canadian workmen.

RAILWAY
Washington, D. C., Nov. 30.—A committee on commerce, organized by the Senate on December 1, 1910, 2, 1911, the time for taking effect, order for a reduction of freight rates between Sacramento, Cal., and Reno, Nev., points to Nevada. The commission denied that the higher rates in the country were the highest in the country. Similar action was taken regarding rates from Ellensburg, Balfour, and Missoula River point to Buffalo, Ariz.

PREPARING TO ATTACK CITY

REVOLUTIONISTS AGAIN ACTIVE IN MEXICO

Troops Are Being Rushed to Assistance of Garrison at Chihuahua

(Times' Leased Wire)

EPISCO, Tex., Nov. 30.—The city of Chihuahua, state of Chihuahua, is being fortified today in anticipation of an attack by a small army of insurgents under the leadership of Francisco Madero, according to advice received here. The city is garrisoned with federal troops under General Navarro and General Terrazas, who have shown up with works on the side of the town toward San Andreas and Chihuahua, where the rebel forces have gained a foothold. General Landrau, commanding the Mexican army of the north, is reported hurrying to the aid of the Chihuahua garrison in response to appeals for reinforcements.

The insurgents are said to have been operating in the mountains above Parral for a number of days against Chihuahua and the state. Madero is reported to have a command of the rebel troops. They say that the revolutionists are well drilled and equipped for a desperate attack and many expressed their belief that hard fighting is already in progress.

Persons closely in touch with the Mexican revolt declare that within the next 24 hours the fall of Chihuahua will be announced. They assert that the federal troops from Ciudad Porfirio Diaz along the northern boundary and south through the states of Chihuahua, Coahuila and Durango, are being harassed by strong bands of revolutionists, and that a concerted attack upon Matamoros and Chihuahua has begun.

American and Mexican passengers on the Mexican Central, part of which is under control of the rebels, bring accounts of the movements of the insurgents which tend to confirm the predictions of the rebel sympathizers here. Among the statements made by them was the assertion that Madero had broken his camp in the mountains north of Parral and had taken the field with a force numbering 2,000 men.

Divide Federal Forces
Laredo, Texas, Nov. 30.—While a government message indicating that General Laredo Villar had determined to send reinforcements to Chihuahua, was being sent from Matamoros, it is believed here that an insurgent force either is attacking Matamoros or has captured the city.

Mexican authorities at Nuevo Laredo are endeavoring to regain communication with Matamoros. Revolutionary leaders here profess confidence in a strategic move, instigated by Madero, to attack Matamoros and Chihuahua, simultaneously, are believed to have contrived to divide the forces of General Villar.

LIVELY SCENE AT WINNIPEG INQUIRY

Alderman Adams Resents the Statements Made by Rev. Chas. H. Stewart

Winnipeg, Nov. 30.—Colin Campbell and Rev. C. W. Gordon engaged in a lively exchange of views yesterday while the former was on the stand in the inquiry into Dr. Shearer's charges. After stating that in his opinion nothing could be further from the truth than the accusation made by the police in the administration of the segregated district, the attorney-general went on to characterize Dr. Shearer's statement regarding the morality of the inquiry as the most bitterly cruel that ever went before the public. If Dr. Shearer continued the witness had stopped for a moment to consider the rights of thousands of parents in Manitoba, Canada, and Europe who have children in Winnipeg, he would have hesitated to launch his charges.

Alderman Adams shook his fist in the face of Rev. Charles H. Stewart and demanded that the latter take back an offensive statement to the effect that the name of Adams should be placed with that of "Day, Evans and Company" over every house of prostitution in the segregated area.

TWO MINERS INJURED
New York, Nov. 30.—George Gill and John Christian were victims of a gas explosion at the Rawhide mine, near Nevada, yesterday afternoon. Christian was killed and Gill was injured. The explosion occurred at 11 a. m. when it ran very close to the men but was badly checked by the effects of the hundreds.

BOMB WRECKS SALOON
New York, Nov. 29.—A bomb exploded in the doorway of Bella Trinius's saloon in the heart of the Italian settlement in Elizabeth street, early today, completely wrecking the saloon, blowing the front inward and damaging adjacent floors. The explosion hurled sleepers in the tenements above from their beds and cracked windows for blocks around.

The police reserve had a hard task in deterring the panic-stricken foreigners, who fled to the streets by the hundreds.

CONFESSES MURDER WHILE ON STAND

Witness Breaks Down During His Examination at Coroner's Inquest

(Special to the Times)
Calgary, Nov. 30.—The inquest on the remains of a man found in the Bow river near Dunbow east on June 29 last, terminated tragically yesterday at Okotoks, when Thomas Mitchell-Robertson confessed to having shot and killed Tucker Peck at the same time implicating John Fisk as an accomplice.

The body when found was headless, but the head was found a couple of weeks ago, and the body exhumed and identified. The police had been watching Robertson, who is a brakeman on the C. P. R. running between Field and Medicine Hat. Peck disappeared since last May, and Robertson claimed to have purchased his ranch. Robertson broke down while on the stand at the inquest.

The head was identified by cotton thread in the ears. The police left for Carbon last night to arrest Fisk, charged with complicity.

TAXICAB DRIVERS STRIKE
Number of Arrests Have Been Made in San Francisco

San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 30.—Although not more than 100 men are involved in the strike of the taxi-cab drivers, which was inaugurated here Monday night, already half a dozen arrests have been made, and a score of shots fired.

President Carl Dreger, of the Chauffeurs' Union, and five other union men today were admitted to bail following their arrest for alleged looting of a non-union cab.

The police are investigating a shooting in the same corner early today, in which Richard Kemp, a non-union driver, emptied his revolver in a crowd of union sympathizers who had stoned his cab, breaking his wind shield and the glass door of the body. Two women were in the vehicle at the time, it is said.

The drivers are standing pat on the demand for 20 per cent. of the cash fares and free gasoline. Three of the five companies against which the strike originally instituted, have given in.

WILL NOT INVESTIGATE
San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 29.—"I would have preferred a vindication," said Mayor P. H. McCarthy today, referring to the letter of the grand jury which refused to investigate grating charges called to the attention of the jurisdictional body by the mayor himself. "Inasmuch, however, as my request was based entirely on reports of gossip I had heard, I do not see what else can be done."

The mayor said he would make no further attempt to secure an investigation of the rumors that he reported to the grand jury.

FIGHT FOR CRIPPEN'S ESTATE
London, Nov. 30.—Seymour Williams and Co., solicitors, yesterday filed an intervention notice on behalf of unnamed persons, praying that the will of Dr. H. H. Crrippen, which bequeathed to Miss Ethel Claire Leneve all his property, be set aside. No reasons are given by the solicitors, who do not state who they represent. Crrippen's son and other relatives live in the United States.

WILL THEY USE SIDNEY LINE?

Rumor Revived That Running Rights Are Secured Over Victoria & Sidney

(Special to the Times)
Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., Nov. 30.—The worst accident this season in local marine circles occurred early this morning in the sinking of the tug Victoria & Sidney company, the present requirements of that railway. The building now being finished by the contractors, Dinsdale & Malcolm, is large and commodious, and the company has frequently been praised that a building of such dimensions would hardly be erected unless there "is something in the wind" of which the general public knows nothing at the present time.

Then, again, it is a fact that by the terms of the agreement between the government and the Canadian Northern Pacific company, the latter must give Victoria a first-class car ferry service with the mainland. Assuming that the company will take steps at an early date to carry out this part of the agreement, it is obvious that the plans of the company for railway construction on the island as at present laid down would not fit in at all with the ferry scheme. The island road runs from Esquimalt to Sooke, thence on to Alberni. No part of this road can be utilized in connection with the ferry scheme. The utilization of the Victoria & Sidney road as the link between tidewater and Sooke, would therefore appear to be imperative in any immediate scheme for a ferry service with the mainland by the Canadian Northern.

The facilities possessed by the Victoria & Sidney line at Blanchard street are such that any amount of traffic can be handled. It so happens that the Victoria yardage area out that thoroughfare, this being due to the fact that when the streets of Victoria were laid out in the first instance, there was a considerable plot of ground between Fisgard and Discovery street, which the surveyors did not know what to do with, so, with one stroke of the pen, they turned the whole thing into what is now known as Blanchard avenue.

MONK OPPOSES BORDEN
(Special to the Times)
Ottawa, Nov. 30.—Mr. Monk and his followers yesterday announced that they will vote against R. L. Borden's amendment to the address on the ground that it is incomplete, inasmuch as it refers exclusively to the permanent policy of the government, whereas Monk desires an appeal to the people on the whole question, including imperial armament in general and Canadian contribution thereto.

FLOODS IN FRANCE
Samure, France, Nov. 30.—Floods, resulting from heavy rainfall, caused the river Loire to overflow its banks today, inundating the grounds of the Royal academy and causing abandonment of the buildings. Reports indicate that the river Marne also has overflowed. The Seine is rising rapidly, according to the hydrometric station here.

TIMBER CASE IN SUPREME COURT
Dispute Over Work Done and Profit Alleged to Be Due by Plaintiff

(From Wednesday's Daily)
Mr. Justice Murphy is hearing today in the Supreme court the case of Donahue against Clark, in which the plaintiff claims $1,000 damages for services and profit in the sale of timber limits at Kyoquoat sound. The plaintiff alleges that the defendant hired him to go over the limits and agreed to pay him a percentage of profit on the sale of such limits as the plaintiff would guide him to.

The defendant claims that he hired the plaintiff at $350 per day at Kyoquoat sound, and paid him for his services and for the hire of his launch. C. J. Prior is appearing for the plaintiff, and H. B. Robertson, of Bernard and Robertson, for the defendant. The case was commenced yesterday morning and witnesses are still being heard today.

MAN ELECTROCUTED
(Special to the Times)
Windsor, Nov. 30.—Jos. Leblanc, Detroit, was instantly killed in the M. C. R. yards yesterday by fouling the third rail of the electric equipment for taking trains through a tunnel. He received a shock of 4,600 volts. His companion was thrown thirty feet, but will survive.

MUCH TALK OF THE MORALITY

MAYOR MORLEY WILL AGAIN BE CANDIDATE

All Present Aldermen Likely to Stand for Re-Election—New Men Mentioned

(From Wednesday's Daily)

Already interest is keen in the forthcoming municipal elections, and there is naturally much speculation as to the outcome of the mayoralty contest. That Mayor Morley will again offer himself as a candidate is now definitely known. It is even said by his worship's friends that he will be a permanent candidate as long as he remains a resident of Victoria.

Other prospective candidates are ex-Alderman John A. Turner, who ran the mayor very closely last election, and Ald. W. H. Langley.

While no official statements have yet been made in the matter, it is known that a majority of the members of the aldermanic board, as at present constituted, will seek re-election, but there will be some new blood—or rather old blood—in the field. A strong effort is being made to induce ex-Ald. Stewart, ex-Ald. Lewis Hall, and W. E. Mitchell to offer themselves. Both Mr. Stewart and Dr. Hall have served in a similar capacity for a number of years, and Mr. Mitchell is popularly regarded as a man who would not only make a very strong candidate but an efficient public servant. It is said also that H. A. Porter will offer himself as a candidate for alderman.

A LEADER OF EMPIRE
London, Nov. 30.—T. P. O'Connor, speaking to his constituents at Liverpool, said that not even F. E. Smith's flippancy dare say Sir Sir Wilfrid Laurier was a traitor, or that he inspired hatred in England, yet he had generously subscribed to the cause of Ireland. Of all the multitudinous noble figures of the Empire, there is no one more deserving of the title of the "Leader of the Empire" than Sir Wilfrid Laurier.

The landlords, the Clan Ricardes, had evicted the Irish tenants and driven them off hungry and fever-stricken in coffin ships on their way to Canada, where their remains still lay to the number of from 8,000 to 12,000, not in graves, but in great trenches.

DIES ON TOLSTOI'S GRAVE
Berlin, Nov. 29.—Inconsole over the death of his master, Count Leo Tolstoy's coachman was found dead today at the author's grave. The coachman, who aided the count in his final flight from his home, has been grief-stricken ever since his master's death. He was found at the grave of Tolstoy, in the cemetery at Yasnaya Polina, the faithful servant opening the veins in his wrists and bled to death.

CHURCHILL MOBBED
Disorderly Scenes Attend Visit of Home Secretary to Colchester

Colchester, Eng., Nov. 30.—Riotous scenes attended the appearance here last night of Winston Spencer Churchill, the home secretary. Thousands congregated in the streets, jeering and shouting.

Many of them gathered around Mr. Churchill's carriage, at which they threw stones, eggs and other missiles. The windows in the Liberal headquarters were smashed. A large squad of police was sent to patrol the streets.

SOLDIERS AND SAILORS MUTINY
Forces Stationed in Portuguese Dependency in Revolt Against New Republic

Hongkong, Nov. 30.—Several soldiers of the Portuguese garrison at Macao, augmented by a strong detachment of sailors, are in revolt against the new Portuguese republic, according to advices received here today.

It is reported that foreign residents are in danger from the mutineers who have rioted through the streets. The revolt started when rebellious sailors left a gunboat "at anchor" in the harbor, marched to a public square, where they fired three volleys as a signal and were immediately joined by the soldiers from the gunboat.

The combined forces then marched upon Santa Clara convent, driving out the nuns. Returning to the square, they trained cannon in the government house and presented the governor with demands for the expulsion of certain newspapers and redress of other alleged wrongs. The government quickly yielded to the demands.

ASQUITH OPPOSED TO REFERENDUM

REPLIES TO PROPOSAL OF A. J. BALFOUR

Declares Change Would upset Foundations of Representative Government

(From Tuesday's Daily)

London, Nov. 30.—Premier Asquith, speaking at Reading, said today that he would not support a referendum on the Government.

"They tell you dissolution had been dictated by John Redmond, but you may take it from me that Redmond had no more to do with dissolution than the man in the street is due to the deliberate judgment of the government to take a final decision on the electorate on the protracted controversy surrounding the veto bill," said the premier.

In regard to the referendum proposal, the premier said he objected to the submission to a casual and sporadic set of judgments by a body of an issue which would be impermanent, as such a change would upset the very foundations of representative government. It would degrade the House of Commons from the position of the greatest and most liberal executive in the world to the level of a mere debating society.

Lord Joicey, who represented Chester-Le-Street, Durham, in the Liberal interest from 1885-1905, being elected to the House of Lords by the Liberal government of the day, declares against surrendering the veto as a riotous party, and as the Socialists have captured the cabinet, just as they have captured the trade unions, he throws in his lot with thoughtful, prudent and honest men in opposing the government.

Hon. A. Birrell, speaking at North Broomfield, declared himself in favor of a second chamber, not a purely effective and impartial, not to defeat legislation, not armed with veto powers, but to interpose and give the country time to consider measures.

Hon. B. B. Halliday, speaking in east Lothian, claimed the price of food had vastly increased in protected countries and remained cheap here. The wheat crop cost twice as much in Canada and the United States as it did here. That was because we were free of rings and trusts and all the corrupting influences which arose out of protection.

Widespread violence at election rallies continued throughout England and Ireland today. Scores of meetings, the speakers and candidates broken, and in some places attacked and beaten. Followers of Redmond and Brian in Ireland clashed at every meeting scheduled.

WILL PRESENT A SPOKE BY-LAW

UNANIMOUS DECISION OF CITY COUNCIL

Ald. Langley and Sargison Charge Mayor With Insulting Leading Citizens

(From Tuesday's Daily)

By unanimous vote the city council last evening passed the following resolution, which was moved by Fullerton and seconded by Ald. B. Langley: "That a by-law be introduced, authorizing the development of the water supply of Sooke Lake and its tributaries, and to raise an amount of money sufficient to cover the estimated cost of the purchase of land and the carrying out of such of the works as can be done, including other incidental expenses within the year 1911."

The resolution followed the receipt of the following petition, signed by a large number of ratepayers: "Gentlemen: We, the undersigned ratepayers and property owners of the city of Victoria make request as follows:

"1. That a by-law should be placed before the people at the January elections for the authorization of the utilization of Sooke lake and river system and its tributaries as a source of water supply for the city of Victoria.

"2. That such by-law should provide for the raising of the amount necessary to be expended in each year, submitting successive budgets to the council at the time of the work progresses, and the amount necessary therefor ascertained.

"3. That the first by-law should provide simply for the authorization of the amount to be expended during the year 1911. The subsequent laws following in each year will give the people an opportunity of seeing that the money previously voted has been properly expended.

"Therefore your petitioners pray that this by-law may be submitted to the time of the annual elections of the year 1911.

"And your petitioners, as in due bound, will ever pray."

On the text of the petition before it was laid before the council, the mayor remarked: "We might just as well have the names."

At this suggestion there was much chorus of disapproval from the members, and no desire to hear the names read.

The Mayor—I think we ought to have the names read. The petition gentlemen are sign by some of our representative property-owners in the city—Mr. Spencer.

His worship did not read the names, but continued: "Steve John, Richard Hall and others, and I am sure that if more time had been taken many more signatures could have been obtained from the watermen, that my main reason for urging this matter forward now is this: If Sooke is to be developed, a source of water supply a three years limit to the time of the work should be fixed, and therefore would be wise to get a mandate from the people at the forthcoming municipal elections. I am quite sure that the enemies of the water supply well, enemies is hardly the proper word, opponents is better—should that the bringing forward of a by-law is premature, information, but—"

Ald. Bannerman—You need not worry your worship, we are friends of the Sooke by-law.

The Mayor—There is, in my opinion, only one businesslike way of proceeding in the matter, and that is to find out the cost of the proposed work and how best it should be done. The citizens should therefore be allowed the maximum cost of the work, and the maximum cost of the work should be fixed, and this could spread over three years. It is important to remember in this connection that even if the by-law passes, we are not to enter into a contract until we are sure that by doing so we will have the approval of the ratepayers. The by-law would, however, give council members a maximum of five years. I hope you will therefore pass the by-law, gentlemen.

Ald. Bannerman—We cannot pass your worship; we can only submit the ratespayers.

The Mayor—That is all right, citizens will, I think, agree to endorse it. They did so three years ago.
