

Miramichi and the North Shore, etc.

HAPPY NEW YEAR!

THE ADVANCE is for sale at the circulating library, Diamond building, next door to the Telephone Exchange.

OUR BROTHERS enjoyed the good going on the roads in town and country on Saturday, Sunday and Monday.

PERSONAL.—Mr. Fred Tweedie, the coming engineer, is spending the holidays in making a welcome home visit.

PERSONAL.—Mr. J. B. Stewart's employees in the home-going ring, were the recipients of Christmas gifts from him—chiefly Trays.

THE STORES.—We are requested to state that after this week, the stores will close at six o'clock on Monday and Wednesday evenings as usual.

SLAYERS.—There has been very good skating on the river for several days and advantage has been taken of it by a large number of young folks, and some old ones too.

LOVE OVERDUE.—Schooner Empress from Carleton Place, arrived on Friday morning and was immediately reloaded at 70 guineas, has again been reloaded at 70 guineas at London.

CARRIED AWAY.—There was only one ice boat on the river yesterday afternoon and it started about in the late in lively halcyon weather, but it was blown off its feet by a strong wind and was obliged to be in shape to make a harbor in one of the bays.

FRASER CORNARD, the champion skater of New Brunswick, was reported as having been seriously injured by a fall on the ice on Monday, and it was even rumored that he had died from the effects of his injuries, but there was little foundation for the story. He had a fall on Monday and was somewhat hurt, but it did not prevent him from indulging in his favorite pastime again the same day.

JOHN McCREEDY.—Mr. A. H. McCreedy of the 35th, has bought an interest in the Miramichi mill and will become its editor and manager forthwith. The St. John newspapers, referring to Mr. McCreedy's departure from this city, do not contain any intimation that he received a guarantee that the management of the Chignecto Post will devolve upon him.

THE ALBION from the genuine TONKA Smoking mixture is simply delightful. Try a tin, package or 4 lb. tin.

WORKING.—A special traveling agent, working counties of Restigouche, Gloucester, Northumberland and Kent, for a leading Canadian Life Insurance Company, using most popular and attractive policies. Liberal contract given to a competent agent.

Further particulars address "Insurance" Chatham.

WHEN you say the famous BEAVER CHEWING Tobacco, you say the word BEAVER on each pipe.

OUR LETTERS.—Any person having old letters received before 1870, can get good prices for the postage stamp thereon, by writing to J. W. Lawrence, Lock Box 5, Chatham, N. B., who will send you a good quantity of stamps as high as $12.00 each for the stamps, and pay the balance of the stamps as they are worth more than any other.

CHERRY LASSY SALS.—Three bottles of cherry lassy were sold at the corner table on 2nd street, and the competition for two of them was quite sharp. A berth on Little River, St. John's county, was won by John Young at $75 per acre, and another on Chatham river, by Handolph & Baker for $75 per acre. For sale on 2nd street at Newburg at special prices.—[Fun Herald.]

FROM THE LEBRON WORKS.—Reports to the city mill state that the weather is very poor for lumbering. In some parts of the woods along the river there is a good quantity of snow but in other parts there is hardly any. The small streams are not frozen and it is almost impossible to yard on low ground. The high spots of the small brook water can be done. (St. John Icon.)

ICE BOATS.—Six of them were sailing about on the Miramichi on Chatham on Saturday. A prominent chathamian endeavored to have a run several times, but whenever he was accompanied with a boat, the boat refused to go. At last the day was over on the ground that he was a Jonah, and was always found in the "main sea."

STEWART.—General Stewart was at the Royal to-day hearing evidence in the complaint of Messrs. C. M. Bestwick & Co of stampage overcharges. This was an adjourned meeting. The operators of the Messrs. Bestwick declare that the stampage charged by the firm was in excess of the operations by about $200. The government officers on the other hand defend the government. Mr. E. H. McLeod appeared for the Messrs. Bestwick.—[Globe.]

WHO IS HE?—The Montreal Pioneer says:—"A man from Miramichi, N. B., arrived here a few days ago for the purpose of locating in this town. His goods were sent to him by the express, and he went to the station to ascertain if they had reached here, and when informed they had, asked the freight agent if he could be sent to the station to see the goods. He heard that there was going to be a war, and had decided to return to his Miramichi home."

CARBOU.—John McKean, Esq., of Newcastle returned from a hunting trip to the Miramichi plain on Monday and brought home a caribou with him as the result of his work. Mr. J. R. Lawlor, who was with him in the woods, remained for a few days longer. Mr. McKean would have probably said over New Year's day but for the fact that he expects to have another hunt, and so no person is permitted under the law to kill more than three caribou in any one season he would have doubtless, himself out by another day's indulgence in the chase.

$1,000 MORTGAGE.—Under the heading, "Liquor for Chathamians" the Gleaser says:—"A Chatham correspondent writes: 'It is said to say that $600 worth of liquor was imported during the last week. Nearly everyone who takes a drink had a case of his own for Christmas. There is about $1,000 worth of liquor in the town for the month of January. Some of it goes to Bathurst, Campbellton and Montreal.'"

What a shocking malicious statement! Why, isn't it true that liquor has been shipped from the county by the Scott & Co. that they truly good man, Inspector McLeod said?

THE KEART HOUSE, Bathurst, is to be removed to the site of the new bridge. It has been purchased by Messrs. King, Keston, East, Co., the well-known Royal hotel place for some time past.

George Robertson moved to Bathurst some time ago and is getting the Kearsy house fitted up in first-class style. The interior is being much improved and the furniture will be entirely new. Everything will be done to make this widely known house a favorite with travellers, and the hands of experienced men like the Messrs. Robertson it will no doubt secure a goodly share of patronage.—[Sun.]

AN ATTRACTION to buyers of family groceries, provisions, dry goods and general household supplies is offered by Mr. Roger Flanagan at his well known store on St. John Street, Chatham, in the form of silver knives and forks, silver spoons, silver cruet stands and boxes of tea. His issues tickets which are presented by customers every time they make purchases, and no matter how small the amount, it is pushed off, and when the purchases aggregate either $15 or $30, as the case may be, one of the articles specified viz.—a cruet stand, or a dozen of silver knives or forks for a $30 ticket or a 5 lb. box of tea, or 1 doz. silver spoons for a $15 ticket is given free.

THE GORDON BROS.—A Christmas card has been sent to the late Mr. Gordon, a number of prominent persons in Canada. Mr. E. Sinclair of Bridgetown was the recipient of one of the other. It is in the form of a pretty Christmas card with the inscription in letters of gold:—"Will Mr. Sinclair accept the Gordon Bros. gathered from a Gordon home in Scotland in token of warmest greetings from the late Mr. Gordon?"

"ARE YOU HERE?"—The late Mr. Gordon was the recipient of the late Mr. Gordon's card with the inscription in letters of gold:—"Will Mr. Sinclair accept the Gordon Bros. gathered from a Gordon home in Scotland in token of warmest greetings from the late Mr. Gordon?"

NEW YEAR'S PRESENT.—Mr. W. B. Snowball was presented yesterday afternoon with a valuable gold-headed case by the employees connected with Mr. Snowball's counting room. It was accompanied by the following note:—"Dear Mr. Snowball:—The counting room at the business of Hon. J. B. Stewart, who has brought into almost daily contact with you, your acceptance of the accompanying New Year's gift is a token of our appreciation of the uniformly good treatment we have received from you since your appointment to the position. A friendly and considerate disposition you have always displayed towards us."

DEAR SIR.—The counting room at the business of Hon. J. B. Stewart, who has brought into almost daily contact with you, your acceptance of the accompanying New Year's gift is a token of our appreciation of the uniformly good treatment we have received from you since your appointment to the position. A friendly and considerate disposition you have always displayed towards us."

THE FORGIVING was signed by the counting room employees and read by P. H. C. Brown, the case being handed to the recipient by Mr. B. McLeod. Mr. Snowball, who was taken entirely by surprise, made a very appropriate and appreciative acknowledgment.

CHRISTMAS DAY.—The weather was delightful here on Christmas Day and everybody seemed to enter upon the enjoyment of the holiday with the usual spirit. The usual services were held in the churches. At the pro-Cathedral Festal High Mass was said at eleven o'clock, His Lordship the Bishop, being celebrant, with Rev. Father Macleay as deacon and Rev. Father Gilbert, sub-deacon. The sermon was by Rev. Father Macleay. The offertory amounted to $420. St. Michael's brass band played before and also at the close of the mass.

THE SERVICES in St. Mary's and St. Paul's churches were of the usual appropriate character and well attended. At the 11 o'clock service of the Festival on Xmas Eve the offertory said the evening service, and the next morning celebration of the Holy Eucharist at midnight on Xmas Eve. The service began at 12 o'clock with the procession with the choir, and the singing of the hymns of Christmas morning. After the celebration a solemn Te Deum was sung in honor of the Holy Redeemer. The next service was a celebration of the Holy Eucharist at 4 o'clock in St. Mary's at 11 a. m., and was proceeded by the singing of Christmas carols by the Sunday School children, and the singing of the hymns of Christmas morning. The offertory of the Holy Eucharist was sermon by the Rector. The following menu was sung:—

Menu:—R. & M. Proclamation. Venise C. 200, P. 38, Monk & Baker. Te Deum, Strophes. Benediction of the Holy Eucharist. Anthem "Break forth into Joy," C. Simper. Kyrie C. 333, Hatching. Gloria B. G., W. B. Gilbert. Grand Tuba. Hymn, O. A. M. Hymn, O. A. M. Benediction of the Holy Eucharist. Agnus Dei, Gilbert. Gloria, Gilbert.

The next service was evensong at 8 p. m. at 3 o'clock with sermon by the Rector. The usual Christmas hymns were sung. The churches were neatly decorated with evergreen. The decorations were of a much less elaborate character, than usual owing to the recent bad weather and permanent improvement of the interior of the Chapel. The altar was adorned with handsome flowers from Debbington, forrest, Fredericton. The offerings at the churches were as usual for the sick and needy.

THE CHILDREN of St. Mary's Sunday school presented the Rector with a very handsome paper lamp.

SERVICES were also held at St. Luke's Methodist church at 11 a. m.

MARRIED AT MONCTON.—In the First Baptist Church Tuesday evening the marriage of Mr. James Stewart, competitor in the Transcript office, to Mrs. Morse, widow of the late Justice Morse of Oxford, N. S., took place. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. E. W. Coey, of St. John. The bride was attended by her sisters, Miss Lizette Peck, while the groom was supported by Mr. A. J. Stevens. The newly wedded couple took the Quebec express for Chatham, where they will reside.—[Moncton Times.]

"Mr. Stewart is a young man highly respected by all who know him, and has been in the employ of the Transcript for the past three years. During that time in his responsible position as a foreman he has always acquitted himself in a manner creditable to himself and manifested his thorough qualification to perform the duties of his office competently and satisfactorily. In serving his connection with this office he takes with him the best wishes of all for his future happiness and prosperity. Since Mr. Stewart came to Moncton he has made many friends, and the high esteem in which he is held by his associates is a proof of his numerous acquaintances who are clearly evidence of the large number of goodly presents of which they were the recipients.—[Transcript.]

THE ADVANCE also extends congratulations. Mr. Stewart, he being a graduate of this office.

CHRISTMAS REMOVED.—A coat and pair of gloves of best fur were presented to Mr. Thomas Allison, engineer in charge of construction of the new Masterman Pulp Mill by the management in that work, accompanied by the address as a slight expression of that appreciation which we are pleased to have. The Quarterly Board has extended to you an invitation to return to us on the 4th of January, and the Conference will see its way clear to Mr. Haviland connected by handing a purse containing $40 in gold to Mr. Stoe, as a Christmas present, which that gentleman has accepted in very appropriate terms, although he was evidently—[Sun.]

EMERSON PHYSICIAN.—Mr. Wm. A. Ayer's Almanac, at your drugstore.

AT LOGVILLE.—The Logville Presbyterian Sunday school had a most enjoyable gathering in the Temperance hall at that place on Christmas eve. Among the prominent features were the Christmas trees, on one of which were presents for the Sunday school children and on the other gifts for others. The programme was as follows:—

1. Reading of the Christmas story, J. W. S. Baker. 2. "The Boy to the World," by the choir. 3. "The Boy to the World," by the choir. 4. "The Boy to the World," by the choir. 5.
