

CURE FOR DYSPEPSIA

As is well known, this troublesome complaint arises from over-eating, the use of too much rich food, neglected constipation, lack of exercise, bad air, etc.

The food should be thoroughly chewed, and never bolted or swallowed in haste, stimulants must be avoided and exercise taken if possible.

A remedy which has rarely failed to give prompt relief and effect permanent cures, even in the most obstinate cases, is

BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS

It acts by regulating and toning the digestive organs, removing costiveness and increasing the appetite and restoring health and vigor to the system.

Mr. Amos Sawler, Gold River, N.S., writes:—"I was greatly troubled with dyspepsia, and after trying several doctors to no effect I commenced taking Burdock Blood Bitters and I think it is the best medicine there is for that complaint."

Consumption Book FREE

This valuable medical book tells in plain, simple language how Consumption can be cured in your own home. If you know of any one suffering from Consumption, Catarrh, Bronchitis, Asthma or any throat or lung trouble, or are yourself afflicted, this book will help you to a cure. Even if you are in the advanced stage of the disease and feel there is no hope, this book will show you how others have cured themselves after all remedies they had tried failed, and they believed their case hopeless.

Write at once to the Yonkerman Consumption Remedy Co., 1316 Rose Street, Kalamazoo, Mich., and they will send you from their Canadian Depot the book and a generous supply of the New Treatment, absolutely free, for they want every sufferer to have this wonderful cure before it is too late. Don't wait—write today. It may mean the saving of your life.

A correspondent writes to the Newark News to ask the editor how he pronounces "chauffeur." This is the reply given: "We usually pronounce 'chauffeur' the way the other fellow pronounces it. If he says 'chaw-fer,' we say 'chaw-fer' too. It is the only safe thing to do in an age when everybody is suspected of trying to appear refined. Among the most common pronunciations of the word are the following: Sho-fur, shuf-fer, sho-fure, shov-er, shaw-fer, chaf-fer, chaw-fer, chow-fer, shif-fer, she-fur, sho-foot; sho-feer."

A young captain, who was drilling the awkward squad, commanded thus: "Now, my men, listen to me. When I say 'Halt!' put the foot that's on the ground beside the one that's in the air, and remain motionless."

GOSSIP.

Henry M. Douglas, Stayner, Ont., reports the ready sale of the half-bred Hackney horse recently advertised by him in "The Farmer's Advocate." The buyer arrived on the 5 p. m. train, closed the deal, loaded and shipped out on the 6.30 p. m., the same day.

At the Nottingham sale of Yorkshire swine on April 27th, nearly one hundred head were catalogued, and 99 head sold for an average of $45 each, the top price being $120, for the sow, Nottingham Royal Buttercup 18th, purchased by the Earl of Ellesmere. At the dispersion sale of the Yorkshire herd of R. R. Rothwell, 69 head sold for an average of $40 each, the highest price being $200, for the sow, Fulwood Miss Nottingham 4th, to E. Newton.

SHORTHORNS BY AUCTION.

The second annual surplus-stock sale from the noted Valley Home herd of S. J. Pearson, Son & Co., of Meadowvale, Ont., will be held at the farm, one mile from Meadowvale Station, C. P. R., on Wednesday, June 2nd, when 19 head will be sold, exclusive of calves at foot. There will be four young bulls, three of them ready for service; ten heifers from one to two years of age, and five cows with calves at foot. This offering presents a most favorable opportunity for farmers to stock up with a few choice heifers, thus making ready for the inevitable advance in prices in the very near future. Look up our next week's issue.

Colonel Beck's thinking horse, Denmark, is the pride of the animal kingdom of a city in Eastern Pennsylvania. He is the one horse among all others that everybody seems to know, and not only knows, but loves, as well. He is known by all horsemen within a radius of some thirty miles. He is a beautiful bay gelding, fifteen years old. Every grocer in the city of Reading knows this horse, for the little boys and girls are the grocers' patrons, for lumps of sugar to feed him while he may be standing at a street corner awaiting his owner to come back to the carriage. Denmark has never been frightened. He is fearless as a man who is used to the dangers of life. Colonel Beck has driven him across the two-foot walk for pedestrians on a trolley bridge over the Schuylkill River. He has at other times driven him with his nose to the front of steam engines, and at one time he placed his two feet on the driving wheel of a locomotive while the whistle was blowing and the steam hissing, eating at the same time an apple from the hands of the engineer in charge of the engine. Denmark has many peculiarities. He is a fine saddle horse; he can walk, trot, fox-trot, pace, singlefoot, canter, march, waltz, two-step, cake-walk, side-step, pirouette, or climb stairs, while bridled or unbridled, at the option of the rider. He can change his gait from one style to the other at a moment's notice, without being touched with a spur or whip, and the fact is that neither Colonel Beck nor Miss Beck have ever touched him with either. Colonel Beck, whenever out driving, leaves Denmark to himself at any and all places, and follows his business. When he returns to the vehicle, Denmark is always there at the same spot and in the same spirits. He never gets restless, as his reasoning powers seem to tell him that his owner will not stay longer than necessary to transact his business.

TRADE TOPIC.

Clearing the land of stumps and stones is done much more rapidly by the use of powder than by the old method of chopping or dragging out the former, or grubbing up the latter by hand or horse. In past days, some found justification for pulling stumps in the excuse that they were wanted for fences. Now, however, such fences are out of date. All now realize that time is money, and the quickest way of removing obstacles from cultivated areas is the best, provided the cost is not excessive. Write to The Hamilton Powder Co., of Toronto, whose advertisement appears in this issue, for cost and detailed instructions about blasting.

Men, Be Strong.

Take This Belt for What It Is Worth. Wear It Until You Are Cured—Then Pay Me My Price.

Every man should understand that physical power, large muscles, strength and endurance come from animal electricity. My treatment will pump every part of the body full of that, and perfection will result. It not only restores vigor and increases nerve power, but it cures Rheumatism, Pains in the Back and Kidneys, Indigestion and Constipation, and all troubles which result from weakness of any vital organ. I have learned to put a lot of confidence in men, especially men who are weak, sickly and delicate, who have tried everything to restore their vitality and failed, who have lost faith in themselves and humanity in general, because they have been led to try so many remedies which were no more use than as much water. These are the men I want to wear my Belt, and I will wait for my pay until they are cured. All I ask is that they give me reasonable security while the Belt is in their possession and use. If it don't cure you it costs you nothing. Is there anything more fair?

GET SOME LIFE INTO YOU

Where there is any physical constitution to work on, my treatment will develop perfect manhood. It will take the slightest spark of manly vigor and fan it into a flame which will encompass the whole structure and charge every nerve and muscle in the body with the vigor of youth.

Ellesmere, Ont., March 20, 1908.

Dr. McLaughlin:—

Dear Sir,—I am pleased to be able to report to you that the Belt I purchased from you last December has done me a world of good. It has taken the pain completely out of my back, and I can now work all day without feeling it at all. Yours very truly, G. LLOYD.

MR. C. W. TINDALL, 188 Humber-side avenue, Toronto Junction, says my Belt cured him of a bad case of Nervous Weakness.

Dr. McLaughlin:—

Dear Sir:—I am pleased with your treatment. I feel like a new man. I have gained over twenty pounds. I would not be without it for any money. — DAVID CRAWFORD, Oso Station, Ont.

Wherever you are, I think I can give you the name of a man in your town that I have cured. Just send me your address and let me try. This is my twenty-fourth year in the business of pumping new vim into worn-out humanity, and I've got cures in nearly every town on the map. All I ask is that you secure me and pay me only when your cure is complete.
