Poetry.

ENGLAND! THE ANCHOR OF THE WORLD.

Oh, England! glorious England! the anchor of the world!
Amid the crash of shatter'd thrones, of realms to ruins hurl'd,
Firm in the loyal chivalry, unto thyself be true,
Serene and tranquil in thy might—to succour or subdue,
And nations round shall honour thee, where'er thy flag's unfurl'd,
The refuge and the aid of peace—the anchor of the world!

Our homes, our altars, and our Queen—oh, hallowed words and dear!
And well-beloved by British hearts! to every British ear,
There shall be music in the sound, as swelleth to the sky,
Our isle's triumphant watch-word! TRUE FREEDOM'S gathering cry!
Heard wheresoever bark can sail, or ocean's waves be curl'd,
The faith of loyal England! the anchor of the world!

Oh, England! glorious England! my own beloved land!
Still shalt thou reign the ocean Queen, the olive in thine hand!
The dove that 'mid the tempest scath can yet unsullied bear
Peace to the gather'd nations—thyself serene and fair,
If firm thy loyal children guard thy lion flag unfurl'd,
The bulwark of Britannia's might—the anchor of the world!

TRIUMPHANT SUCCESS OF
Buchan's Hungarian Balsam of Life,
THE GREAT ENGLISH REMEDY FOR
Colds, Coughs, Asthma, and Consumption.

THE most celebrated and infallible remedy for Colds, Coughs, Asthma, and every form of Pulmonary Consumption, is the HUNGARIAN BALSAM OF LIFE, discovered by that eminent medical chemist Dr. Buchan, of London, England, and extensively known as the 'Great English Remedy.
It has been tested for upwards of seven years in Great Britain and on the continent of Europe, where it is universally considered the great and only remedy for this awful malady, and is now introduced to the public under the immediate superintendence of the inventor. Within three years it has been distributed from Maine to Florida, and from Canada to Wisconsin, and its effects are every where alike ASTONISHING AND TRIUMPHANT.
As a preventive medicine, and an antidote to the consumptive tendencies of the climate, it is invaluable. As a remedy for severe and obstinate coughs Inflammation of the Lungs, croup, &c it is unrivaled. But the Proprietoris so confident of the merit of this great remedy, in the worst forms of consumption, that he prefers to have it used by the DYING INVALID, rather than by persons afflicted with some simple and less dangerous disorder of the throat and lungs:—this may seem strong language, but it is the result of experience in thousands of cases, sustained by the most intelligent and unimpeachable testimony. It is not pronounced an infallible remedy in all cases, but it is THE MOST INFALLIBLE remedy known to the civilized world. It is the best preventive of hereditary consumption—it is the best defender against the influences of climate—it is the best remedy for incipient consumption—and it is the great and only remedy for that fearful softening of the lungs—inflammation of the membrane, and tuberculous decay, which are the last effects of that dreadful scourge, and which are erroneously supposed to be beyond the reach of medical aid:—the agent or proprietors of other medicines dare not claim for their preparations a power like this: they know that in no case have such effects been produced:—the grand object and purpose of the common 'remedies' is simply to give relief—not to cure: this is easily done by an intelligent Physician or Druggist; but while dallying with these delusive compounds, the patient rapidly declines, and every day places him farther and farther beyond the reach of hope.
Such is not the case with the Hungarian Balsam. It is always salutary in its effects—never injurious. It is not an opiate—it is not a tonic—it is not a mere expectorant. It is not intended to lull the invalid into a fatal security. It is a great remedy—a grand healing and curative compound: the great and only remedy which medical science and skill has yet produced for the treatment of this hitherto unconquerable malady. It is in fact the best remedy in the world!
[From the John Bull, newspaper, London.
There is certainly some mysterious and occult virtue in the famous "Hungarian Balsam of Life which the medical faculty are unable to discover or Dr. Buchan would not be permitted for so many years to enjoy the magnificent monopoly of the treatment and cure of
