Ottawa, 23rd February, 1911.

Sir:-

I beg to enclose herewith for your information copy of a letter of to-day's date which has been addressed to Agent Nichol regarding the proposed employment of a competent man as farming instructor. If you know of a man suitable to fill the position, the Department will expect you to nominate him. The instructions issued to Mr. Nichol are given upon the assumption that you are not at present aware where a man can be found to fill the position. You will observe that when a farmer is engaged, the retention of his services will be contingent upon a report from you that they are satisfactory.

Your obedient servant,

Asst. Deputy and Secretary.
