

Brother W. S. Macdonald gave notice that at next communication of Grand Lodge he would bring forward a form for a good standing certificate.

The M. W. Grand Master stated his willingness to deliver a course of Lectures on Masonic History, for the benefit of the Library and Reading Room.

On motion of Brother W. S. Macdonald, it was

Resolved, that the Masters of the City Lodges be a Committee to make necessary arrangements for the same.

There being no further business, the Most Worshipful Grand Master, after the usual ceremonies, declared the Grand Lodge of Nova Scotia closed in AMPLE FORM.

CHAS. J. MACDONALD,
Grand Secretary.
