Crop Agents Say

Rain Is Needed

Hail and Grasshoppers Mentioned in Western Reports Received by the C. N. R.

Toronto, July 7.—The crop report received by Canadian National Railways here this morning, from the West, covering the week ending July 2, is, generally speaking, an optimistic one, although it reflects the effect of the intense heat and lack of rain over wide areas before that date. A total of 221 agents reported and of those 71 recorded the weather as favorable, and 118 reported a need of rain.

 Agents to the number of 64 showed that recent rains has saved the situation as far as serious damage was concerned in their district.

Hail and 'Hoppers.
 Slight damage from drought is indicated by ten agents, while considerable damage is reported by four. Hail

Diamond Merchant

Robbed On Train

Bag of Gems Valued at $175,- 000 Was Taken from Under Seat.

New York, July 7.—Joseph Haskell, a diamond merchant at 85 Malden Lane, reported to detectives at the West 304th street police station late last night that he had been robbed of diamonds worth $175,000 some time after they had been stowed under the seat of a Pullman car attached to a Pennsylvania train which left here for Pittsburgh at 7:10 last night.
 Haskell told Detective Ford he did not miss the most gems until the train had left Trenton. He then decided to go on to Philadelphia, he said, but when he reported his loss at police headquarters he was advised to go back to New York.

He returned to this city, but announced his intention of returning to Trenton on the morning of the 7th morning in order to enlist the aid of the police there in the hunt for the gems.

Haskell told the detectives he handed a suit case and a small hand-bag containing the loose stones to a Pullman porter who stowed all the bags under his seat. Haskell saw the bags disposed of and stood in the Pennsylvania station smoking alongside the train until it started. When he took his seat he did not look for the diamonds.

After riding an hour or so he went to the club car for a smoke, remained there until the train had pulled out of the Trenton station, and then went back to the car, asking the porter to make up the berth and give him the small bag for safe keeping meanwhile.

The porter's search was vain, Haskelle said, and he then first became aware of his loss. He suspected he had been robbed at Trenton, but made no effort to have the train stopped.
 When Ford asked Haskell for a list of the stones, he said he would have to go to his office to compile it as he had none with him. The stones, he said, were insured for about $0 per cent of their value. Haskell gave his home address as the Hotel Continental.

is mentioned by ten, grasshoppers by 6, cut work by one, and damage from rain by one. Since July 2, considerable rain has fallen over wide areas in the West, and it is likely that a great deal of the danger of damage from drought has been removed accordingly.

BEAR HUNTERS

CAPTURED SIX
 BIG GRIZZLIES

Two Men Killed Ten Bears in Six Weeks' Hunting in British Columbia.

THRILLING EPISODES
 MARKED THE TRIP

Hunter Twice Rushed by Infuriated Animals While Taking Their Photographs.

Vancouver, July 7.—Returning to Kamloops after six weeks of thrilling adventures in the rugged country of the Big Bend, on the Columbia river, J. W. French and Leo Tennie, the latter a full-blooded Shuswap Indian, brought back the skins of ten bears—six grizzlies, two cinnamon and two blacks. Each of the hunters got his bag limit of three grizzlies, all of which were fine specimens, three measuring over eight feet in length.

Saw Six at Once.
 On one occasion the hunters sighted six grizzlies on one side, this being the largest group of bears ever seen in that part of British Columbia. At that time the limit bag was within one of being complete, so no effort was made to disturb the bears. The sixth bear was shot next day.

Included among the thrilling episodes of the trip were two narrow escapes on the part of French, who was attempting to take some close-up photographs of wounded animals. One large bear, which was thought to be in its dying throes, suddenly turned on the photographer, and was only halted in the nick of time by a bullet from Tennie's rifle. The second escape occurred when French was alone, an infuriated animal making an unexpected rush up a steep slope.
 The hunter dropped his camera and ran for his life, some distance away.
 He had not been long when he returned to find the bear had reached it had not the bear missed his foothold and rolled into soft snow. Before the animal could arise, French had a bead on him, and all was over.

River Perils Great.
 Perils of the river were just as great as those of the wild animals.
 After having successfully negotiated the Surprise and Twenty-Six Mile Rapids—noted as among the worst on the American continent—the hunters encountered difficulties at the head of Death Rapids, then at its highest water, the rapids being a raging torrent, rising in the centre of the stream in a solid ridge fully 20 feet high. Here the hunters lost all provisions, narrowly escaping with their lives, just managing to scramble on the rocks. With great difficulty they built a raft together with bits of sacking and some willow ropes. Later they found some wire and a few spikes in an abandoned trapper's cabin. With this they strengthened their rude craft and continued their journey to the Revelstoke Canyon, tramping the last five miles into Revelstoke.

GIRL DRAWS
 THROG WITH
 PISTOL SHOTS

Creates Excitement by Firing Weapon in Street at Broadway and 66th Street.

FINALLY LANDS
 IN PRISON CELL

Sailor Companions Attack
 Policeman Who Stops 4th of July Celebration.

New York, July 6.—Things were not very lively Monday night at Broadway and Sixty-sixth street until Miss Ethel Miller, of 61 West Seventy-first street came along with two sailors, but they were lively once after she got there. The first thing she did when she reached the corner was to pull a .22 calibre single shot large pistol from her pocket, load it with a blank cartridge and pull the trigger.
 To the scores sitting on the benches that surround Lincoln Square the report sounded like the explosion of a cannon. Several of them began to run. The girl fired a second and a third time, and several hundred persons began running up and down Broadway and through the cross streets, shouting for the police and yelling "murder."

Was Firing Blanks.
 Miss Miller and her sailors went through Sixty-sixth street with the sailors loading the pistol with blank cartridges and the girl shooting them while behind them marched a curious throng, not exactly hoping she would kill some one, but nevertheless determined to be in at the death if she did.
 No one but the girl and the sailors knew that she was shooting blanks.

Meanwhile back in Lincoln Square Patrolman Herbert Meyers of the West Sixty-eighth street station was told that a girl was going through Sixty-sixth street with a revolver in each hand and a machine gun, trying to kill everybody in sight. Patrolman Meyers ran toward Central Park West and just as he reached that thoroughfare Miss Miller fired again into the air. The patrolman tried to grab her, but the two sailors attacked him, but were quickly subdued.

Run In By Police.
 Then the girl tried to fight the policeman, but was led to the West Sixty-eighth street station, where she was charged with disorderly conduct and with shooting firearms in public places. The girl said she was merely celebrating the Fourth and meant no harm. She will be arraigned before a Magistrate this morning.

Weddings

Farrar-Dow.

A pretty wedding was solemnized on Wednesday, June 8th, at 3 p. m., at Christ Church, Campbellton, when Raymond John, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Farrar of Kodgewick, was united in marriage to Sarah Lybia, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
 Joseph Dow of this town. The Rev.
 Mr. Harrington officiated.

The bride, who entered the church on the arm of her father, to the strains of the wedding march, looked charming in a gown of ivory silk with georgette and silver trimmings with veil and orange blossoms, and carried an arm bouquet of roses, carnations, sweet peas and maiden hair-fern, and was attended by Marion Christina, sister of the groom, who was becomingly gowned in white tulle and wore a large picture hat of pink organdie trimmed with pink and mauve roses and carried a bouquet of pink and mauve sweet peas.

The groom was supported by Mr.
 Leslie Dow, brother of the bride.
 After the ceremony the bride and groom, accompanied by their guests, motored to the home of the groom's sister, Mrs. David Ferguson of Flat-lands, where a short reception was held, after which a dainty luncheon was served to about forty guests.

The young couple left on the Limited for a trip to Upper Canadian cities.
 The bride's going-away costume was of navy blue velour with hat to match.
 The gifts were numerous and valuable, including a beautiful cut glass salad bowl from the Christ Church choir, of which the bride was a member. The groom's present to the bride was a beautiful pendant set with pearls.

In the future Mr. and Mrs. Farrar will reside in Campbellton. Their many friends unite in wishing them a happy and prosperous wedded life.

IN THE EDITOR'S MAIL

To the Editor of The Standard.
 Sir,—Kindly allow me a brief space in your popular daily to make a few remarks upon the article in the issue of July 2 headed, "St. Andrews by the Sea Booming." Your reporter seems to have been misinformed on some points, particularly in regard to the last paragraph, wherein he states that "Mr. Everett was an enthusiastic worker in connection with the electric lighting of the town." This is not so.
 He is the highest respect for Mr.
 Everett, who is always a worker in the interests of St. Andrews, but neither influentially or financially. was he in any way responsible for this enterprise, which was taken up and put through by three of the younger citizens of the town, and to whom credit is due.
 The citizens as a whole are showing their appreciation in no uncertain manner.
 There were other projects which were not mentioned, amongst which is the new bakery, which can compare with any of its kind in the east.
 Watch St. Andrews.
 Thanking you, Mr. Editor,
 "CREDIT TO WHOM CREDIT IS DUE."
