Half Rates on Seed Grain

After January 15 farmers selling seed grain can secure half rates for shipment on all railways in Western Canada. For particulars see your station agent. This offers a special inducement for farmers desiring to sell any surplus of good seed grain they may have on hand. This spring should be an especially good one to make sales. The high financial returns of last year's crop and the evidence in increased yield of good seed as well as good cultivation will induce many to purchase a good stock for the next crop. The Farmers' Market Place in The Guide is a good place to advertise your offering of good seed. Guide readers have enjoyed the exclusive series of Seager Wheeler's articles of seed and will naturally profit thereby by getting good seed. Moreover, many of them have already demonstrated that this page can sell good seed economically.

Read What they Say:

"My advertisements for hatching eggs carried in The Guide for four weeks brought me all the business I could handle."—J. H. Clarke, Virden, Man.

"From $7.60 worth of advertising I have sold $50.70 worth of chickens."—Mrs. D. B. Howell, Langenburg, Sask.

"I invested $1.00 and reaped directly from it the sale of 22 birds at $1.50 each."—J. R. Lowe, Chaplin, Sask.

"I sold all the tuckers I had to spare (about $100 worth) thru my little ad in The Guide."—C. A. Thompson, Rosedale, Sask.

"My ad. in your paper paid all right."—J. B. Wright, Plumas, Man. 4-10

If you have anything for sale, livestock, poultry, farm lands, seed grain, machinery, etc., it will pay you to put an advertisement in the Farmers' Market Place for a few weeks. Advertising rates and full particulars are given at the top of this page. Send it in now accompanied by the amount for the number of times you wish it to run and get in touch with hundreds of purchasers for every one you can sell without advertising.
