

Ottawa, 4th May, 1914.

Sir,

The Department has received a letter on behalf of Maggie Morris of Caughnawaga claiming a Lot known as No. 378 of the Village of Caughnawaga, which formerly belonged to the late Louis F. Jackson, who purported to dispose of this property in his last will and testament.

The Department desires that you look into the question of all claims respecting this parcel of land and have the claimants produce any documents they may have in support of their contention.

Your obedient servant,

Asst. Deputy and Secretary.

Lorenzo Letourneau, Esq.,

Asst. Indian Agent,

St. Constant, Que.
