Miss Orma Graham,
Apartment 402,
Aylmer Apartments,
Ottawa, Ont.

Dear Miss Graham:

I duly received your letter. There is no doubt at all the Government has power to put anybody out of anywhere under the existing war legislation, and there is nothing in the world anybody can do to prevent it except make a personal appeal. You can realize a personal appeal from me would be worse than useless.

If, having tried your utmost to get somewhere to go, you cannot get any place, I suppose the only thing to do is to stay and see whether they force you out or not. One would think there would surely be some place you could get, and I do hope you will try your very utmost.

Yours very truly,

AM/E.

Enclosures returned.
