

Non-enumerated Goods, Rum excepted, laden on Board in any British American Colony, allowed to be landed in Jersey or Guernsey, under the Regulations in the recited Act of 6 Geo. III.

Reign, extended to Ireland: And whereas it is reasonable to extend the like Exception to the Islands of Jersey and Guernsey: Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That any Non-enumerated Goods, except Rum, laden as aforesaid in any British American Colony or Plantation, may be landed in the said Islands of Jersey or Guernsey; and that the said Act made in the Sixth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, and all the Regulations therein contained, so far as the same relates to the Bonds and Security for landing such Non-enumerated Goods in Great Britain, shall extend, and be construed to extend, to the said Islands of Jersey and Guernsey also, as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes as if the said Islands had been excepted and named in the said Act; and that any Bonds which may have been or shall be entered into in pursuance of the said recited Acts; or either of them, shall and may be cancelled and discharged by the Certificate under the Hands and Seals of the Magistrates of the Royal Courts of Jersey or Guernsey respectively, or any Three of them, and the Principal Officer of the Customs in such Island respectively, testifying the landing such Goods there, in the same Manner as if the said Goods had been landed in Great Britain or Ireland; any thing in the said Acts to the contrary notwithstanding.
