Continued from page 1.

The hottest of the fight is raging today and the greatest and most strenuous efforts are being put forth so that no chances may be taken. How annoying, how terribly disappointing it will be to discover that one has lost by a thousand votes, when just one more subscriber would have helped to win out.

Don't try to just win.

Don't try to just win.

Make your election sure.

How great the joy of those who win to wake up on Sunday morning with the thought that a charming vacation full of interest and pleasure vawits. Then it will be for The Standard to plan and hustle for you. Then and hustle for you. Then twill be for The Standard to plan and hustle for you. Then and hustle for you. Then twill be entire entire rest and satisfaction for the winners. No thought of arrangements to make; no thought of where to eat; where to go; no depating which hotel to stay at or which tain or boat to go by. All that is up of The Standard, including all the expenses. What more delightful prospect? Nothing to do for two and a sect? Nothing to do for two and a sect.
