

MR. ELLIS: That is the same thing as referred to in the official schedule?

MR. BALLS: Yes.

MRS. ALEXANDER: Gasetted into a record.

MR. ELLIS: There is no trouble there, is there?

MR. BALLS: No, I don't think there are any other rights at all on that creek.

THE CHAIRMAN: Yes, there is a record right on the next lot, 1975.

MR. BALLS: Yes. They apparently get all the water they need there.

THE CHAIRMAN: You intend to use the same intake. According to the record it ought to be a mile up the creek.

MR. BALLS: Yes, but I think they can use the old intake on their record. It will mean a new application for any additional water.

THE CHAIRMAN: What is the amount of the record?

MR. BALLS: 80 inches. They are irrigating about 60 acres of land, that is partly.

THE CHAIRMAN: Yes.

MR. BALLS: Upper Similkameen Number 5, Lulu. Provincial record dated January 30th, 1897, for 100 inches of water from Lulaulsub<sub>2</sub> Creek. I think that is just Lulu Creek. Do they get all the water they want on the Lulu Reserve?

MR. BALL: Yes.

MR. ELLIS: That seems to finish it, Mr. Chairman.

THE CHAIRMAN: Yes.

MR. ELLIS: I was just going to say, Mr. Commissioners, I would
