Ottawa, July 31st., 1918.

Sir,

Referring to your letter of the 16th instant, enclosing one from Mr. F.R. Brown, druggist at Okotoks, relative to the purchase of drugs for the St. Joseph's Industrial School, I beg to state that the Department has no knowledge of any contract made with Mr. Brown. The Department is now buying all the drugs wholesale whenever practicable, which explains why orders for St. Joseph's School have not been sent to Mr. Brown lately.

Your obedient servant,

Asst. Deputy and Secretary

C. I. Grain Esq., M. D.,
Chief Medical Officer for Indians,
