by more than 500 boys and girls. Ten Mr. Collingwood Schreiber returned yes terday morning from a visit of inspection to the works on the Trent, Welland and was devoted to prizes. The new practice of having a special plot on the farm for the growing of seed grain, from seed systematically bred by the selection of seed from the most vigorous and productive plants in each year's crop, bids fair to become a permanent and most valuable feature of Canadian farming. A further organization of means and agencies for advancing that movement is "the next big thing" on his programme.

D'Arcy Scott has received word that John Dillon, the Irish leader, will be unable to speak in Ottawa on December 3, as arranged, but that his place will be taken by Joseph Devlin, M. P., of Belfast. Edward Blake will also speak Mr. Scott states that Mr. Devlin is one of the rising young men in the Nationalist party and, although in the house of commons only about a year, shows more than ordinary ability. He was one of those who accompanied William Redmond through the United States when the United Irish League was started there.

The body of "Jimmy" Irvine was found floating in the Rideau canal near Maria street bridge today. Deceased, who was 65 years of age, was looked upon as a tramp. which a luncheon was served. merce was devoted almost entirely to the matter of Canadian reciprocity.

Board of Trade respectfully petition the President and Congress of the United States and British joint high commission (or by such other methods as may be deemed expedient) to prepare an agree-ment between the United States and Canada, on the basis of equitable concessions and a reciprocal trade, which may be brought before congress for its approval at The following was introduced and relieve that the pending reciprocity treaty between the United States and Newfoundland would be of great value to the country and especially to our own state. We urge our senators to secure the ratification of Canada, which is the largest customer per capita which this country has. The said trade would be greatly increased if some Canada, which is the largest customer equitable reciprocity treaty could be entered into, and will certainly be greatly Eastern Harbor (C. B.) He came here last week with two of his brothers on the way home from Gloucester, where he had been fishing for some years. They bought the schooner Wyman, of this place, in-tending to use it in fishing at home and were to sail next day. In the early evening Captain Lefort started to go ashore, leaving his brothers aboard.

They heard him cry out and rushed on the wharf just in time to see him sink the wharf just in time to see him sink in the dock. They gave the alarm and a number of men grappled for the body until midnight without success.

Search was resumed next morning and the body found in shallow water under the wharf. An inquest was held before Doctor Brown, coroner, and a verdict returned in accordance with the facts. De-
