

ANOTHER RAILWAY HORROR.

Fourteen Bodies Already Recovered from the Burning Wreck—Story of an Eye-Witness.

CHICAGO, Oct. 11.—A special from Hammond, Ind., says:—The passenger train east bound on the Chicago & Atlantic railway, broke down near Koutz, on Oct. 10, 1887, and the engine started back, leaving the train, and stopped for water at St. Louis, Mo. The engine got on the centre and could not get back to the train. A stock train following, running on special time, crashed into the express, telescoping the sleeper and taking from the wreck. A doctor from Huntington, Ind., is the only passenger identified. The rest are burned beyond recognition. Twenty-five or thirty are wounded. The engineer and fireman of the stock train were badly hurt and are not expected to live.

A SURVIVOR'S STORY. W. A. Duncan, of Syracuse, N.Y., has arrived from the scene of the railroad accident. He saw the wreck. Eighteen or twenty is the number at which he places those known to have been killed. A number of these were burned beyond recognition before his eyes. A little German boy, about five years old, but not reached by the fire, and saw his father, mother and two sisters slowly roasting before his eyes. He was dying as Mr. Duncan left. There was a doctor on the train, Mr. Duncan says, who lost his wife and daughter in the burning wreck. Life could do absolutely nothing for them, and saw them encircled by seething tongues of fire.

WILFUL MURDER.

THE CORONER'S VERDICT AGAINST THE COWARDLY POLICE AT MITCHELLSTOWN.

The Inspector, Three Sergeants and Two Constables to be Arrested—Verdict of Murder Against a Land Agent—Poor Chamberlain's Fears for His Eldest Friends—Invited to Toronto.

LONDON, Oct. 12.—At the inquest in the Mitchellstown shooting case today attention was drawn to the fact that the policemen charged with the shooting had been removed from the district on the eve of the jury's verdict. The Police Inspector said the men had been removed because their duties in the place had ceased, but they would return if necessary. The Crown declared that the removal of the police was illegal, improper and unconstitutional. After all the evidence had been submitted, Mr. Harrington asked that a verdict of wilful murder be returned against Head Constable Browning and the five policemen who fired under his general order. Mr. Harrington accused Constable Browning of deliberately planning the murder. The jury rendered a verdict of murder against Inspector Browning, Sergeants Kerman, Ryder and Brennan, and Constables Gavan and Doran. The coroner has issued his warrant for the arrest of the men found guilty.

ANOTHER VERDICT OF MURDER. DUBLIN, Oct. 12.—The inquest in the case of John Kennedy, the old man who was shot and killed by emergency men on the estate of Mr. Brooke, at Coolralry, county of Wexford, on September 28th, has resulted in a verdict of murder against Captain Hamilton, the agent of the estate, and the men and bailiffs who were engaged in the affair.

CHAMBERLAIN AT BELFAST. BELFAST, Oct. 12.—Mr. Chamberlain addressed an audience of 4,500 persons in Ulster hall to-night. He said he knew the condition of the poor tenants of Donegal. It was a subject of earnest thought, and he hoped that before he left Ulster he would find a solution of the question. He would not tell them that the Government and the laws were perfect, but they had a Parliament which could deal with all claims and remedy all defects. There were two Ireland. One was under the leadership of agitators who profited by her distress. The other was the Ireland of the people, who were also free, and he did not intend to submit Ulster to a Dublin Parliament. The Irish were now absolutely masterful in America, especially in New York, the Government of which was called Irish. A Parliament in Dublin would simply be a Dublin Tammany hall.

INVITED TO TORONTO. TORONTO, Oct. 12.—At a meeting to-night of the local branch of the Irish National League a committee was appointed to telegraph Arthur O'Connor, M.P., and Sir Thomas Graham Russell, M.P., to visit Toronto. The treasurer was instructed to send $200 to the treasurer of the American League.

CROOKED ACCOUNTS. THE DIRECTORS OF THE ONTARIO INVESTMENT ASSOCIATION DECEIVED BY BASCALS. LONDON, Ont., Oct. 11.—At the general meeting of the shareholders of the Ontario Investment Association this afternoon, Mr. Jewell, auditor, presented his report. It showed the assets to be $1,935,213 and the liabilities $1,816,705, leaving a balance estimate of $118,508. With payment due of stock, etc., not counted in the above, the surplus would amount to $28,000. The report showed that parties interested had secured loans on their stock of about $850,000, $760,000 of which had been running since 1882. These loans were in some cases advanced on an estimated premium of 30 per cent. Mr. Jewell reported that the board of directors had been systematically deceived by false reports and cooked accounts. In one case $107,000 advanced on stock was transferred to loans on mortgage. The losses on loans on Manitoba property amounted to $110,000, not counting $19,000 interest which had accrued. The report stated that $50,000 had been checked out to Cronyn and Greenless to pay on loans, and that such money had not been paid. Besides this amount, Cronyn got the association to advance $75,713.77, which was only partially secured. Charles Murray, the late manager, owed the association altogether $116,373, which was only partially secured. Mr. Jewell has been unable to go fully into all Taylor's transactions, but found that he was connected in one way or another with $350,000 drawn from the association. The report concluded that such a course of deception could not have been pursued without collusion on the part of others, and there was no doubt but such collusion certainly existed. On the conclusion of the report, Mr. Fitzgerald said the Ontario Loan and Debenture Association would take over the assets and liabilities of the company, provided the guarantee of $150,000 was given, and that unless this was done the English and Scotch debenture holders would refuse to allow their debentures to run any longer.

WITHOUT EQUAL. Wilson Montrose, of Vienna, Ont., having us'd Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry in his family for summer complaints, says, "I cannot speak too highly of it, for children as well as aged people troubled with diarrhoea it has no equal."

THE DOCTOR'S STORY. About the only person about and willing to talk of the details of the horror was Dr. W. C. McKee. The doctor had promptly responded in the dead of night to a call that he takes a mile and goes to the wreck, the train being five miles from his house. Dr. McKee rendered good service. He had spent time to give his experience in detail, but stated that to the best of his knowledge it would not be oversteering the facts to say that the collision had cost the lives

GEN. BOULANGER UNDER ARREST.

HOW THE CROSS OF THE LEGION OF HONOR WAS OBTAINED.

NEW YORK, Oct. 14.—The Herald's Paris correspondent says that the "Independent" published the following account of the "History of the Crime": General Boulanger is relieved of his command and placed under arrest. Gen. Daoust Dancourt, military governor of Lyons, has replaced him. Gen. Boulanger assumes the full responsibility of the words imputed to him. Gen. Boulanger seems to be more deeply implicated in the Legion of Honor scandal as the hours roll by. The belief steadily gains ground that Wilson, President Grevy's son-in-law, is guilty after all. It is said that when persons seeking the decoration of Legion of Honor were presented to him by Mad. Limousin, Kreitmayer & Co., he would send them for a looking glass, protesting that the thing was impossible and beneath the dignity of the Republic, but, in reality, would breathe on the mirror, and afterward trace with his little finger on the clouded surface the figures, say 20,000, 40,000, etc., thereby indicating the price for which the cross could be obtained without writing or speaking. The condensed breath vanishing a few moments later effaced all trace of the transaction. A few days afterward the applicant would send his envelope full of bank notes, equal to the figures traced on the magic mirror, and duly receive in return the parchment and box containing the coveted cross.

PARIS, Oct. 14.—The order relieving Gen. Boulanger from his command and placing him under arrest direct that he be "placed under arrest for thirty days." During that period the ministry will decide whether or not Gen. Boulanger shall be deprived of his command. The Radical members of the Chamber of Deputies have decided to make Gen. Boulanger a candidate for that body if he resigns or is removed from his command. Further complications are incessantly circulated that Gen. Boulanger has resigned his commission in the army.

HAVE YOU TRIED IT. If you can testify to its marvelous powers of healing and recommend it to your friends. We refer to Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, a great specific for all summer complaints, diarrhoea, cholera morbus, dysentery, cramps, colic, sickness of the stomach and bowel complaints of infants or adults. Let its merits be known to all who have not used it.

PREMIER MERCIER'S POPULARITY. EXCURSION OF THE FRENCH CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

THREE RIVERS, Oct. 12.—The Laurentian excursion, under the auspices of the Chamber of Commerce of the District of Montreal, has just returned from the end of the line, and the ship has been greeted by a large number of friends. The Police Inspector said the men had been removed because their duties in the place had ceased, but they would return if necessary. The Crown declared that the removal of the police was illegal, improper and unconstitutional. After all the evidence had been submitted, Mr. Harrington asked that a verdict of wilful murder be returned against Head Constable Browning and the five policemen who fired under his general order. THE LATE DR. HENRY HOWARD. The announcement of the death of Dr. Henry Howard, M.R.C.S.E., at his residence, 36 University street, last Wednesday evening, will be received with very general regret. The deceased gentleman was born in Kesh, county of Tyrone, Ireland, on the 1st December, 1815, and studied medicine in Dublin under the celebrated Dr. Jacob. He took his degree in London, Eng., in 1838. He emigrated to Canada in 1842, and first resided on Amherst Island, near Kingston, and also in Kingston, coming to Montreal about 1843, and has since resided in that city. He was appointed medical superintendent of provincial lunatic asylums in 1861, and visiting physician of Longue Pointe Asylum in 1875. Dr. Howard was author of "The Anatomy, Physiology and Pathology of the Eye," which was published in 1858. He was also an exponent of the Medical Chirurgical Society of Montreal. The deceased gentleman had a very large circle of friends, by whom he was highly esteemed for his many good qualities. He was a true and devoted Christian. He leaves two sons and three daughters, Hon. Thos. Howard, of Winnipeg; Mr. Robert Howard, of St. John's; Mrs. A. Smith, of St. John's; and Misses, Dr. J. O. Marier and Mrs. Fred. Bacon, of this city; one brother, Capt. Thos. Howard, harbor master, and one sister, Mrs. W. R. Wright, of Ottawa.

NOTES FROM WINNIPEG. WINNIPEG, Man., Oct. 13.—(Special)—Mr. Geo. Cloutier, of this city, has shipped, via the C. P. R., via Montreal, a moose head and beaver, a present to His Holiness the Pope. Mr. Wm. Owen, M. P. for Argenteuil, who has been making a tour of the province with a view to investment, is in the city. The advantages of the country have impressed him very strongly. Although large quantities of grain are being marketed at various points throughout the province, the busy season in grain business has not yet begun. This is mainly because only a small portion of the harvesting has yet been done. Farmers are all busy ploughing and preparing for next year's crop and threshing has not yet become general. A Mennonite in Southern Manitoba made an affidavit yesterday at Emerson that he threshed out 67 bushels of wheat to the acre from one of his fields a few days ago.

A TORPEDO ATTACK. NEWPORT, R.I., Oct. 12.—The torpedo attack on the cruiser Atlanta took place last night. It was an ideal night for the attack. The rules adopted adjudged any torpedo boat out of action when sufficiently long under fire to receive three rounds from the big guns. The attacking force consisted of six steam launches and four punting boats armed with spar torpedoes and of other light pulling boats under the command of Commander Chester, of the Galena. As soon as a search light had been played upon one of the boats for 15 seconds she was directed out, and a red signal light fired in her direction. Thus boat after boat was discovered, until by 8.40 p.m. all the attacking boats were considered by the umpire as destroyed, and the Atlanta, carrying away the laurels of the day, sounded the retreat.

A RECALL. Do you remember that calm star-lit night, When every sound was hushed, and every light That twinkled in the city's distance lent A sacred depth of home-filled sentiment? We stood upon sweet Verdun's rustic bridge, And watched the old moon o'er the tree tops Rise;

ST. ANDREWS BAZAAR. The bazaar in aid of the convent at St. Andrews came to a close on Saturday evening, and was quite a success, financially and otherwise. The voting for the most popular gentleman of the parish was between John Kelly, of Carleton Place, and Mr. Israel Sasse, of St. Andrews. The contest was very keen and exciting to the close of the poll, when Mr. Kelly was declared the successful candidate with a majority of 780 votes.

ANOTHER JOKE FROM JOE. LONDON, Oct. 12.—Speaking at Belfast yesterday, Mr. Chamberlain feared it would be impossible now to effect a union of the Liberals. He referred at length to the rights of the people and claimed that Ulster was the centre of intelligence of the country.

LITERARY NOTICES.

JOINT STOCK COMPANY BOOK-KEEPING. BY J. W. JOHNSON, F.C.A. Fourth Edition. Revised and enlarged. Printed for the author, Belleville, Ont.

This valuable reprint of a most important work contains a digest of the law affecting Joint Stock Companies, the manner of forming and a complete election, in a practical form, of joint stock company book-keeping; designed for the use of directors and shareholders of joint stock companies, accountants and business colleges. It is hardly necessary to point out how much the success of the business of an individual, a firm, or a company depends upon sound and accurate book-keeping, and yet the lessons taught by the failures confessedly brought about by the absence of it are in a great measure neglected. No man, or number of men, should attempt the conduct of a business without the knowledge of book-keeping themselves, or the employment of those who are possessed of it; and what is essential in this respect with individuals or firms is indispensable in connection with joint stock companies, the affairs of which are usually of magnitude, and affect a wide circle. To all such the work before us is of the utmost value and may be studied with advantage by all who have interests in joint stock concerns.

THE CANADIAN ACCOUNTANT, A PRACTICAL SYSTEM OF BOOK-KEEPING. BY S. G. DEASY AND J. W. JOHNSON, F.C.A. Seventh Edition, revised and enlarged. Ontario Business College, Belleville, Ont.

The marked success which has attended the publication of this work proves that it fills a distinct demand in the business life of the country. It contains a complete elucidation of accounts by the latest and most approved methods, business correspondence, mercantile forms and other valuable information. It is designed for use in counting houses, business colleges, academies and high schools. The time has long since gone by when a haphazard system of recording business transactions will answer the requirements of men engaged in trade and commerce. The magnitude and variety of these engagements is such that no dependence on memoranda, or any unaided native method of keeping accounts, will enable an individual to calculate with accuracy his gains and losses, and so order his affairs that he may know at any time how he stands with his debtors and creditors. There is a system, and that system must be reduced to an exact science, as invariably in its results as the problems of Euclid. Is such a thing possible in the theory and practice of book-keeping? It is possible, and its possibility is not only established in the commercial world, but it is made imperative in the qualification of those who expect to compete in the great struggle of business life. It is the aim of this work to furnish a guide to the scientific practice of keeping accounts and book-keeping in all their departments. So far as our knowledge extends it achieves this purpose, and should be in the hands of every accountant and business man in the country.

The current number of the English Magazine maintains the high standard for which its favorite publication is famous. The illustrations are unsurpassed, the frontispiece, a portrait of a being particularly fine. The contents are: "The Story of the Swabian," "Coaching Days and Coaching Ways," by W. Outram Tristram; "The Story of Jael," by the author of "Mehalah"; "The opening chapter of a delightful story," "Summer in Somerset," by Richard Jefferies; "A National Hymn for the United States of America," by E. Marion Crawford; "The Meditation of Bishop Lancelotti," by W. P. Minto; "The Mints," by H. C. Carter; by H. D. Trill, Publisher, McGill and Co., 112 Fourth Avenue, New York.

WINNIEP. Within recent weeks an amusing story has gone the rounds of the press to the effect that The American Magazine was to be conducted for the benefit of its contributors, who would receive stock in payment for their literary work. The paragraph has called forth much pity for the editor of a magazine so managed; wasted tears, as the story never had any foundation and is wholly untrue.

ARCHBISHOP FABRE

CELEBRATES THE COMMEMORATION MASS OF LAVAL UNIVERSITY—CONGRATULATIONS OF THE PROFESSORS AND THE CLERGY OF THE ARCHDIOCESE.

The commemoration mass for Laval University was celebrated at the cathedral, Thursday morning, at 8.30, His Grace Archbishop Fabre officiating, assisted by the Rev. Fathers Duhamel and Bouteau. His Grace Archbishop Duhamel, of Ottawa, and His Lordship Bishop Racine, of Sherbrooke, occupied seats in the sanctuary. The different professors of theology, law, medicine and arts, and the students of Laval University, as well as a large congregation, participated in the Holy Sacrifice. Subsequently all the faculties presented their congratulations to His Grace.

At 10 o'clock the whole clergy of the city and diocese waited upon the Archbishop in the parlors of the Palace, where they were received by His Grace on either side of his bishopric Duhamel and Bishop Racine and Bishop Lorrain, of Embrooke. Among the local clergy present our reporter noticed the Rev. Father Dowd, of St. Patrick's, Father McCarthy, of St. Anthony's, Father Leclerc, of St. Joseph's, Father Bartz, of Mile End, Father Logan, of St. Bridget's, Father Salmon, of St. Mary's, Father Adams, of St. Joseph's. About one hundred and fifty priests were present, including the representatives of all the religious communities.

The Rev. Father Sennece, of Notre Dame, read an eloquent address from the clergy of the diocese, in which appropriate mention was made of the day, which is the feast of St. Edward, the patron saint of His Grace. An address was also read by the Rev. Father F. X. Leclerc, chaplain of Longue Point Asylum, on behalf of the committee appointed some time ago to arrange for the publication of "The Letters of the Bishops of Montreal." The address was accompanied by the presentation of seven elegantly bound volumes of the letters of His Grace, the letters of Mgr. Bourget, Mgr. Bourget and the present Archbishop Fabre.

His Grace, in reply, expressed his thanks for the sentiments expressed towards him in both addresses and his gratitude for the gift accompanying the last, and in the course of subsequent remarks referred to his recent trip through Manitoba and British Columbia where, he said, great benefits had accrued from the work of the religious and the nuns in that region, a great number of whom were from this diocese. In conclusion, His Grace invited all the prelates present to dine with him.

THE CAT-O-NINE TAILS BROUGHT INTO SERVICE AGAIN—A PRISONER IN THE COMMON JAIL RECEIVES TEN LASHES THIS MORNING—THE BLOWS STRONGLY ADMINISTERED, BUT HE TAKES HIS PUNISHMENT UNFLINCHINGLY—HOW THE AFFAIR OCCURRED.

For the fourth time since the establishment of the jail in Montreal has a prisoner been called to submit to the punishment of the lash. In 1875 an Italian named Calab, who impersonated the husband of an Italian woman and committed an assault, was sentenced to imprisonment and flogging. After serving his term he became insane and died in the asylum. Some hinted that the flogging was the cause of his insanity, but it was subsequently proved false. In August, 1883, the man Dubois was also flogged, his offense being indecent assault, and in the following month a youth named Varenne, from Chambly, for a similar offence, was flogged. Since the cat-o-nine tails was not utilized, but it was brought into service again Thursday morning, when, in accordance with the sentence passed by Justice Bayley in the term of the Court of Queen's Bench, the man Desormiers, ditto Gosselin received ten lashes. It will be remembered that the man Desormiers indignantly assaulted a young girl at St. Justin about four months ago, was arrested, tried and found guilty in the Court of Queen's Bench. His sentence was twenty-three months imprisonment and twenty lashes, ten to be administered to him five days after his commitment, and the remaining ten some time during the subsequent six months. This was the fifteenth day since his imprisonment, and the first day of the severe punishment was administered. Especial interest was taken in the flogging to-day, as it will be remembered that on receiving his sentence Desormiers announced from the dock that his health was greatly impaired, and he could not stand the punishment. The hour fixed for the flogging was 6.45 o'clock this morning, and at that hour Dr. Desormiers, the prison physician, Drs. Simard and Dorette, Deputy Sheriff J. F. Dubreuil, and a few members of the press, were conducted by Jailor Payette and some of the guards to the ward where the flogging was to be inflicted. The man Desormiers was brought into the gloomy apartment holding his head almost erect, and casting a glance around until his eyes rested on the wooden triangle upon which he would be strapped. A slight shiver was noticed to pass over his frame, but he had no time to take in the surroundings properly, as he was strapped to the waist, he was placed on a table board platform at the bottom of the wooden frame, his feet secured at the bottom against each side, his legs bent about four feet apart, while his hands were raised at full length above his head and secured on each side of the scantlings. A strap was placed around his neck, for two purposes, namely, to keep his head from jerking about, and to keep his head secure to the frame. Another party was present, he being an Englishman, a prisoner, who was to administer the flogging. The cat-o-nine tails was placed in his hands, and after taking his length from the victim, the Englishman was given the word, and with a swing the lash was brought down heavily on the unfortunate's back, leaving red trails as it fell. The victim wriggled, and after three blows had been struck he pleaded to his punisher to let him strike so hard. The ten lashes were quickly given, and it is surprising how the prisoner stood the punishment. No blood was drawn, but the man's back was in an awful state. His suffering will again be recalled to the mind of the flogging, when he was unstrapped and conducted back to his cell. The whole affair transpired in five or six minutes. The cat-o-nine tails is made of cord, the knots being nearly two feet long and each one lashed here and there. The cord is about one-quarter of an inch thick. The handle is made like a whip, the lash being two feet long. The man who administered the flogging is an old offender and has performed the duty before. Desormiers was weak but did not faint, as is customary by prisoners, many of whom cannot stand flogging.

FLOGGED.

This is mainly because only a small portion of the harvesting has yet been done. Farmers are all busy ploughing and preparing for next year's crop and threshing has not yet become general. A Mennonite in Southern Manitoba made an affidavit yesterday at Emerson that he threshed out 67 bushels of wheat to the acre from one of his fields a few days ago.

A TORPEDO ATTACK. NEWPORT, R.I., Oct. 12.—The torpedo attack on the cruiser Atlanta took place last night. It was an ideal night for the attack. The rules adopted adjudged any torpedo boat out of action when sufficiently long under fire to receive three rounds from the big guns. The attacking force consisted of six steam launches and four punting boats armed with spar torpedoes and of other light pulling boats under the command of Commander Chester, of the Galena. As soon as a search light had been played upon one of the boats for 15 seconds she was directed out, and a red signal light fired in her direction. Thus boat after boat was discovered, until by 8.40 p.m. all the attacking boats were considered by the umpire as destroyed, and the Atlanta, carrying away the laurels of the day, sounded the retreat.

A RECALL. Do you remember that calm star-lit night, When every sound was hushed, and every light That twinkled in the city's distance lent A sacred depth of home-filled sentiment? We stood upon sweet Verdun's rustic bridge, And watched the old moon o'er the tree tops Rise;

ST. ANDREWS BAZAAR. The bazaar in aid of the convent at St. Andrews came to a close on Saturday evening, and was quite a success, financially and otherwise. The voting for the most popular gentleman of the parish was between John Kelly, of Carleton Place, and Mr. Israel Sasse, of St. Andrews. The contest was very keen and exciting to the close of the poll, when Mr. Kelly was declared the successful candidate with a majority of 780 votes.

MORE TRUTH THAN POETRY. The funny man of THE POST who, hitherto, has insisted on ignoring his own words in connection with a supposed painting, today by an amateur artist to insert the following conundrum: "Why is Premier Mercier like a burlar?"

VERY VALUABLE. Having used B. B. B. for biliousness and torpid liver, I would not hesitate to recommend it to all those troubled. The medicine is worth its weight in gold." J. H. White, Manitowish, Ont.

ANOTHER JOKE FROM JOE. LONDON, Oct. 12.—Speaking at Belfast yesterday, Mr. Chamberlain feared it would be impossible now to effect a union of the Liberals. He referred at length to the rights of the people and claimed that Ulster was the centre of intelligence of the country.
