It has rained one or two Sundays lately in the evening and so some people have missed church altogether for those days. Moral—Attend morning service when possible.

The visits of Mr. Southam and Mr. McConnell, students of Wycliffe College, who have taken duty in this parish in October, have been much appreciated, and, we are sure, productive of good.

A localized edition of the C.M.S. "Gleaner" is to be published in Toronto beginning with the new year. There are few missionary publications equal to the "Gleaner", and we hope that many of our readers will subscribe for it, as the price is small.

A conference of the clergy of the Archdeaconry of Peterboro has been arranged for Nov. 27th and 28th at Peterboro. The Ven. Archdeacon Allen, who has called it, will preside, and a number of important subjects will be considered—such as "The State of the Church in the Parishes and Missions of our Archdeaconry," "Christian Education in the Public Schools," "Sunday School Education," etc.

Among the new-comers to Lindsay who are worshippers at St. Paul's are Mr. and Mrs. Mowat, Melbourne-st., near William; Miss Holmes, at Mrs. Young's, Melbourne-st.; and Miss Lillie Ordie, at Mrs. J. B. Warner's, Bond-st. We gladly welcome them.

St. John's Church, Cambay, has been repainted both inside and out—the wainscoting grained, the windows frosted, and a text placed over the chancel arch. Everything now looks nice, neat and inviting. Credit is due to the young men who collected the money and had it done, especially Dr. Smith and Mr. Berkeley.

The other day a young man who works on a farm, after getting his wages, brought in $9 and divided it up, giving part to ordinary church expenses, part to the work of the Young Men's Association, and small donations to the Sunday-school and Widows' and Orphans' Fund. Some of his neighbors think he is a fool to give so much away, but he lays by a tenth for good works, and knows that they that honor God, God will honor.
