Letter from the Grand President.

Office of the Grand President of the Grand Council of the C. M. B. A. of Canada.

Brockville, Ont., August 29, 1803.

BROTHERS.—I am desirous of calling your attention to the following section of the new Constitution, and to advise you that no attention must be paid to appeals which have not the senction of the Board of Trustees of this Grand Council:

"Sec 77. No appeals from a Branch for charity or donations shall be considered by another branch of this association without first having received the approval and other readorsement in writing of the Board of Trustees of this Council. Any branch violating the provisions of this section shall be fined the sum of $25; the same to be collected by the Grand Secretary."

Yours fraternally,
O. K. Fraser. er from the Grand Pre

Resolutions of Condolence. Hall of Branch No. 202, Chatham, N. B.
At the regular meeting of Branch No. 202,
C. M. B. A., held this evening, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously

C. M. B. A., held this evening, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Whereas the Omnipotent God in His infinite wisdom has summoned from our midst our worthy and highly esteemed brother. James M. Knight, brother of our Spiritual Adviser, the Rev. John S. Knight; and whereas, during his connection with our branch he has ever been most loyal to its laws and principles; therefore be it.

Resolved that while we cannot but express our deep sorrow at the death of so good and faithful a member, let us imitiate our Divine Lord when suffering the most excruciating pangs for all mankind in Gethsemane, by saying, "Not our will, O Heavenly Father, but Thine be done."

Resolved that we tender to the afflicted family our sincere sympathy in their great sorrow, earnestly hoping that their bereavement may be over-ruled for their greater good, and that the Christian life of him for whom they mourn, has gained him an eternity of happiness.

Resolved that these resolutions be published in the local newspapers, and in the CATHOLIC RECORD, and recorded in the minutes, and that a copy of the same be presented to the family of our deceased brother. W. T. Connors, Roger Flanagan, W. Moran, committee en resolutions.

Toronto, Branch 200, C. M. B. A. St. Paul's. At the last meeting of this Branch held in St. Paul's Hall, President Rev. J. L. Hand in the chair, the following resolution expressing the society's deep regret at the death of their esteemed Brother, James Brennan, was passed and called forth from the members words of praise for the deceased's efficiency as Recording Secretary as well as the tenderest references to his many other good qualities:

Moved by C. J. McCabe, seconded by D. Hartnett. Whereas it has pleased Almighty God in His inscrutable wisdom to remove from our midst our beloved Brother and Recording Secretary, James Brennan, of this Branch, while yet in his prime of life.

And whereas the deceased James Brennan was active in organizing St. Paul's Branch of the C. M. B. A., and a charter member of same; and,
Whereas, the said Jakies Brennan has rendered valuable service to the Catholic cause in Ontario; be it therefore Resolved, 1. That this Branch extend its sympathy and heartfelt condidence to the parents and relatives of our deceased Brother, 2, That our charter be draped in mourning to the period of one year, out of respect to his memory. 3. That the members of this Branch assist at the funeral and accompany the remains of our lamented friend to the tomb.

At the close of the ceremony, the President with the power to make the branch successful, which he had every reason to believe it would be. He had some experience in societies not connected with Holy Church. He strongly advised the members to use their influence in inducing their friends to join the E. B. A. in preference to those conducted by our Protestant friends; not but that these societies were conducted upon sound financial principles, but at the same time matters would arise at their meetings that proved it was far wiser to be in an association of Catholics, where all could work in harmony. Other addresses followed, and a short time was spent in recreation, after which the branch adjourned to meet on Wednesday, Sapt. 6th, all well pleased with the work done, and with confidence that several initiations will take place the next meeting. The Bells of Heaven.

For the CATHOLIC RECORD. When human hearts are happy,
When life looks bright and gay,
When smiles the blessed sunshine
Upon our paths each day.
When speeds the chill December,
When comes the joyous June,
O, joyful hearts, remember
Life's sweet bells are in tune.

When true love's course runs smoothly, When loving hearts are true, When far the green eyed monster Is kept from me and you. When eyes look up to heaven To bless it for each boon, How sweetly chimes the music, The sweet bells are in tune.

But when the skies are frowning, When loving hearts grow cold, When happiness isdrowning In misery untold, When Hope beside the hearthstone Sits like a crone and croons, O, then alas! no longer The sweet bells are in tune.

When, gazing not on heaven, Our eyes look down to hell. When hearts to hope forever Bid mournfully farewell. When comes the ctril December Keplacing lovely June, O, then sad hearts, remember Sweet bells are out of tune.

But, hark ! the bells are ringing From heaven unto earth,
The joyiul message bringing
Of the Redeemer's birth;
O, listen, sad hearts riven,
To their celestial rune.

The following resolution was then moved by Jos. P. Downey, and soconded by Thos. J. Scanlan:

Resolved, That we, the members of the League of the Cross, in meeting assembled, desire to express our profound sorrow at the removal from Guelph and the spiritual direction of our society, of Rev. Father Plante, S. J. From its infancy, through all its adversities and successes, it has been his duty and special gratification to watch over the members with a loving and fatherly care. When the dark cloud of affliction came down on many a happy home he oft was the humble instrument, in the hands of Providence, that led the erring one back to the path of rectitude, and brought joy and peace to weeping hearts. Into our lives, as well as into our society, his goodness and kindness entered and exercised their benign-influence. We mourn him still more as the blessed comforter to whom we cheerfully unburdened our trials and sorrows.

We fully realized that the League of the Cross has sustained a great loss, but as an earnest of our devotion for Father-Plante we pledge ourselves to put forth our best efforts to promote the greater success of the society he loved so well. Our prayers and best wishes for his future go with him to his new field of labor, in which we hope his efforts to do good may be abundantly blessed.

That a copy of this resolution be forwarded to Father Plante.

In introducing the resolution Mr. Downey said he did not think it necessary to add anything to what was contained therein. Every member fully appreciated the great loss which the League had sustained through Father Plante's removal from Guelph. He it was who organized the League, and ever since its origin the accomplishment of its worthy purpose had been the aim of his hardest labor. To his noble work the success of the society and the good it had achieved was mainly due. But though he would be greatly missed, the League was blessed by of the society and the good it had achieved was mainly due. But, though he would be greatly missed, the League was hlessed by having so worthy a successor to Father Plante as the new director, Father O'Loane. In his hands no one could have any fear for the future prosperity of the society.

The resolution was passed unanimously, and the meeting adjourned.

APPRECIATION OF THE NEW "MAN-UAL OF THE PRECIOUS BLOOD," FROM A WELL-KNOWN
PEN.

I have just read, from beginning to end, the "Book of the Elect," an abridgment of the New Manual of the Precious Blood. Every page respires love of Jesus Crucified and bears the impress of ardent, suave and solid piety; each page is the expression of lively and enlightened faith; each as to the redeeming and expiating power of the Precious Blood, and verifies to the full, the axiom: "The rule of praying is the rule of believing."

"THE COLUMBIAN JUBILEE."

LETTER FROM HIS GRACE THE MOST REV. ARCHBISHOP WALSH.

Messrs. J. S. Hyland & Co.:

I beg to acknowledge with thanks a copy of your beautiful publication "The Columbian Jubilee," This excellent book contains, substantially, the history of the Catholic Church in North America for the last four hundred years, and its perusal can not fail to be most interesting and instructive. In its pages are given faithful descriptions of the sublime self sacrifice, the apostolic zeal and heroic courage of the early Missionaries, who sought out the savages in their dark forests and on the shores of the Great Laker, in order to bring them the glad tidings of the gospel and make them sharers in the mercies and graces of the Redemption. There also one may read of the wonderful progress of the Church in these countries, of her untiring and beneficient mission, of her institutions of learning and charity, and of the other uncounted blessings that ever attend on her sacred ministration.

We bespeak for this admirable work, the encouragement and patronage which it so well deserves.

4 JOHN WALSH,
Archbishop of Toronto,
Toronto, Aug. 27, 1893.

His Eminence, Cardinal Gibbons concludes a long letter by saying:

"I take special pleasure in referring to the admirable preface, from the gifted pen of Mr. Maurice F. Egan, in which are so beautifully expressed the keynote, spirit and scope of your efforts.

"The 'Imprimatur' of the Most Rev. Metrepolitan of Chicago is at once an evidence of the book's value, and an assurance of the success.

"I bespeak for it a deep appreciation and an extuded circulation."

"I bespeak for it a deep appreciation and an extended circulation. The work will be a valuable hand-book of ready reference, and should be found on the desk of every student and on the tables of every family, so that its contents may be familiar to everyone."

From every harm and woe
That may lay a nation low,
May God save Ireland, say we all!

From evil-hearted foes,
And tron traitors, worse than those,
From schemings of the slavish and the vile,
From schemings of the slavish and the vile,
From the blighting civil strife.
That makes dark a nation's life,
Oh, may God protect our own beloved Isle!
God save Ireland, pray we loudly,
May Heaven's choicert blessings on her

MR. SIM. COLLINS, WEST LONDON.

Died, at his mother's residence, 35 Blackfriars street, West London, on Sept. 2, Simon Collins, aged nineteen years.

Early in the week, not feeling well, he quit work, but nothing serious was expected. On Wednesday morning his condition became more serious, and medical aid was summoned. Inflammation of the bowels was found to have set in, and deceased gradually grew worse until death resulted about 6 a. m. on Sept. 2. He was nineteen years of age and a son of the late Daniel Collins. For some time he has been in partnership with his brother in the ice business. Deceased was a steady young man, was well known and popular. The funeral took place on Monday morning from the family residence, to St. Peter's Cathedral, where Requiem Mass was celebrated for the repose of the deceased soul. May he rest in peace!

MR. MICHAEL MURPHY, TORONTO.

MR. MICHAEL MURPHY, TORONTO.

With feelings of the deepest regret we have to announce the death of Mr. Michael Murphy, contractor, of Toronto. All that was mortal of this master mind was laid away to rest in St. Michael's cemetery, on Thursday last, Aug. 31, in the presence of many sorrowing friends, prominent among whom was Rev. Father Brennan, St. Mary's, diocese of London, who went to assist at the last sad rites of him who, by his kind heart, gentlemanly bearing and straightforward course, had endeared himself to him and to his congregation, during the past twelve months while engaged in the building of the handsome new church, the masonry of which was the work of deceased.

Few dry eyes were to be seen within the sacred edifice when, on Sunday last, Father Brennan referred in feeling terms to the sad event; indeed the rev. pastor himself was visibly affected, and after pointing with pride to the last evidence of his skill, he invited the congregation to assist at a High Mass of Requiem for the repose of his soul, which was sung on Monday morning. Large numbers responded to his invitation, showing their love for him who though a stranger among them, had succeeded in winning the respect of all who had the pleasure of knowing him. May God, in His mercy, grant rest to his soul! MR. MICHAEL MURPHY, TORONTO.

THE WESTERN FAIR.

The wide publicity given the Western Fair through the press of the Dominion and posters has had the effect of inducing leading cattle breeders in the Province of Quebec to enter their stock for competition here. Four-teen entries have been received from Petite Cote and eleven from Coaticook in the same province. Some slight idea of the magnitude of the Fair this year may be gathered from the fact that entries in cattle at the present time are seven times in excess of 1892, and eight times the number of poultry entries that were recorded last year. Time of opening, Sept. 14, is drawing near so exhibitors should make their entries early.
