

Society has been very quiet this week, but with the coming of June, the month of brides, we hear of many weddings which have been, and are to be, Monday being the King's birthday and a public holiday, and today being the first half holiday in the business houses, private outings and week-end trips had been planned by many. The closings of Mount Allison University and Acadia College, Wolfville, which took place this week were largely attended and thoroughly enjoyed. The exercises were of a very high order and the music this year particularly fine. There were a great many graduates to whom we extend our congratulations. The fortunate winners of the Rhodes scholarship were: At Mount Allison, Mr. Frank Norton Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Smith, of this city, who also carried off many other honors; and at Acadia College, Wolfville, N. B. Mr. Reid also won the Governor General's medal. Mr. Smith and Mr. Reid will begin their three years' course at Oxford in September.

The marriage of Miss Ellie Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Morton Smith, to Mr. Horace Gladstone Black, son of the late Dr. Black, takes place in the Presbyterian church this afternoon at five o'clock.

A wedding of unusual interest was

Only Trimming an Uncurled Ostrich Feather

Singlehens are the cry of millinery this season. If your hat has a simple cockade, wing or plume that is sufficient trimming. A beautiful hat for a young woman is of pink chip with a pearl gray feather.

The form of the hat is a semi-owl brought high on the right side of the plume is placed. The chip is of a rose pink and the feather is touched with this color at the ends.

St. John's (Stone) church on Tuesday afternoon when Miss Myra H. Prink, daughter of his Worship Mayor Prink and Mrs. James H. Prink, was united in marriage to Mr. William D. Foster of the firm of Messrs. Machum & Foster. The ceremony was performed by the rector, Rev. Gustav A. Kuhn. The bride wore a very becoming blue tulle or made costume with hat to match was unattended. Mr. Harold Ellis, brother of the groom, was best man. Relatives of the contracting parties were present. Mr. and Mrs. Foster left on the evening train for a trip to Boston and New York, and on their return will summer at Duck Cove.

Mr. and Mrs. Foster have many friends in St. John who wish them every happiness, as they are both very popular.

Mr. and Mrs. Rupert Rive and Miss Alcock have returned from Montreal.

The play "Men and Women," given by amateur actors under the auspices of the Irish Literary and Benevolent Society, on Monday and Tuesday evenings in the Opera House was a great success, and fully deserved the appreciation shown by the large and enthusiastic audience which greeted the excellent work done by the actors and actresses during each act. The specialties between the acts were very catchy and thoroughly enjoyed.

A very pretty wedding took place at Yarmouth in the Presbyterian church on Wednesday morning, when Miss Blanche Olive Rankin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Rankin, formerly of St. John, was united in marriage by the Rev. Dr. A. M. Hill, to Mr. Guy D. Burdill, son of Mrs. James Burdill of Yarmouth. The church had been beautifully decorated with apple blossoms and palms by the young ladies of the church for the occasion. The bride looked charming in a stylish tailor-made costume of tan broadcloth with large hat to match trimmed with touches of pink and carried a shower bouquet of bride roses and lily of the valley. She was attended by little Miss Jean Ross who was daintily gowned in pale blue silk and carried a basket of pink sweet peas. The bride's mother, Mrs. Rankin, wore a very handsome grey costume with grey toque trimmed with pink roses. The groom's mother, Mrs. Burdill, wore a rich imported gown of brown with very stylish brown hat. After the ceremony the guests repaired to the home of the bride, Prince street, where a sumptuous breakfast was partaken. The bride's going-away gown was a grey tailor-made suit with trimmings of green and black and green hat. Mr. and Mrs. Burdill arrived in St. John by the steamer Rupert on Wednesday and left on Thursday for Montreal and will visit Toronto and Quebec. On their return they will reside in Yarmouth. The bride and groom, who are very popular, received many handsome gifts in silver, cut glass, china and substantial checks.

day, when Miss Alden Irene Hendry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Hendry of Vancouver became the bride of Mr. Eric W. Hamner, Manager of the London branch of the Dominion Bank of Canada. The wedding was very quiet only a few intimate friends being present. The bridemaid was Miss Elizabeth Thackeray of Berlin, Germany, while Mr. Stephen L. Jones was best man. The Rev. Archibald Fleming, D. D., officiated. Mrs. Hendry, the bride's mother, is the daughter of Mr. Hendry the bride's mother. The bride and groom left for Montreal on Wednesday. They will sail on the Tunisian for England.

Mr. and Mrs. Simeon Jones and family will spend the summer months at the Kennedy House, Rothsay.

A meeting was held by a committee of the ladies at the Golf Club on Wednesday and it was arranged to have the Thursday afternoon teas once a month instead of once a week as in previous years. The ladies in charge of the first tea, next Thursday afternoon, will be Mrs. Fred E. Sayre, Mrs. Simeon Jones and Mrs. James U. Thomas.

A most delightful dinner was that at the L. M. Club on Monday evening. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Schofield, Mr. and Mrs. Harold C. Schofield, Mr. and Mrs. Simeon Jones, Mrs. James L. McAvity, Mr. J. B. Gullis, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Schofield, Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Starr and Mr. and Mrs. Fred B. Schofield.

The St. John Tennis Club will have its formal opening this afternoon. Tea will be served at five o'clock by Mrs. Perry W. Thomson. The courts are in splendid condition and everything points to a very successful season. A great deal of credit is due to the ladies' secretary, Miss Mackenzie, and the gentlemen's secretary, Mr. Dick Barnes, for the splendid management of the club.

Mr. Arthur Thorne entertained the 24th of May Club at his beautiful camp Masada which is looking at its best at this time of year. This is the 54th anniversary of the club, its first meeting having taken place in 1858. Major Arnold was elected president for the coming year. Major Arnold, Mr. Heber Arnold, Chief Justice Barker, Mr. Joseph H. Stott, Mr. C. G. Peters and Mr. Henry Thorne were the members who enjoyed the holiday.

The engagement is announced in Fredericton of Mr. Guy Fitz-Randolph and Miss Kathleen Balloch.

Mrs. Eason and son Jack have arrived at their home in Winnipeg after having spent a very enjoyable week in Toronto.

On Tuesday night a very enjoyable dinner was held at the Pokok Club. The table was decorated with cherry blossoms and presented a very spring-like appearance. Miss McMillan, Miss Mackenzie, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Schofield, Miss Katie Hazen, Miss Frances Hatch, Mr. McMillan, Mr. Fred Fraser, Mr. Thomas, Mr. Hugh Mackay, Mr. C. F. Inches, Mr. Colin Mackay and Mr. Malcolm McAvity.

Old Dutch Cleanser

will clean Pots & Pans Perfectly

Do away with the old-fashioned, arm-tiring method of scraping. Old Dutch Cleanser saves you both labor and time. The fine particles will immediately loosen and remove the grease and the hardest "burnt-in" crusts which soap, sand powder and scouring brick only imperfectly wear off after long, hard scraping. An "all-round" cleanser for every part of the "non-oxidizing" house. Specially hygienic.

Avoids Caustics and Acids

Many other cleansers are made of caustic soda and other dangerous chemicals. Old Dutch Cleanser is made of pure, non-toxic ingredients.

Old Dutch Cleanser is sold by all leading druggists and grocers.

ENJOYING THE BEST OF HEALTH

"Fruit-a-tives" Cured Rheumatism

Prof. J. F. Davis, 563 Church St., Toronto. I want to say to the people of Ontario and elsewhere that "Fruit-a-tives" is my only medicine and has been for the last four years. From that time I had been very much troubled with Rheumatism and Kidney disease and had taken many remedies as well as employing hot applications of salt bags etc., without getting any satisfactory results.

Noticing the advertisement for "Fruit-a-tives" I adopted this remedy altogether and, as everyone knows, since taking "Fruit-a-tives" have been enjoying the very best of health and find it a pleasure to my vocation of Dancing and Dramatic Instruction.

Prof. J. F. Davis, 563 Church St., Toronto. I am quite frank in stating "Fruit-a-tives" alone cured my Rheumatism and Kidney Trouble. 50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial 25c. At all dealers or sent on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Toronto.

ternoon will become the bride. Horace Black, Mrs. Smith's son, her guests in a very handsome gown and was assisted by the groom, Miss Smith, who wore an exquisite imported lace gown. The color scheme was artistic and effective, being carried out in the drawing room in yellow and white spring flowers. Each was presented with a daintily up yellow and white parcel which contained a pair of white gloves. The prospective bride. A prize given for the nearest sewing finished. During the guests' adjournment to the dining room a light luncheon was served. The bride and groom were remembered greeted them—Miss Cupid's bower, the mantles banked with white sweet peas; the daintily appointed table with its choice linen clothed round and from the chandeliers festooned white tulle with bouquets of lily of the valley. The centre was a handsome basket filled with flowers, while from the chandelier a string of red descended to the basket of roses. The bride-to-be, was decorated with a huge bow of wide satin ribbon. Ices were served heart shaped cups, while on the table were cups of sitting. A handsome cake decorated with flowers was placed in front of the table, who had cut it and passed her friends. All the confections decorated, suggestive of the festive season. Mrs. Robert Murray, presided over this pretty table, gowned in a very handsome costume of white voile embroidered with white beads and was assisted by Miss Beth Smith, who was charming in yellow voile over yellow with large black and white trimmings. Among the guests were: Robert Travis, Miss Audrey Bay, Miss Gladys Bullock, Mrs. P. L. Smith, Miss Ruth, Miss Helen Church, Miss Mabel Bar-

Throat Becomes Diseased From Neglecting Cold

Then Catarrh Sets In, Mucous Discharge, Coughing, Hoarseness and Debility Follow.

That the best method of curing catarrh of the throat is by using Catarrhine is infinitely superior to any other medicine, tablets, sprays, emulsions, which for the most part are of no practical value except as the cough for the time being.

Often liquid cough remedies contain opium, morphine and cocaine. Catarrhine you take—just as you employ Nature's way—just as Catarrhine's soothing healing power and relief and cure follow promptly.

Weak Throat, Racking Cough, Croup, For five years I suffered from catarrh of the throat. I was kept my throat in a raw condition from one year's end to another. I was unable to sleep at night. I had a bad attack, and in the morning before each breakfast I suffered from a dry, hacking cough. I was sometimes I found it difficult to make myself understood. Catarrhine seemed to soothe and heal the first day. It cured me, and I wouldn't think of being without Catarrhine inhaier—it means life to me.

The above experience is related by Mr. Alexander P. Savary of Hamilton, Pa., and proves the effectiveness of Catarrhine, which will cure a cough, cold, bronchitis or catarrh of the throat. The dollar size of Catarrhine contains two months' treatment and is guaranteed. Smaller size 50c., and 25c. All dealers, or The Catarrhine Company, Buffalo, N.Y., and London, Canada.
