Yeomen impressive in weekend bonspiel

ST. CATHARINES — The York Yeomen are turning into one of the top teams in the O.U.A.A. East. On Saturday January 13, the Yeomen won the-Brock Invitational Bonspeil in a stunning fashion. In the closest game, York defeated Sheridan-College 10-4. The next contest pitted York against its arch rival, the U of T. The contest was no contest as York outgunned U of T 15-4. In the third game York demolished the home town favourites Brock University, 16-3. York finished with a total of 61 3/4 points after three games while the runner-up RMC finished with 53 points. "The thrilling victory at Brock was made possible by long workouts, many practice bonspiels and the hard playdowns to get out of York," stated Curling Coach Mike Davidson.

The curling scene at York continued last weekend as York sponsored, in co-operation with Molsons, the first annual York Curling Classic. The format of the bonspiel consisted of men's and women's teams competing head to head in 3-8 end games. The bonspiel was won by RMC who outpointed the MacMaster team 49 1/2 to 48 1/4. Special mention must go to the U of T men's and women's who both could have won the bonspiel if they had won their final games.

In the late draw Laurier defeated York Yeomen by a quarter point to win the two game high. One game high winners in the early and late draws were Erindale College and Brock University respectively.

The bonspiel was a huge success and it proved that women should be curling with, and against, the men. Special congratulations should go to the team who represented the York women. This team was composed of four girls who had never curled together before the bonspiel, but who demoralized one men's team with a victory and lost two other close games. It should be noted that the women paid their own entrance fees to represent York.

The Yeomen play at Queens this weekend to determine the finalists for the Ontario University Curling playdowns at Brock on February 9-10.

Our apologies

Due to space restrictions we were unable to print the results of all last week's events. In brief, York will host a dual gym meet Saturday against Penn State University at Tait. The event starts at 2 pm.
