Controller of Civil Aviation,
Department of Transport,
OTTAWA, Ontario.

1. With reference to your letter of December 24th, 1946, please be advised that the log books mentioned have been delivered to Mr. W. LeSauvage, through his Operations Manager, Mr. Earl Phillips.
2. The address of this concern is, Toronto Island Airport. It is believed that the registered slip, which was forwarded from the Post Office to the Island Airport, was never delivered to Mr. LeSauvage, therefore, these log books were not called for at the Post Office.

R. Joy
for (D.G. Joy),
District Inspector, Air Regulations,
Toronto.
